IN MEMORIAM

MRS. FRANK BEAGEN.

After a somewhat lingering illness death came on Friday the 13th. Mrs. Frank Beagen of Tryone, P. E. I., in her 33rd year. She had suffered intensely though very patiently. The deceased was a very industrious hardworking woman, and of a kindly disposition. She was always ready to assist a neighbor when it came within her power, consequently all who knew her esteemed and admired her in life and now deeply deplore her death. She had many amiable qualities, and was a faithful attendant at her Parish Church, St. Anne's the Pastor of which administered to her the last sad rites. Her funeral took place from her home in Emuval on Sunday, the 15th, to St. Anne's Church, Lot 65, and was very largely attended. Rev. Dr. Curran, sang the Mass of Requiem for the repose of her soul. She is survived by a kind and loving husband and two children, Mary Agnes and an infant three weeks old, also two sisters Mrs. Willie Costello and Mrs. Croken also one brother Sylvester, who have the sympathy of all in their sad bereavement. The pall-bearers were: James A. Murray, Hugh Malone, Joseph Gallant, Pat Flood, Will McQuaid and Jas. Coady.

May her soul rest in peace.
"Not dead, but gone forever."
How long before us, who can tell?
Maybe, like Thee, in thought adore,
In every action serve her well,
For eye hath not seen, nor mortal known
The peace God giveth to His own.

LAND REFORM ISSUE FOR LLOYD GEORGE.

MONTREAL, July 7.—A special London cable says:—There is every sign that the forthcoming campaign for land reform upon which Lloyd George and the Liberal party are to enter will be made the occasion of a bitter fight between the governing classes and the democracy. The land owners of the country are already organizing with a view to preventing the land laws being made the shuttlecock of vote-hunting politicians. This, however, will not prevent the subject being raised. Indeed it has already been raised by an agrarian war in Lancashire, where the spectacle is daily being seen of farmers carrying on their work under military protection. The transport and railway men have now threatened to join the strike of laborers unless improved conditions for the latter are granted. There is also great unrest among the farm laborers in Somersetshire, and reports from other districts show that the dissatisfaction is spreading. The time appears to be most opportune for Lloyd-George's scheme, on which the next election will be fought.

CLOSING STOCK LETTER By Direct Private Wire to F. B. McCurdy & Co.

NEW YORK.—Unfavorable developments have reduced speculation to a minimum but have produced no marked decline. The last hour was extremely dull. Some issues were established at new low levels for the day.

Union Pacific was the most active feature yielding to 14 1/2 and fractional losses were sustained in Reading and Acp New Haven declining over a point. U. S., 2 per cent. bonds are half a point lower and New York City bonds are also heavy.

The tone of the bond market has shown no improvement since the market rallied from the low point made in the first part of June.

Total sales 136,000 bonds $1,583,000.

GRAIN AND PROVISION Wheat. Firm cables on political news and had French and Russian weather reports were entirely ignored and there was a rush to sell at the opening, several large wire houses leading.

There was stubborn resistance at 89 for a time which was finally overcome by persistent bear attacks.

The buying has been made up to the moment but so far insufficient to more than steady the market around bottom prices.

Corn and Oats opened steady and for a moment were strong on fair commission house demand.

The weakness in wheat has started liquidation in the Cereals also and also some short selling.

Provisions—Moderate trade in Provisions.

Milwaukee against thought to be selling.

NEW YORK PAPERS ON THE STOCK MARKET SITUATION The Herald—The behavior of Wall street in face of bad news shows that it is likely to occur when good news comes.

World—The market displays a great deal of underlying strength.

American—The technical position of the market warrants a rally but other influences would indicate a further decline.

Sun—There is no sign of fresh pressure despite incentives to weakness.

RANDOLPH ON STOCKS Union Pacific about the best speculation on railway list. At current prices it looks very cheap to me.

What is bad in situation has been discounted. General market no longer responds to bad news.

MILITARY VISIT TO CHARLOTTETOWN

not confined to The Guardian's representative. While he was mounting the gangway to the steamer he stopped for a minute or so to have a pleasant chat with a party of girls who formed part of the large and enthusiastic crowd on the wharf. Smilingly he told them that he would be coming back on another visit, and that his stay would be longer on the next occasion; he would not mind if he could have stayed longer on his present trip.

While the steamer was casting off her moorings, the Band played "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows," which both the Minister and the General acknowledged by saluting, and then the crowd on shore gave them three hearty cheers. When the Earl Grey was moving away, the band played "Auld Lang Syne," and amid a scene of much enthusiasm, the steamer went swiftly out of dock.

She was to return to Pictou and land the party there, and Colonel Hughes and Sir Ian with their staff will proceed to Halifax on their inspection tour.

In the event of the strenuous time they have already passed can be seen in the fact that since June 5, ten thousand miles have been travelled besides two thousand miles more to be covered in the Maritime Provinces. The trip has been all hard work and no fuss and feathers. The Minister of Militia, the Inspector-General of the Overseas forces and their staffs, at the different camps, were in the saddle early in the morning for several hours and took part with the troops in the different tactical manoeuvres and sham-battles.

COL. HUGHES' REMARKS In an interview, Col. Hughes stated that there was a spirit of work abroad amongst all Canadian soldiers and military training was now no twelve-days' loafing, and as to the abolition of the canteen and its effect, he gave his opinion as follows: "The small percentage of 'bum' element has been eliminated or else straightened up. I heard not one solitary word of complaint but everywhere the highest commendation about the absence of liquor. The men in camp don't want it."

The Minister also stated that there was no need of compulsory service in Canada, as the people were being educated to the importance of voluntary military training. Col. Hughes, however, indulged in some criticism. He said there was a greater need for better trained officers and to meet the need he was starting on a new scheme for university training corps. He also stated that clothing and equipment were short, which was a vital necessity in case of an emergency. The military force was growing in popularity, remarking that 72,500 men over and above the present establishment had applied to be formed into corps this year. In Victoria a new Highland regiment was formed on the spot while he was there to meet the pressing demand of the young men of the city. Upwards of 35,000 men were trained in camp this year and the strength of the military force of Canada is now 73,000 and the cadets numbered 35,000.

Col. Hughes stated that large training areas would have to be obtained for Toronto and Western Ontario and he was contemplating their acquisition. He stated that the spirit of the West was intensely British and those American settlers who were born under the Stars and Stripes made good British subjects.

Asked as to what effect on the future defence of Canada the present inspection trip would have, Col. Hughes said: "The best defence scheme for Canada on land is one and a half million men trained to shoot straight and then Canada will never be troubled with the invader."

SIR IAN'S IMPRESSIONS General Hamilton was as enthusiastic in his impressions of the trip and especially as regards conditions in the west which he declared is essentially a place for old soldiers and young women, and "I am amazed at the growth and the progress everywhere. I use the word 'old' not in any sense of age, but to those men who have served several years in the British army."

On the eastern and western problem the General made a striking statement: "I think," he said, "that the red coat is binding the east and west as much together as even the prodigious efforts of the G. T. P., C. P. R. and C. N. R. He explained that the common interests existing between the eastern and western soldier in a common love and respect to the British flag and British institutions were the reasons for his statement.

The growth, the physique and the spirit of the western soldier were highly praised by Sir Ian. Of course, he would make no statement as to military fitness, as he is working on his report which will first be presented to the Minister of Militia and Defence before his return to England on July 24. Gen. Hamilton praised the action of Col. Sam. Hughes in acquiring at the present stage of Canada's growth large training and manoeuvring areas. He maintained that if such action had been taken by Great Britain a hundred years ago, she would now be the happy possessor of thousands of acres of land for training purposes, which she badly needs.

Sir Ian was much impressed with Sewell camp and stayed for several hours on the bivouac with the Cameron Highlanders from Winnipeg. He told, with great feeling, of the respect he got from the Highlanders and how the boy mascot, a mite of six years, gravely saluted him. The General takes a keen interest in all Highland regiments, more particularly as he began his military career as Lieutenant in the Gordon Highlanders.

General Hamilton paid a high tribute to the C. P. R. for employing so many old soldiers as policemen along their various lines in the west. Nearly every station he went to, he said, he

A MESSAGE FROM A WOMAN TO WOMEN

"Every Woman Should Take 'Fruit-a-tives'"

LAKELET, ONT., MAY 12th, 1911

"Kindly publish this letter of mine if you think it will benefit other women who might be afflicted with the disease I have had in the past, but am now, thanks to 'Fruit-a-tives', completely cured of. It is my firm belief that every woman should take 'Fruit-a-tives' if she wants to keep herself in good health.

Before taking 'Fruit-a-tives', I was constantly troubled with what is commonly known as 'Nerves' or severe Nervousness. This Nervousness brought on the most violent attacks of Sick Headache, for which I was constantly taking doctors' medicine without any permanent relief. Constipation was also a source of great trouble to me and for which the Doctor said 'I would have to take medicine all my life', but 'Fruit-a-tives' banished all these troubles and now I am a well woman!"

"After I came home I saw your advertisement in the paper, and commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
