MONDAY

FUNERAL YESTERDAY.—The funeral of Daniel Mullen was held yesterday from his late residence Ten Mile House and was largely attended. The pall bearers were: Fred Webster, Chas. Ellis, Thomas Smith, Peter Heron and Fred Court. Services at the church and grave were conducted by Rev. J. B. McIntyre assisted by Rev. D. P. Croken of Fort Augustus.

ENJOYING HOLIDAY.—Among those who left for the West on the excursion was Mr. Walter E. Curtis, M. A., of Milton. Mr. Curtis who got his B. A. degree at McGill University, his M. A. degree at King's has been successful as a teacher inspector and of late years as a farmer. He is now getting a well earned rest, visiting friends and relatives in the Western Provinces. His many friends hope to see him return to the island this Fall, with his good health restored.

FAREWELL GATHERING.—A number of friends gathered at the home of Mrs. J. Warren Grant, Dorchester, N. B., on Monday evening, and tendered her son, Harold a farewell party. Mr. Grant left on Tuesday for St. Dunstan's College, Charlottetown. P. E. I. was presided with a fountain pen, and although taken by surprise, he fittingly thanked the donors for their excellent gift. The evening was enjoyed in music and games, after which a delectable luncheon was served by the girls. Music was furnished by Miss Yvonne Allain, Emery Allain, Mrs. T. Thompson, Dr. William Roy Wood, formerly of Summerside, P. E. I., and Mr. J. P. McInyre, Rosary and Litany for the dead were recited. St. Dunstan's Cathedral male choir sang the appropriate hymns.

WOOD—THOMPSON.—The marriage took place recently in St. Agnes Church, Montreal, the Rev. Father Singleton officiating, of Agnes Germaine, daughter of Mrs. T. Thompson, Dr. William Roy Wood, formerly of Summerside, P. E. I., and the church being prettily decorated for the occasion. The bride, who was given away by her brother Mr. John F. Thompson, wore a gown of white, Elizabethan crepe with picture hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of pink Ophelia roses and lilies-of-the-valley. The bridegroom was attended by Mr. F. J. Gallagher. During the ceremony, "Ave Marie," "Hear us O Father," and "Salutaris" were rendered by Mrs. J. J. McKenna. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, Dr. and Mrs. Wood left later on an extended honeymoon. Going away the bride wore a gown of grey flat crepe with small velvet hat of grey. On their return they will reside at the Claridge apartments, St. Mark Street, (Montreal Star).

TUESDAY

FUNERAL ON SATURDAY.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Madeline Gallant, 71, whose death on Thursday last followed a paralytic stroke on Monday was held at her late residence in Summerside on Saturday, interment being made in the Mount Carmel Cemetery.

ON WEDDING TRIP.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mullaly of Souris, who were married on September 14th, are visiting Mr. Mullaly's home and many friends at his former home in Kensington. Mr. Mullaly is an employee of the Hughes Co's Mercantile business at Souris. His wife, nee Miss McDonald, is one of Souris' most popular young ladies. Their many friends wish them bon voyage through life.

TO STUDY AT BOSTON.—Mr. G. R. Holmes, Barrister at Law, City, left Saturday morning for Boston where he will take a post graduate course in law. His father, Mr. J. A. Holmes accompanied him as far as Sackville, Mr. Holmes has been spending a holiday with his sister, Mrs. C. C. Lewis, Freetown, and he recently returned from a ten day motor trip through Nova Scotia.

WEDNESDAY

GAZETTED.—Among the names appearing in the Civil Service eligible list are the following: Plant Disease Investigator (Seasonal) Province of Prince Edward Island, Department of Agriculture, Gordon John Inman Ross, Carleton Place, P. E. I.; Percy O. Tredenhick, West Devon, P. E. I.; Merton Leigh Jardine, Mount Stewart, P. E. I.; Chas. Stewart Mellish, Union Road, P. E. I.; Edward C. Gaudette, Pleasant View, P. E. I.

MCKENZIE AND CROSSMAN.—A very pretty wedding took place on the beautiful afternoon of Sept. 14th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter McKenzie of Bangor, when their son, Charles, was united in marriage to Minnie M. Crossman, of Bangor, by the Rev. J. M. McLeod of St. John's United Church, Marie. The bride was attired in blue silk with shoes and stockings to match and was attended by Miss May Myers of Charlottetown, cousin of the groom, who wore a dress of old rose silk with light shoes and stockings. The groom was supported by his brother, John. After the wedding a sumptuous supper was prepared by Mrs. McKenzie, mother of the groom. The evening was pleasantly spent in music, step dancing and songs. Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie enjoy the best wishes of their friends for a long and happy wedded life in which The Guardian joins.

FINED FIFTY EACH.—About 10 o'clock Friday night the Preventive Officers captured a car, two ten gallon kegs of rum and a young man in the Agricultural Hall. Four others who were in the party escaped but they, along with the one apprehended were fined each $50 and costs Saturday afternoon when they were up before Magistrate Martin.

CEMETERY SUNDAY.—A very large crowd attended the devotional services at the Roman Catholic Cemetery yesterday on the occasion of the Annual Cemetery Service. After a brief ceremony at the Cathedral, a large parade headed by the League of the Cross band and followed by His Lordship Bishop O'Leary and the clergy in cars, proceeded to the Cemetery where His Lordship preached an inspiring sermon before a multitude of people. Among the clergy present besides His Lordship, were Fathers McCarthy, P. Walsh, M. McDonald, B. Croken, R. St. John, J. P. McInyre, B. Gillis and P. McMahon. Rosary and Litany for the dead were recited. St. Dunstan's Cathedral male choir sang the appropriate hymns.

PRIZE WINNER.—At the recent dog show at Halifax a thoroughbred Wire Hair Fox Terrier, bred by Mr. Benjamin Rogers succeeded in winning two second prizes and one third. This valuable animal is registered at the department of Agriculture, Ottawa. The dog was in charge of Mr. Tom Rogers, who had several dogs at the exhibit.

WINNINGS FROM WOOD-STOCK.—A. McRae & Son have received the following awards:—Eight firsts, 6 seconds, 2 thirds, senior and grand champion owned by Mr. Benjamin Rogers. In addition to the winnings reported from St. John for this herd, was a silver cup offered for best bull and three of his get open to all breeds.

CASE DISMISSED.—The case in connection with the recent unfortunate automobile collision, in which a child was killed under very sad circumstances, came up on Tuesday and yesterday at the City Court, before Squire Magistrate Martin. The Crown was represented by Mr. Claire Campbell, Mr. Gilbert Gaudet, K. C., representing the defendant. After receiving all the evidence on both sides, the jury returned a verdict, and the case dismissed as purely accidental. It was found that some evidence submitted at this trial, and had also been given at the coroner's inquest, would not stand verification when put to the test, and could not be accepted as evidence. Mr. Arsenault is an upright, industrious citizen, married, with a family, and no one regrets the accident more than Mr. Arsenault. One point of great importance which came out during the trial that the prevalent idea that car drivers should guard their right is not correct, and that the law still specifies that drivers must guard their left. It must be very gratifying to Mr. Arsenault and his many friends in town and country that he has been honorably acquitted from this serious charge. This is only another warning to all car drivers to use the utmost care in their driving, as it does not take very much sometimes to cause a serious accident, from which any driver may find it difficult to exonerate himself.

STEEL-SMITH NUPTIALS.—An event of much interest took place at St. Bonaventure Church, August 17, 1927, when Miss Catherine Steele was united in holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Laurence B. Smith, of the same place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. McIntyre. The bride was daintily attired in blue silk flat crepe and wore a picture hat to match, and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers. Her evening attire was of pink georgette, with gold and lace trimmings. She was attended by her sister, Mary, who was also daintily attired in coral georgette, with gold trimmings and black picture hat, and carried a bouquet of flowers. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Don Smith. The groom's gift to the bride was a set of California pearls, to the bridesmaid a bracelet and to the groomsmen a set of gold cuff links. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride, where a delectable breakfast was served them, after which they motored to Charlottetown for dinner. In the afternoon they motored to several parts, including the Beach Grove Inn, etc. They then returned to the groom's home, where about two hundred friends awaited them, including Rev. J. B. McIntyre, and a sumptuous supper was served to all. The night was pleasantly spent in music and dancing. The wedding gifts, consisting of many of the finest pieces of cut glass, china, linen, etc., testifying to the popularity of the young couple. Previous to her marriage, the bride was tendered an enjoyable shower by many of her friends in Brookline, Mass.

GILLIS-FITZSIMMONS.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Mary's Church, Indian River, on Wednesday, Sept. 7th, when Miss Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Fitzsimmons, Indian River, became the bride of Daniel Gillis, Kensington. The bride was attired in a tailored suit of sand valentia, with hat to match. She carried a bouquet of sweet peas and maiden hair fern. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Helen Greenan who wore rose flat crepe and hat to match, while the groom was ably supported by his brother, Fred Gillis. After the ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Gillis. The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Miss Kathleen Driscoll, who also sang appropriate hymns for the occasion. The wedding party motored to Charlottetown, with Mr. Peter McMahon as chauffeur, returning about six o'clock to the home of the bride. The house was artistically decorated for the occasion, and about fifty invited guests sat down to supper, prepared in Mrs. Fitzsimmons' best style. The evening was pleasantly spent in music and dancing. The groom's gift to the bride was a string of pearls, and to the bridesmaid a gold hat pin, and to the groomsmen, gold cuff links. All departed for their home, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Gillis many years of happiness.
