NO MERCY TO BE GIVEN MURDERER

(Canadian Press)

WINNIPEG, May 27.—That no leniency should be shown to John Krafchenko, awaiting execution here on July 9th, for the murder of H. Krafchenko to death.

M. Arnold at Plum Coulee, on December 3rd, was the recommendation sent to the Department of Justice at Ottawa by Judge Mathers, who presided over the trial and sentenced on July 9th, for the murder of H. Krafchenko to death.

LAKE SUPERIOR'S RAPID RISE

(Canadian Press)

PORT ARTHUR, May 27.—The level of Lake Superior fell eighteen inches in less than an hour today. Harbor Engineer Harcourt says that though a most unusual occurrence, the level may become normal at any time again, giving the storm consequent upon the variation of air pressure as the reason for the change of level.

TROUBLESOME SUFFRAGETTES

(Canadian Press)

LONDON, May 27.—The Suffragettes arrested by the Police during a raid on the West End Flat on May 24th were brought before the Magistrate yesterday. After seeing exhibits in the case he took such a serious view of it that he refused to admit any prisoners to bail. All were charged with conspiracy.

Five women who refused to give their names today were identified as Mrs. H. F. Hunt, Miss Muriel Hall, Grace Roe, Julia Jameson and Ellen Arins.

Exhibits found in flat consisted of new style of cyanide fuses, maps and instructions as to how to reach them, as well as data on the habits of the Police in the vicinity.

Memorandums were found of payments of money to the Suffragettes and of expenses for travelling accounts, including fare of Miss Elizabeth Lankhurst from Paris to England.

Emmeline Hall and Grace Roe because so uproarious in Court Room they had to be removed and during the progress shrieked at the top of their voices. Emmeline Hall shouted 'I have been forcibly fed twice and am nearly dead as result.' She seemed half demented. Her hat was torn off her hair dishevelled and clothes disarranged in a struggle with the police.

Eight Militant Suffragettes were also arrested in connection with the raid on Buckingham Palace on May 21st, and released from Holloway Jail today. They gained release by hunger striking.

CIVIL WAR LOOMS AHEAD

(Canadian Press)

LONDON, May 27.—The passage of the Home Rule Bill has not yet led to one broken head in Ireland. Predictions made so freely by certain Unionists that the final adoption by the House of Commons be followed by fierce outbreaks in Ulster and Sanguinary. Conflicts between the Orangemen and the Nationalists proved untrue up to present. Belfast as quiet as well and the Military are said to be keeping careful watch on the trains held at the stations to stem a riot which nearly everybody thought sure to occur. So far the only conflicts have been verbal ones. Meanwhile the Unionists declare it is only the calm before the storm and that, failing defeat of Government at General Election, Civil War looms ahead not as an eventuality of contingency but as certainty.
