Many Records Go By Boards At Olympic Trials

Beat Williams' Time CALGARY, June 26—(By the Canadian Press)—Alberta athletes yesterday made an impressive bid to represent their province in the Olympic trials at Hamilton, smashing one Olympic record, equalling another as well as scoring the same time as Percy Williams did in the 100 metres at Amsterdam.

one world's record were tied. Williams, Canada's speed ace who captured the 100 and 200 metre dashes at the last Olympics, and who has been more or less out of active competition for the past year owing to a leg injury, demonstrated conclusively he will be one of the foremost contenders for sprint honours by equalling his former Olympic record of 10 6-10 seconds in the 100-metres.

Confidence showing in every movement of his piston-like and flashing leg drives, the Vancouver speedster rapidly moved ahead of his field. At the 75-metre mark Williams with yards to the good, eased up and coasted to the finish breaking into his powerful stride again just before reaching the tape.

Mary Frizzell, Vancouver, flashed down the 60-metre stretch to equal the world's record in 7 6-10 seconds. Miss Frizzell also equalled the Olympic record in the 100-metres, covering the distance in 12 1-5 seconds, just a fifth of a second under the Dominion and world's records set by Myrtle Cook McGowan of Montreal.

A Canadian record to go was the 400 metre girls' relay which was captured by the Lucky Horseshoe Club of Vancouver in 52 4-10 seconds, 6-10 seconds better than the former Dominion record made by the Toronto Parkdale Athletic Club.

Ruby Andrews, 15-year-old Kimberley miss, made a new Canadian record in the junior girls' high jump when she cleared the bar at four feet eight and three quarter inches, 3-4 of an inch better than the old mark, Gladys Robertson, Vancouver, added one foot five inches to the Dominion intermediate girls' baseball throw with a mark of 181 feet five inches, while Margaret Cowan accounted for the other Canadian record with a leap of 16 feet nine inches in the intermediate girls' running broad jump.

permanent chairman in place of Joett Shouse, an Al Smith man, and the abrogation of the rule making a two thirds vote necessary to nominate.

Sitting on a table in Roosevelt headquarters tonight James A. Farley, campaign manager, cockily announced, "we will nominate Roosevelt on the first ballot; we will carry through our entire programme; we have the votes."

A hundred newspapermen, sweating profusely in the close air barely disturbed by tiny electric fans, copied down his words and saw no reason to doubt them. Outside a band blared, "The old gray mare, she ain't what she used to be," and it looked as though the Rooseveltians had, through skillful vote gathering on the part of the Roosevelt lieutenants, tamed the old convention horse.

Beginning with the release of the Illinois delegation, pledged to their favorite son, Senator James Hamilton Lewis, the last 48 hours have seen a continual accretion of power to the Rooseveltian standard.

Opposition headquarters now give him better than 600 votes and unbiased observers 700. By all calculations he should have no difficulty in collecting another 700 to get two-thirds.

The question now agitating the seers and prophets who mill about the corridors of the convention hotel like lost sheep is who will be the Vice-Presidential candidate? Farley says Roosevelt has not communicated his ideas to him, but the Governor this afternoon did see fit to deny he decided in favor of Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, thought of by big corporations as a horrid radical, a man who once went with the Lafoletties.

Farley thinks there are several cords of Vice-Presidential timber. There is also some question about how wet the wet plank in the platform is going to be. It will probably be wetter than the straddle plank of the Republicans but will not recommend repeal of the 18th amendment.

Barring the aforementioned earthquakes and riots, the situation visionaries dwell upon a struggle between the Governor and the President in November. At the moment about half the nation

An entry fee of $3.00 will be charged, which will include the use of the course for practice during the two days preceding the tournament.

The events of social interest will include a dance at the Club House on Thursday evening, July 28, while the prizes will be awarded at a tea danced in the Club House, Friday afternoon, following the completion of play.

The schedule of play for Thursday will include a qualifying round of 18 holes for all players, together with special features as driving, putting and approaching competitions. On Friday, the gentlemen will be divided into three flights, the first to include the sixteen lowest scores of the qualifying round, who will play 36 holes at scratch for 1st, 2nd, 3rd and consolation prizes.

The second flight will include all players having handicaps from scratch to 18 inclusive, who may fall to qualify for the first flight, and the third flight will include all players having handicaps from 19 to 36 inclusive who may not qualify for the first flight. Both the first and third flights will play 18 holes with handicap for 1st, 2nd and consolation prizes.

On Friday the ladies will be divided into two flights, the first to include the 16 lowest scores of the qualifying round, to play 18 holes at scratch for 1st, 2nd, 3rd and consolation prizes. The second flight will include all players who fail to qualify for the first flight and their play will be 18 holes with handicap, for 1st, 2nd and consolation prizes. All prizes will be of a useful or permanent nature and the award to the winner of first flight play for both ladies and gentlemen, will be of special value. In addition to the prizes for the various flights, first and second prizes will be awarded for the qualifying round and also the winners of the special competitions, Thursday afternoon. Consolation prizes will be won by the player finishing last in each flight.

Play both Thursday and Friday will begin at 8:30 a.m. and follow schedule of Tournament Committee. Individual starting times of all entries will be posted in the Club House in advance. All events will be decided by medal play as the tournament limit of two days does not permit time for individual matches. The principal prizes in the first flights last year were won by Mr. Jack Harris of the Ken-We Country Club and Miss Kathryn Ladd of the Yarmouth Golf and Country Club.

STUART LOSES TO IRSLINGER

Henry Irslinger, speedy light-heavyweight wrestling champion, defeated Lloyd Stuart of St. John, N. B., in a best two out of three fall challenge contest at the Forum on Saturday night. This bout although not so gruelling as last Thursday night's affair, was nevertheless interesting and at times most spectacular.

Stuart started off well, and being the aggressor for the first twenty-five minutes of wrestling he soon had Irslinger on the run and after knocking him groggy he picked the champion for a giant swing and the first fall.

Irslinger came back strong after the rest period to nail Stuart's shoulders to the canvas in seven minutes. The stunt was executed with a vicious back fall that almost rendered Stuart unconscious. Stuart surely was in a bad way and the effects of this fall remained with him as he gamely came out for the third and deciding tussle. The end soon came. After rushing Stuart to the limit and at the same time employing a number of flying tackles, Irslinger soon had things his own way and in three minutes from the start, Stuart found himself on his opponent's shoulders being whirled around in an aeroplane spin and later to be crashed to the canvas.

The boxing bout between Mickey Cooker and Kid Nickerson was declared a draw.

LIGHT HORSE GO INTO CAMP TOMORROW

The P. E. I. Light Horse, under Lt.-Col. F. I. Andrew, M.M., A.D.C., go into camp at the Ordnance Grounds, Brighton, on Tuesday, the 28th. This unit is one of very few in Canada that will be holding their annual training this year, a special concession having been made in their case because of the fact that they held a voluntary camp last year without pay, and Headquarters have granted them a separate camp in recognition of that patriotic effort.

The strength authorized this year is 70, all ranks and 40 horses, but considerably more than that will be trained, as the rate of pay will be somewhat lower to permit additions to the strength. To avoid cost of transportation of horses, the Prince and Kings County squadrons are marching in a crowd of Orangemen paraded through the principal streets of the town singing party songs. At Lorne, a clash occurred as the pilgrims were about to board a steamer for Dublin. The windows of the buses which had brought them were smashed, and several were injured, but none seriously.

The Belfast and Coleraine disturbances were comparatively minor. In the Camp, stones were thrown at tramps conveying pilgrims to the great northern station where they were to embark for Dublin. The police made a baton charge and two policemen were injured. Omnibus windows were broken in Coleraine in a similar display.

"Well, Maria," said Jiggles after the Town Election, "for whom did you vote this morning?" "I crossed off the names of all the candidates," returned Mrs. Jiggles, "and wrote out my principles on the back of my ballot. This is no time to consider individuals and their little personal ambitions."

The unit will be inspected by Brigadier C. F. Constantine, D.S.O., at 2 p. m. on Wednesday, the 29th, in Victoria Park.

The following officers will attend: Headquarters Lt.-Col. F. I. Andrew, O.C.; Major L. T. Lowther, 2nd i. c.; Major J. E. Croken, Vet. Off.; Capt. F. M. Nash, Adj.; Capt. A. E. Power, Paymaster; Capt. R. Moorhead Legate, Chaplain; Lieut. F. W. Hyndman, Sig. Offr.

"A" Squadron Major R. H. Duvar, Capt. J. S. Morris, Lieut. W. E. Phillips, Lieut. J. E. Andrew, 2nd Lieut. J. O. C. Campbell.

"B" Squadron Major E. W. Johnstone, Capt. R. R. Ings, Lieut. D. S. Montgomery, 2nd Lieut. L. R. Crue.

"C" Squadron Capt. O. W. Campbell, Lieut. A. F. Campbell, Lieut. J. Mustard, Lieut. R. A. Gordon and J. M. McGowan have been granted leave of absence from annual training. The training period has been reduced to 8 days on account of financial stringency, but the unit will remain under canvas for eight days in all

ANNUAL PROV. RIFLE MATCHES JULY 18, 19

The Council of the P. E. I. R. Association met on Friday evening and decided to hold the annual matches of the association on Monday and Tuesday, July 18 and 19. The order of the matches will probably be changed this year. The MacKinnon will be shot on Monday followed by the Moore & McLeod at 300 and 500. The Corporation will also be shot on Monday and will be a seven shot match at 500 and 600 yards or a ten shot match at 600 yards.

On Tuesday the Frowse match at 200, 500 and 600 yards will be fired, the Judson tyro match being fired in connection with it. The final wind-up on Tuesday will be the Ladies Challenge Trophy match, 10 shots at 500 yards.

The range will be open for practice from now on. It is hoped that the earlier dates will suit all out-of-town riflemen, as they have been changed with this intention.

PILGRIMS

and their basket lunches taken. BELFAST, Northern Ireland, June 26—(A.P.)—Apparent anti-Catholic temper flared into riotous conditions in four cities of Northern Ireland today as Catholic pilgrims were departing for the Eucharist Congress at Dublin.

Clashes occurred at Belfast, Ballymena, Larne and Coleraine. Scores were injured, a few seriously, before the pilgrims started their excursions.

Tonight the Bishop of Down and Connor sent a telegram to Sir Dawson Bates, Northern Ireland's Minister for Home Affairs, demanding protection for the pilgrims on their return journey.

The worst outbreak occurred at Ballymena where a mob was on hand as hundreds of pilgrims gathered at the railway station to board their trains.

A fight developed and as it progressed it became evident that pilgrims were being worsted and the police succeeded only in confining the ill-tempered crowd to the opposition side of the roadway, where stones and bottles could still be hurled at the pilgrims.

Many girls among the pilgrims became hysterical. Others wept and still others knelt in prayer. As the train left the station, large stones bumped off the carriage roofs, broke windows and littered the corridors with broken glass.

Before the attack occurred a crowd of Orangemen paraded through the principal streets of the town singing party songs. At Larne, a clash occurred as the pilgrims were about to board a steamer for Dublin. The windows of the buses which had brought them were smashed, and several were injured, but none seriously.

SELLS FLOTO CIRCUS "World's Greatest Show" Coming to Charlottetown Saturday, July 9th

LAUGH CLOWN LAUGH In seasons past it has been a happy task to laugh at the grotesque and hilarious antics of forty Sells Floto Circus clowns, but this year, when the great show appears in Charlottetown on Saturday, July 9th at Connolly's Field, Upper Queen Street, we will be called upon to roar, chuckle, grin, smile and snort with joy at the capers of no less than fifty Sells Floto Joys.

The cream of the clown world, princes of cap and bell, kings of harlequinade, have been gathered to furnish the fun that intersperses the breathless feats and wonders that feature the lengthy Sells Floto exhibition. Among them are many whose names are famous in the circus world and popular with show lovers.

Each Merry Andrew devises his own individual laugh-raisers, and each tries to vie with the others in originality and humorous novelty. The result is a long program of side-splitting feats and funny surprises, not two alike, with the result that when a Sells Floto patron is about recovering from one fit of gasping laughter he has but time to regain his breath when he is assailed with a fresh and even funnier comedy onslaught. The children love the clowns no less than their more reserved elders. The Joys in rousing laughter disregard ages.

sub-committees are being held daily to have all details in readiness in ample time for the opening of the parley on July 21.

Announcement of the agenda will not come for some days, as certain matters require further attention. Tariff and imperial currency, though, will be two of the important subjects on the programme.

Aside from the Imperial Conference, political interest is focused on the two bye-elections which take place tomorrow. New Brunswick and Quebec Provinces will be the scenes of the ballot battle.
