will be held this Saturday afternoon from the residence of Malc. Cummings service starting at 3.30 p. m. instead of 2 o'clock as previously advertised.

SECOND YEAR P. W. C. STUDENTS ENROLL—Eighty-five students enrolled at Prince of Wales College yesterday for second year work at the institution. This number is about the same as the total for last year and will probably be slightly increased during the next few days.

RECEIVES INJURIES—Jumping off the runniboard of a moving car into the path of another automobile a man narrowly escaped serious injury at noon yesterday on Spring Park Road. The man received injuries to one leg and was taken to the City Hospital. After receiving medical attention he was able to leave.

ALBERTA CABINET MINISTER HERE.—The Hon. V. W. Smith, Minister of Railways and Telephones, Alberta, is paying a visit here renewing old friendships. He was born at Pownal, and is a cousin of Mr. Vernon Gay. He is member for Camrose in the Greenfield Farmers Government, being first elected and admitted to the Government in 1921, and re-elected in 1926. Mr. Smith states that the wheat crop for the current year is very good, much better in Alberta than in Saskatchewan.

SEEING THE WORLD AS SAILORS—Mr. Harry Hertz and Mr. Adrien Baucher, Montreal, who have been on the round trip of the S. E. Canadian Squatter to the West Indies, paid a pleasant visit to The Guardian yesterday. Both are out seeing the world, and gaining their information as members of the crew of the Squatter. Mr. Hertz, when not at sea, is an active journalist, having served on the leading newspapers in Montreal and Toronto. They thoroughly enjoyed the West Indian experience, and are delighted with what they have seen of Charlottetown and vicinity.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH—Holy Communion will be celebrated at the morning service. Rev. Dr. Ramsay who is welcomed back after a very pleasant months holiday will preach the Communion sermon. The music will comprise an Anthem and a solo. The service will be broadcast by C. H. C. K. The Sunday School will in future meet in the afternoon at 2.30 p. m. It is hoped there will be a good attendance of scholars and students. In the evening Rev. Mr. Brown will speak on the subject of "School and Education." A timely topic and of special interest to students and parents. In addition to the regular choir programme Mr. Kendall, the new organist will give a short recital which will be a part of the regular service. Everybody welcome.

PERSONALS

Don Blackadar, of the Royal Bank staff, Charlottetown, and his friends, Messrs. Morse and Reid, were visitors in town over the week end. They paid a flying visit to Stewards and Wolville and left to return Monday morning—New Glasgow News.

Mrs. Dr. T. F. Goulding, Boston, and her two children, William and Frances, are visiting Mrs. Goulding's sister, Mrs. J. W. Boulter, Brighton. Mrs. Goulding motored from Boston about two weeks ago, and is returning on Monday.

Dr. D. D. Scannell, of Boston, who has been in Georgetown for the past two weeks, left yesterday morning in response to an urgent professional call. Mrs. Scannell and her two sons, David and Gordon, will remain on the Island for several days longer.

Among the many visitors that have recently come to our province for a holiday are Mr. Daniel F. Mackay and his daughter, Miss Marie, of East Boston, Mass., who, while in the city have been the welcome guests of Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Aiken and daughter Linnie of Grafton Street. At present they are visiting relatives in Midgeil.

Judge (to Pat, who is wanting a divorce from his wife)—On what grounds do you want a divorce. Pat—Well, yer Honor, Biddy, she's worse than the devil. Judge—And how do you make that out. Pat—Well, you know, yer Honor, that in the Bible it says that if ye resist the devil he'll flee from you, but if ye resist Biddy she'll flee at ye.

HIS FIRST BITE A keen angler took a friend for a day's sport. The friend knew nothing of fishing, but decided to try his luck. After a long silence by the banks of a stream the novice said, "I say, how much do those little red things cost?" "You mean the flies? Oh, they're cheap. Why? "I owe you for one. Mine's just sunk."

Have Minard's Liniment on your shelf.

"Have you seen May?" "May who?" "Mayonaise."

"No, she was dressing, and wouldn't letuce."

Beaten Jockey (to angry trainer): "What's up? I wasn't the last one. There were two horses behind me." Trainer: "Yes, they were the first two of the next race."
