United Services Day in Army Week Observed

Military demonstrations at Charlottetown, Summerside, Borden and Victoria featured the observance of "United Services Day" in Army Week yesterday.

The day opened with a demonstration on the cricket field of Victoria Park with a feu-de-jole by approximately 400 men from No. 62 Canadian Army Base Training Centre.

At the conclusion of the feu-de-jole, Lieutenant Governor LePage took the salute as the band marched past. Accompanying him were his aide, Lieut. M. G. McCarthy, R.C.N.V.R., and Major J. B. Eaton, representing the D.O.C. for M.D. No. 6.

During the afternoon 35 men from the Training Centre under command of Lieut. Gordon DeBlois, put on demonstrations in platoon drill, bayonet fighting, platoon attack, and a bayonet drill.

At the conclusion of the feu-de-jole, Lieutenant Governor LePage took the salute as the band marched past. Accompanying him were his aide, Lieut. M. G. McCarthy, R.C.N.V.R., and Major J. B. Eaton, representing the D.O.C. for M.D. No. 6.
