CRAZED WITH HEAT.

WINDSOR, ONT., July 9—Crazed with intense heat and suffering from neuralgia, William Mickle, a prosperous farmer near Amherstburg, committed suicide by hanging yesterday. When his mother missed him from the house after an absence of several hours, she set out in search of him and was horrified to discover the lifeless body dangling from the end of a strap attached to the rafters in a tool shed, some distance from the farm.

Mr. Lawdon, theological student, Sackville, who has supplied so acceptably for the Rev. H. Miller during the past six weeks, has left Cornwall for Montague. Mr. Lawdon will apply for Mr. Miller on that circuit during the next two months. Mr. Miller expects to return in September.

At the police court in Charlottetown this morning the undersigned case of James McDonald was adjourned until July 15th, and Angus DeRoche was fined $10 or 30 days for removing a building on Elm Avenue without a permit.

Through an oversight yesterday's Guardian in referring to the departure of Ernest Davey, James O'Brien and Seymour Gregory for Dorchester Penitentiary, stated that it was "for breaking into E. A. Foster's Drugstore." This was an error, the charge being but for "attempting to enter." The Guardian gladly accords to the young men the benefit of a correct statement of their case, and greatly regrets the error referred to.

The marriage took place last evening at the residence of Samuel and Mrs. Leard, Piquit, of their daughter, Miss Ada Leard, to Roderick McLure, of Moore & McLeod's, Charlottetown, Rev. E. S. Weeks, Mt. Stewart, performing the ceremony in the presence of a number of invited guests. Following the ceremony a reception will be held and the bride and groom will return to Charlottetown today to take up their residence.

The marriage took place at Rustico yesterday at 7.30 a. m. at the Parochial Residence by Rev. I. S. Chalmers, of Joseph Gallant to Miss Mary Blanchard, both of Rustico. The happy couple drove to Charlottetown in the afternoon and returned to Rustico this morning, and will take up their residence in their new home. While in Charlottetown they were the guests of Joseph Blanchard, brother of the bride, who entertained a very large number of the friends of the happy couple with a dance, a thoroughly enjoyable time being spent. At the marriage the bride was attended by Miss Priscilla Peters and the groom was supported by his brother Tanous Blanchard.

C. L. Grant, Charlottetown, who is spending the summer in Georgetown, was in the city on a business trip yesterday and returned in the afternoon. Mr. Grant is launching a very speedy launch at Georgetown and in view of the contemplated monster regatta in that harbor in the course of a couple of weeks, may be heard from later. Negotiations for the regatta are under way and it is intended to include entries from any point along the coast between and including the ports of Souris and Charlottetown. Motor boat, sailing craft, rowing shells and swimmers may be included in the aquatic program of the day and beautiful Georgetown harbor, so suitable for this sport, will no doubt present a spectacle delightful to all lovers of the salt water.
