Marking the first time that such an event has been staged in the city the Maritime and Provincial amateur speed skating championships more than lived up to expectations on their opening last night when a galaxy of speed skating stars from the three Maritime Provinces gave Island fans something to think over with a real display of prowess on the steel blades.

Never in recent years anyway, has such stirring competition been witnessed. In almost every race, and there was nearly 700 run off, eyelash finishes were witnessed.

Particularly was this true of the girls' events. Never has the writer seen such courage displayed by the so-called weaker sex. In more than one instance just as the race would finish someone would have to be helped to the dressing room but in every case with more events coming off they would be back at the starting line again.

Capably handled by an efficient band of officials headed by Fred M. Shannon, Inspector H. J. Kilpatrick and Mr. Nixon, all officials of the Maritime Provinces Speed Skating Association, the lengthy program was run off without a hitch.

And another thing that the fans were pleased with was the fact that only five officials were on the ice all evening. This fact alone gave the audience a perfect view of the finish line with the rest of the officials placed at vantage points, according to their position, where they could perform their duties most ably.

Remarking on the meet, members of the Maritime Provinces Association were of the opinion that last night's event was one of the best they had ever seen. It was hard to beat, they said, and all handed bouquets to the Island competitors for their great showing.

And the Island representatives did well. In every event they provided plenty of competition and although they did not carry off a great many titles, nevertheless they showed the fans quick realization of his ability, gave him a great hand. There is really a future in store for this boy and it will be on an Olympic team. Young today should hold his own with the best in the Dominion.

Tonight's Quigg is really a marvelous skater. Last night he showed a burst of speed in coming from behind to take the 3-4 mile event that was really breath-taking. The fans quick realize his ability, gave him a great hand. There is really a future in store for this boy and it will be on an Olympic team. Young today should hold his own with the best in the Dominion.

On strange ice, playing without the services of their ace defencemen and naturally nervous Canadians, failed just enough in the last period to lose the verdict. But with the second game coming up Canadians will have far more confidence in themselves and every Maritimer will be pulling strongly for them to force the series into a third game.

WOMAN HAS SHARE IN DODGER CLUB
NEW YORK, March 24—A woman bequeathed a one-fourth ownership today in the Dodgers, Brooklyn National League baseball club. She is Mrs. Marie McKeever, 41 years old, daughter of Stephen W. (Judge) McKeever, late president of the ball club.

Championships Will Close Tonight With Starry Field Ready For Gun

The Maritime and Provincial speed skating championships will conclude at the Forum tonight when 27 more champions will be declared in Maritime and Provincial competition.

Last night's show was a dandy. Tonight's will be even better with all the more favored events, such as the 800 yards final and the Provincial mile struggle taking place. Every one of them will develop into mighty struggles between winners and losers.

But the races won't hold all the spotlight. Specialties will be well worth watching. E. A. Lamy in his inimitable comedy antics that call at the same time for some nimble work on the part of the referee.

Space now time will not permit to go into detail about tonight's program. Suffice it to say that it will be well worth watching. You will see the Maritime Provinces Speed Skating Association's lengthy program was run off without a hitch.

Speed Galore Witnessed As Maritime And Provincial Speedsters Vie For Honors

Championships In All Events Of Skating Meets Will Be Declared At The Forum Tonight.

After His Worship Mayor Foster had officially opened proceedings in a speech in which he heartily welcomed the contestants to the City and wished the event the best of success, the Maritime and Provincial Speed Skating Championships got away to a glorious start at the Forum last night when 34 of the 68 events listed on the two-day meet saw champions declared in what easily was the most sensational display of speed ever witnessed in an Island rink.

Sensational finishes, fast times and loads of courage were all on display as the competitors, representing the three provinces gave their best attempting to earn a Maritime or provincial title. In several cases, particularly in the girls races, competitors had to be helped from the ice as they skated themselves into a state of exhaustion in every event.

Quigg Outstanding
Easily the outstanding speedster competing Johnny Quigg skated himself into the hearts of Island fans as he came through with victories in the only provincial events in the senior class to take a strange hold on the skating championship title of the Maritimes.

Quigg put on pressure to recover its lost ground but Halifax refused to lie back and both teams notched two, the easterners carrying through with their fight all the way.

Rookie George Parsons Gives Toronto Leafs 1-0 Overtime Win Over Bruins

(By Sydney Gruson, Canadian Press Staff Writer)
TORONTO, March 24—Young George Parsons, who has shuffled between the minors and majors a half-dozen times this season, broke up the first game of the National Hockey League championship series tonight with a goal that gave Toronto Maple Leafs a 1-0 overtime victory over Boston Bruins.

Parsons fired a low drive past goalie Tiny Thompson after a minute and 32 seconds of overtime and over time in 21 minutes and 32 seconds overtime in all. Nick Metz, centre of the line on which Parsons is left wing, drew an assist.

For four periods the teams had checked each other to a standstill. Let a carrying the play as Bruins elected to sit back for the breaks. It was a direct change in the first period that led to the goal, first in the best-of-five series to be resumed here Saturday night.

Bruins went up four strong for the first time just prior to the goal. Metz broke away with Parsons by his side. Eddie Shore trailing and Dit Clapper the only Bruin protecting Thompson. Metz gave Parsons the puck as the winger skated ahead at the blue line, went past Clapper and drilled the low shot past Thompson's left.

As 13,415 fans watched, the N. H. L.'s sectional leaders gave a perfect display of defensive hockey for 80 minutes. Both goalers had only a minimum of work amid the heavy bumping by defencemen and forwards and only once either team had an edge in man on goal while Ray Goffie was out in the first overtime period.
