MR STEWART NOTES—What the villagers are saying—That the new village pump would look better if it had an ornamental top; that reckless driving on bridge and street is getting too common; that this is a dangerous and foolish way of "showing off"; that the road machine has done poor work in this part of the country; that the new Methodist minister has arrived; that he made a favorable impression at his first service, that both clergymen here are Scotch; that the tea party was a success; that over $300 were cleared; that the Ross Hotel is doing a lively business; that the hay-makers are at it again; that the crop is generally good; that the old wharf on the north side of the river will soon be invisible; that Benjamin Jay is making a fine clearance near the Old English Church; that Miss Gillis is giving satisfaction in the South School—Com.

SKIRTS OF STYLE

We pay special attention to our skirt department. We're working to make it the best in the Province—We keep always in touch with the newest and best in this line—and the best makers submit their samples first here. A few attractive lines we've just opened described below.

Good Skirt of moderately heavy weight, tweeds and chevots, good value at $3.00, our price . . . $1.99
Black chevot skirt, very prettily made and finished, large band especially made for stout figures . . . $2.95
In navy or black Vicuna, there's a very stylish skirt, plain at hips, side gores, finished in pleats . . . $3.15
A notably smart skirt of grey mixed tweed has two pleats at each side of front gore—pleats released about knee length, to give flare . . . $5.75
Another handsome thing comes in grey herring bone tweed, box pleated from the hip to base of skirt—a most attractive garment at . . . $8.40
Fine black vicuna skirt, 9 gores, lap seams, every alternate gore has a cluster of five pleats from knee depth, finished above pleating with diagonal strips of satin . . . $10.75

ACCORDEON PLEATED SKIRTS.

This is a handsome high-class novelty not to be had anywhere else in the City—and practically impossible to obtain custom made. Two varieties—accordion pleated from hip to base—in navy or black panama . . . $11.50
Accordion pleated with smocking at hip and knee—black panama, only $12.95
