ISLANDER'S FUNERAL—The funeral of the late M. H. Sprague, who met his death through an automobile accident, was held from his residence Sunday afternoon at Springhill. The funeral service was conducted by the Masonic Order and Knights of Pythias. A large number of floral offerings were evident. Interment was made at Springhill cemetery.

BRIDAL SHOWER—On Wednesday evening, Oct. 29th a "miscellaneous shower" was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace McKay Stanley Bridge, in honor of Miss Annie Nicholson whose marriage takes place at an early date. Upwards of seventy guests were assembled, and a very enjoyable evening was spent with music, games, etc. Numerous and useful gifts were received, accompanied by the good wishes of many friends for a prosperous journey through life.

SERVICES AT APPIN ROAD—On Monday evening the church at Appin Road had a special campaign. The building was well heated, making it comfortable for the listeners. The singing was heartily joined in, deep interest was displayed and a devotion spirit dominated the entire service. A testimony meeting was held for a few minutes in which a number took part. Messrs Metcalfe and Wright of Victoria assisted in the service. Some other parts of the circuit were represented. It is expected that the church will be packed during the week. The services begin at 7.30 sharp. The nights are moonlight and a rare privilege is afforded all.

CAVENDISH—Last Thursday, October 30th, a very pleasant evening was spent in the Baptist Church under the auspices of the local Social Service Council. The President, Mr. C. Webb presided and addresses were given by Messrs. Geo. S. Inman and Consul Wm. Pierce of the Charlottetown Rotary Club. These were listened to with the greatest interest and appreciation. Messrs. Grant and A. McLeod also spoke a few words of greeting which were warmly appreciated. Mrs. Webb presided at the organ and such pieces as Onward Christian Soldiers and the Canadian American and British National Anthems helped to fill out a most enjoyable and profitable evening.

Every tractor seems to give entire satisfaction."—Since the above item appeared, Mr. Keefe, whose ability as a salesman is well known in his island province, has sold four more tractors for spring delivery, 1920, and says it is no trouble to sell tractors in New Brunswick.

PROMOTION FOR ISLANDER—Speaking of the promotion of C. N. Trites, police officer, and of his successor, the Moncton Times says: "Mr. Trites will be succeeded at the post by former city police officer Joseph E. Wedge, a native of Summerside, P. E. I., who served considerable time on the Moncton police force after his return from three and one half year's service overseas with a Winnipeg battalion. The new officer comes to the railway service with a good record as a city police officer, where under the efficient direction of Chief Rideout, he was well trained in the duties of police work."
