YORK PERSONALS.—Mr. M. Cedric West, Manager Bank of Commerce, St. John's, called Saturday on relatives at York and Union before proceeding to spend his holidays at his old home at Elton. He is a veteran of the war. Asked as to conditions on the Island, Mr. Colpitts said the farmers over there were having just about as hard a time as those on the mainland, due to the unfavorable weather conditions. A large amount of hay has yet to be harvested. Speaking of the exhibition, which was very largely attended, Mr. Colpitts remarked that the showing of cattle, horses, sheep and swine was excellent, but undoubtedly the main attraction was the racing.—Sackville Post.

ON THE ISLAND.—A. J. Colpitts, was among the Sackville people who attended the exhibition at Charlottetown, P. E. I., called Saturday on relatives at York and Union before proceeding to spend his holidays at his old home at Elton. He is a veteran of the war. Asked as to conditions on the Island, Mr. Colpitts said the farmers over there were having just about as hard a time as those on the mainland, due to the unfavorable weather conditions. A large amount of hay has yet to be harvested. Speaking of the exhibition, which was very largely attended, Mr. Colpitts remarked that the showing of cattle, horses, sheep and swine was excellent, but undoubtedly the main attraction was the racing.—Sackville Post.

HAD PLEASANT TRIP.—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Tracy of this town recently spent several days on Prince Edward Island. During their stay they visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rogers of Coleman. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers spent a winter in Sackville not so long ago and both have many friends here who will be glad to learn that they are enjoying good health and are still interested in Sackville. Mr. Tracy says Mr. Rogers has several farms, all of which are looking their very best just now. People who are unable to make a "go" of farming now-a-days should, Mr. Tracy thinks, pay a visit to the Rogers farms. They would get a surprise seeing the Sackville Post.

LOST WALLET.—Lieut. K. Birtwhistle, R.C.N.V.R., of Charlottetown, P.E.I., had his car badly damaged when it ran into the ditch on the main highway between Port Elgin and Shediac about three o'clock Sunday morning. Being a naval officer of the Canadian Navy escaped uninjured, but Lieut. Birtwhistle lost a wallet containing valuable documents which included a naval service identification card and a sum of money. The accident and the loss of his personal property were reported to the local detachment of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police by the naval officer and an attempt is being made to locate the missing articles. It is believed the articles dropped from his pocket when he was getting out of his wrecked car as a handkerchief which he carried in the pocket containing the wallet was found near the car several hours after the accident, and it is presumed that the wallet was picked up by someone who came along after the two officers left the scene to report the accident.—Sackville Post.
