The services in St. John's Church, Crapaud, on Sunday last were of a very interesting character, and were, in the evening especially, largely attended. At the morning service the special feature was a duet entitled, "The Lord is My Shepherd," which was faultlessly rendered by Misses Palmer and Cox of Charlottetown. In the evening the preacher was Rev. A. W. M. Hatley, Prof. of English Literature in King's College, Windsor, N. S. He made an eloquent appeal to the church people in the congregation for their support of the forward movement in behalf of that institution. During the service solos were very effectively rendered by Dr. N. R. Boyer, Misses Palmer and Cox, a duet by the same young ladies, and at the close a quartette of great beauty entitled, "Now the Day is Over," was exquisitely sung by Misses Palmer and Cox, Dr. N. R. Boyer and A. Robbale.

According to present indications Rev. George Ross will not occupy the pulpit of the Centenary Church during the coming year. The recording steward of that church yesterday received a letter from Mr. Ross to the effect that as the church had declined to receive him as its pastor he would ask that other arrangements be made as promptly as possible to fill the pulpit. The stationing committee of conference either that Dr. Flanders, he permitted to remain a fifth year, or that the pulpit be left vacant and Dr. Flanders without a permanent charge. The stationing committee appointed Dr. Flanders to Marysville and Rev. G. M. Young to Centenary. A protest was entered from Centenary and another from Tryon, P. E. I., to which circuit Mr. Young had been invited. In view of these the stationing committee appointed Dr. Flanders to Fairville and Rev. Mr. Ross to Centenary. Another protest from Centenary followed, but no further changes were made by the stationing committee, and conference adjourned without continuing the discussion. Dr. Flanders in accordance with the appointment has during the past few days been making preparations to move. Rev. Neil McLaughlin president of conference, came to the city and yesterday attended a meeting of the official boards of Centenary at which the matter was further discussed. At this meeting the letter from Mr. Ross was read, and efforts made to reach a basis of agreement satisfactory to all. It is believed that as the minister appointed by conference has now declined to accept the charge and as the people of Fairville are anxious to keep Mr. Ross for another year some arrangement may shortly be made which will be agreeable to all concerned.—St. John's (Revs. Dr. Flanders and Mr. Ross are well known in this province.)

UNPUBLISHED POEM OF ROBERT BURNS.

It is seldom in these days that a hitherto unpublished poem of the great poet Burns come to light. But Mrs. John Moffatt, St. Andrew's, is the happy possessor of such. The poem below was copied by Mrs. Moffatt's grandfather, the late Edward Sanderson, well nigh 100 years ago. The verses are prefaced with the following words: "Composed by Robert Burns, and presented to the nobleman addressed upon being called up from the servants' hall (where he had been sent to dine among them) to add to the entertainment of the company, along with which company he had been asked to go on an excursion to Bass Rock. On presenting which he put on his hat, turned on his heel and retired."

The verses are as follows:
"My lord, I would not fill your chair,
Tho' ye be proudest noble's heir,
I come this night to join your feast
As equal of the best at least!"
"This trifle that cash with me is scant,
And titles trifles that I want.
The King has never made me kneel
To stamp my manhood with his seal
But what of that? The King on high
Who took less pains with you than I,
Has filled my bonnet and my mind
With something better than its kind
Than your broad acres, something which
I cannot well translate to speech.
But by its impulse I can know
'Tis deeds, not birth, that makes men low.
Your rank, my Lord, is but a loan!
But mine, thank Heaven, is all my own!
A peasant, 'tis my pride to be;
Look round and round your hall and see
Who boasts a higher pedigree!"

I was not fit, it seems, to dine
With these fox-hunting heroes fine,
But only came to bandy jests
Among your lordship's hopeful guests.
There must be here some sad mistake
I would not play for such a stake—
Be a buffoon for drink and meat,
And a poor Earle's tax-paid seat!
No, die my heart, ere such a shame
Descends of Robert Burns' name!"
