BOYS' CAMP — An excellent camp spirit with lots of assistance fellowship was the top note of the only M.R.E.C. boys' camp on the Island this year. From August 14 to 21 twenty boys from various parts of Prince county ate, slept, studied and played together on the grounds of John Macintosh overlooking the blue waters of the Gulf of St.
Lawrence from Kidare Cape. The camp director was Rev. W. A. Paterson of Elmville United Church, who was assisted by Howard Christie, Henry Clark and Earl Leard.
The day began at seven o'clock with a rousing session of P. T. followed by morning chapel, breakfast and morning chapel. Study classes got underway followed by volleyball and another swim. After rest hour in the afternoon badge work was carried on then another swim and after supper the softball game was played. As the sun was setting the vesper service was conducted. The big feature of the evening was the camping with its smog, stunts, and good night talk which ended the strenuous but enjoyable day.
Five badges were won for swimming and two for jumping. In the opinion of the boys this is the Camp Hall of Fame—Most popular boys: Douglas Paterson. Most popular game—Volleyball. Most popular cater—Bread and butter. Most generous boy—Allison Hardy, Oscar Hardy (cater). Biggest cater—Bill Leavitt. Best camper—Traver Lege.
His. Best natured boy—Gordon Leard. Best looking boy—Walter Dyball. Best table manners—Alison Hardy. Best swimmer—Gordon Leard. Best athlete—Ivan McInnis. Pateest boy—Bill Leavitt. Camp humorist—Douglas Paterson.
