satisfactory basis which will be decided at a later date. Dr. Charles Dougan, President of the League on receiving the trophy thanked the donor most heartily on behalf of the ball players and local baseball fans in general.

Last night's large attendance and the presence of such a fine body of artists surely spoke volumes and is a fitting tribute to the great outdoor game in this city. To look over the cast one can readily realize the interest and enthusiastic co-operation, manifest by our citizens, and it is an assured fact that such splendid services given free and wholeheartedly will not go amiss, and the different baseball clubs in the City League will no doubt try and prove worthy of the magnificent support given them.

To make special mention of any number on the well balanced program would be out of order as each and every number was heartily received and loudly encored.

The following was the program: Opening remarks by His Worship Mayor Miller, and presentation of silver cup to City Baseball League. Selections, Dixon's Orchestra, Dancing Special, Miss Mary Taylor.

Solo, Mr. C. J. Gallagher, Violin Solo—Mr. Alfred McKearney.

Solo—Mr. James Donovan, Dancing—Miss Martini.

Reading—Major E. McDonald, Comedy Sketch—Messrs. J. Callaghan and Connolly.

Canada's Day

April 22, 1915.

(April 22, 1915.)

The following sketches, poems and quotations have been contributed in loving memory by Major D. A. Macdonald, Russ Hotel, Charlottetown, P. E. Island, Canada.

Honour to Whom Honour is Due

The years have passed rapidly yet looking back seems only like a few weeks since the eyes of the world looked upon the British Army and the men of the "Red Patch." The mist of time has grown thicker and more dense. We sometimes think the world has forgotten that such a cruel time ever existed. I will now quote from Col. F. G. Scott's poem "A Grave in Flanders", which shows great depth of feeling of those that now live with the memory of those awful days.

All night the tall trees overhead
Are whispering to the stars;
Their roots are wrapped about the
And hide the hideous scars.

The tide of war goes rolling by,
The legions sweep along;
And daily in the summer sky,
The birds will sing their song.

No place is this for human tears,
The time for tears is done;
Transfigured in these awful years,
The two worlds blend in one.

This boy had visions while in life
Of stars on distant skies;
So death came in the midst of strife.

A sudden, glad surprise.
He found the songs for which he yearned,
His heart had mocked desire;
His heart is resting now which burned
With such consuming fire.

So down the ringing road we pass,
And leave him where he fell,
The guardian trees, the moving grass
The birds will love him well.

Early in the afternoon of the 22nd, German artillery started steadily gaining in numbers as if there were a never-ending number of guns which kept up an increasing bombardment until one would imagine the Lord had opened the Heavens and ruled out thunder and lightning. About nine o'clock the grand old city of Ypres and the famous Cloth Hall were in flames causing sufficient light with the aid of that awful hall of explosive that would make one imagine it was still day although it was night. Was it not Hell when one would see thousands of men, women and children panicking, some with their backs curved with the toll of years, others that had never left their mother's knee, now being carried along the Ypres Road. Some walking, some with dogs, some with a goat, some carrying a bed, others conveying their families
along the cobble road in wheel-barrows, all with the one thought
"Out of the hands of the Hun."
Around the hour of eleven with all these unspeakable scenes before the eyes of the very small armies, came the awful word ringing through the night like the tolling of the bell in the village church for your most beloved dead.
"The Germans have broken."
Through, every man stand to."
One can realize what these dreadful hours meant to these boys who now you see no more, but still the thought comes back even through the bitterness of the busy, bustling, avaricious world.

Montreal—Extreme dullness general again marked the export trade in Canadian grain on the Montreal stock, most often in most frightful market today. The trade in cash conditions, against heaviest odds, grain was also reported slow as during the years of war. Every yard of it is sacrificed for surplus and export buyers for the undertone was firm with no change in prices to note. Prices for spring and winter grades of flour were well maintained under a moderate demand. A fair volume of business was transacted in mill-feed and prices were unchanged. The trade in standard grades of rolled oats was rather quiet and the feeling was steady. The feature of the potato trade was the weaker feeling that developed and prices were reduced forty-five cents per bag. The egg market was quiet and firm. An easier feeling prevailed in butter and prices declined one cent per pound. The cheese market was without any change feature to note.

90 million volumes of "The Book" the best seller were produced last year in 800 different languages. "Pilgrims Progress" and "Imitation of Christ" are translated into over 100 languages yet these are but commentaries on the Bible. A Chinaman said "when I pray I talk to God, when I read the Bible God talks to me." There's a reason for the great popularity of the book. The Gileads are doing a great work by placing Bibles in the Hotels and Boarding Houses.

There is however a great neglect of the Bible. We insult God by our neglect. We crowd it out by work and pleasure. Every one of us should have a copy and read a chapter a day. We should keep it on the table of the living room, and carry a copy in our pockets, better still in our memories, but best of all in our hearts. The psalmist says "Thy word have hid in my heart, that I might not sin against thee. A good thing in a good place for a good purpose. If ever there was a time when we needed the word of God in our lives it is today. It is fundamental to our welfare.

Concluding his address Capt. Best asked for a "Scripture Verse Shower." He called for "favorite verses" from all over the room, choir, gallery, etc. A ready response brought forth gems of scripture from all quarters, selected portions from the psalms, gospels, letters of Paul, etc. Following the "Scripture Shower" Capt. Best called for brief prayers. Several responded. The service concluded with the singing of the old hymn "Just As I Am."

Capt. Best announced that he would speak on the subject "Power" tonight. Service is called for 7.30 promptly.

The End of the Trail

I must travel the miles till the journey is done,
Whatever the turn of the way,
shall bring up at last at the end of the sun,
And shall rest at the close of the day.

Let me deal as I journey with foe and friend
In a way that no man can assail,
And find nothing but peace at the end of the road,
When I come to the end of the trail.

We are brothers who travel a great common road,
And the journey is easy for none
We must accor the weary and lift on the load
Of the pilgrim whose courage is done.

Let me deal with them each on my way to the West,
With a mercy that never shall fail,
And lie down to my dreams with a conscience at rest
When I come to end of the trail.

The following article is taken from the Ypres magazine:

The Ypres Salient was the only ground on which the quality of British manhood was put to the Montreal test, most often in most frightful market today. A low cost, personally conducted expense tour to the Pacific Coast, via the Canadian National Railways and under the direction of Mr. C. A. Adams, B. A., Principal of Granby High School, Granby, Que., has been arranged for a special train to leave Montreal July 8th next, returning on July 31st.

These tours have proven very popular and enable Teachers and others desiring to avail themselves of their advantages in low cost combined with first class service to see the great new North woods of Ontario; Winnipeg and the fertile farm lands of the prairies; Jasper National Park—Canada's largest park ground; the far famed Alpine resorts of the Canadian Rockies; the famous Triangle Tour British Columbia; the Indian Village at Kitwanga, with its weirdly decorated totem poles and an old Indian Graveyard; enjoy the 550 mile voyage on a palatial Canadian National steamship to Vancouver through the sheltered scenic seas from Prince Rupert to Vancouver (part of the famous "Triangle Tour"); view Victoria and Buehart's Sunken Gardens; the roaring gorges of the Fraser and Thompson Rivers; Mount Robson, the highest peak in the Rockies. Spend two and a half days on a palatial Northern Navigation Company's steamer travelling through the Great Lakes and gaze upon the majestic awe-inspiring cataract of Niagara Falls. The illumination of the falls in the evening by powerful electric searchlights, and numerous other scenic wonders, which will all make your holiday trip a source of education and delight.

The largest buffalo herd in the world at Wainwright, Alberta; different resorts and stop-overs; points; also on the steamers and if you will, then ride, hike, climb, golf, swim, dance, promenade or play tennis.

This tour is highly commended by the officials of Bishop's College Lennoxville, Que., and McGill University, Montreal, Que.

The rate from Montreal, including railway and steamship fares, lower berth in sleeping car, hotel accommodation, meals, sight-seeing tours, etc., are $350.00 for up-berth, $327.00. For two persons, also on the steamers and if you will, then ride, hike, climb, golf, swim, dance, promenade or play tennis.

The rates for compartment or drawing room accommodations, of course slightly higher.
