A quiet wedding took place at the Methodist Parsonage, Mt Stewart, on Oct 12th, when James F. Stewart and Eliza E. McCallum were united in marriage by Rev Ernest Weeks, only a few intimate friends being present. The bride who looked exceedingly well in a tailored suit of brown with a very becoming white hat, was attended by her sister, Miss Lilly, who wore blue, while the groom was supported by Maxwell MacKinnon, Pownal, an intimate friend of the groom. After the ceremony the happy couple were followed by a number of teams, who drove to the bride's home in Dunstaffnage where a reception was held. Upwards of one hundred guests partook of the excellent menu served in Mrs McCallum's best style. The evening was pleasantly spent in music furnished on the organ by Miss McKinnon and also on the violin where dancing was indulged in until the wee small hours. The presents were numerous and costly which testify the popularity of both bride and groom. The Guardian extends its heartiest congratulations.

Lustreless Eyes

Ill-fitting glasses produce eyestrain. Eyestrain causes loss of energy, the very life of the eye.

Where this energy-loss continues, the eyes weaken their brightness deminishes their lustre departs, and they become bleary and dull.

Experienced men supply helpful, easy, lustre adding glasses. We have been in business a long time and are certainly experienced. Better come to us and get the right glasses.
