Week Of Prayer Service At Kensington

Wednesday's Week of Prayer service at Kensington was held in the Presbyterian Church, when Rev. J. A. McGowan conducted the service, and also read the Old Testament lesson and led in prayer. The New Testament lesson and prayer was taken by Rev. S. J. Davis.

Continuing on Thursday, the service was conducted by Rev. L. M. Murray in the United Church of Canada. The opening devotionals were led by Mr. Murray and Rev. Mr. McGowan. Rev. S. J. Davis addressed the congregation, taking for his subject the challenging question, "What has the Church to say in the Face of the World?"

On Friday, the final evening of the Week of Prayer at Kensington, there was a large congregation at St. Mark's Anglican Church, where the service was conducted by Rev. S. J. Davis. Also assisting were Rev. L. M. Murray and Rev. G. S. Stevens. The address was given by J. A. McGowan, who took his text from Romans 8, verse 19. For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

The annual meeting of the Brae United Church congregation was held on Tuesday afternoon, January 3rd, at the close of the Week of Prayer service. The minister, Rev. W. G. Dickson presided. The secretary-treasurer, Mr. Fred W. MacLeod, read the minutes and presented a splendid report showing that total receipts amounted to $445. The congregation extended to Mr. MacLeod for his loyal service and devotion a sum of money as a small token of their appreciation.

OPPOSES END OF RATIONING CANBERRA, Australia, Jan. 10. (Reuters) - Clear-cut opposition from the British Government to ending of gasoline rationing in Australia is believed to be the reason for a decision by a Federal Cabinet sub-committee to delay action. The opposition of the British Government comes from fear that the additional supplies necessary to maintain an unrationed market would increase dollar expenditure.
