

To Keep Before Your Mind
The "W. W. W." Wedding Rings

Every ring bears the stamp "W. W. W." representing a 45 years test in wearing qualities. Look inside Grandmother's ring and see if it is not a "W. W. W."

They are made in all widths and in 10k, 14k, and 18k. Of all rings the Wedding Ring should be the best.

W. W. WELLNER, Jeweler.

Commodore Ledyard

Standard Rule 1-34709—

Commodore is of the Bingen family that is in the very front rank of the world's trotting stock. He is by Admiral Dewey 2.94, the fastest stallion of the Bingen get, a half brother of the great Uliam 1.58 and out of that grand race mare Nancy Hanks 2.04. Three years in the stud Admiral Dewey has 31 in the list including High Admiral 2.07, Capt. George 2.09, Scelnta (3) 2.11, Harry J. S. 2.13, of the Admiral the Christmas No. of the Horse Breeder, 1910, says: "If a man were to walk up and down the whole length and breadth of America, shouting through a mighty megaphone, that Admiral Dewey 2.04 that winged son of Bingen 2.04 out of Nancy Hanks 2.04 was one of the fastest of the very fast trotters which the world has seen, he need fear no argument. When at Lexington, Ky., a few years ago, denied the privilege of preparation, relying upon speed unsurpassed and a will indomitable, he trotted to his record 2.04 (middle half in one minute and half second) he proved his right to a niche in the Equine Hall of Fame." Not necessary to spread much ink in the Commodore's behalf. He is a trotter, has proved his potency and has passed the experimental test, his colts are all large, sound, stylish and very fast. He has 6 in the list—two below 2.20, home training and half mile track.

The coming season he will leave John O'Brien's, Sonshaw, May 5th and go through Tryon, Kensington, Margate, Clifton, Stanley B'dge, So. Rustico, Oyster Bed Bridge, to Charlottetown via Milton. Will be at Frank Hughes' stable, Grafton St., Friday, May 9th, over night. Saturday, May 10th, will go to Vernon and remain till Monday, noon, thence to Charlottetown, remaining over night. Wednesday will go to Bonshaw, remaining till Monday, 19th. He will continue this route for nightly, health and weather permitting.

THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

THE NORTHUMBERLAND.—The Northumberland docked in Charlottetown last night at 8.30.

OFFICE HOURS.—The Guardian News Department closes tonight at 12 and will re-open Sunday night at 12. In the interim 124 J can be phoned.

BUYING HORSES.—Mr. John Ogilvie Truro, has recently sold two of his horses and is about to purchase another team from P. E. Island.

A NEW HOME.—The Dominion Express Company are now located in their new quarters on Queen Street in the store formerly occupied by G. E. Ritchie, Phone No. 421.

Bay Fortune Etc.—Rev. M. W. McLeod of Dundas will preach at Bay Fortune at 11 a. m. and at Souris at 7 p. m. next Sabbath the 11th, inst.

THIS ISSUE.—The Guardian always has something of interest in every column, and to-day's issue of sixteen pages is no exception to the rule, page three containing The School and The Home, The Farm, The Dairy and The Good Roads.

ST. JAMES CHURCH.—Rev. Dr. Fullerton will preach at both services in St. James Church Sunday. Morning subject "Estimating life at its true value," Evening subject "Forgetting the old home."

BAPTIST CHURCH.—On Sunday morning at the Baptist Church the subject of the sermon will be the Church A Family. In the evening the subject will be The Valley of Decision. Rev. Z. L. Fash will preach at both services.

ON SLIP AGAIN.—The schooner Fanny Higgins of P. E. I., which was on the slip at North Sydney and had to be sent into the harbor to avoid the fire, is back on the slip again undergoing repairs, says a Sydney Exchange.

BETTER ROAD.—The Roadmasters in West River are getting busy on the roads. All washouts and dilapidated culverts have been promptly repaired, many of the latter, consisting of wood, to be soon replaced by concrete. More work is now being done with drags, which are considered by everyone to be a very efficient means of making good roads. They are especially good in filling up ruts and depressions. One of the best is to be seen with Mr. Artemas Betts, roadmaster of Nine Mile Creek.

SOUVENIR NUMBER.—The Guardian has received a very handsomely printed souvenir booklet of The Burning of St. Dunstan's Cathedral. The descriptive portions are graphically and clearly written giving a concise idea of the burning, the memorable scenes of which were witnessed by hundreds of citizens. The illustrations, all from excellent photographs, show the Cathedral in its completeness, interior and exterior, before the fire, and during the fire and the ruins after the fire. There is also a lovely photo of the late Rt. Rev. J. C. McDonald, D. D., making one of the most complete souvenirs yet published. The book goes on sale this morning at the different bookstores and the entire proceeds are in aid of the Cathedral Building Fund. Mr. A. J. MacAdam, the author, may well feel proud of the outcome of his artistic and literary efforts.

RESUME DUTIES.—Mr. James McEachern of Charlottetown and the Messrs. Clark of Summers, have returned to New Glasgow and have resumed operations on the new First Presbyterian Church, McLellan Street. They have a number of men employed.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. Allport Newsome, an employee of the P. E. I. R. Machine shop while at work at the Hydraulic press Thursday was struck on the chin by a flying block from a sixty pounds pressure which inflicted a bad gash, necessitating several stitches. He will as a consequence be off duty for a few days.

LOST HIS HORSE.—Rev. Mr. Lawson who is well known in Charlottetown, says the Moncton Times, has sustained another loss besides that inflicted by the heavy fire of Tuesday morning, a few days ago his new arctic steppes on a nail, retains nevertheless, and despite expert veterinary skill, it was decided that the animal would have to be castrated.

WEST RIVER NEWS.—A largely attended meeting of the Long Creek Farmer's Institute, was held in Aiton Hall on Saturday evening, April 26th. It is cause for congratulation that the farmers of this section are so greatly interested in the procuring of pure bred stock as attested by the large membership of this institute, over forty in number. A spirited discussion took place, after which it was decided to purchase a second pure bred Shorthorn bull. Owing to the fact that dairying is declining, people are now engaging more in the raising of beef cattle, and the beef must be procured by all means. Mr. Arch. J. McDonald is the President and Mr. Hugh McPhee is the Secretary.

SLIP AGAIN.—The schooner Fanny Higgins of P. E. I., which was on the slip at North Sydney and had to be sent into the harbor to avoid the fire, is back on the slip again undergoing repairs, says a Sydney Exchange.
