BEATING HOUSE SHORT-AGE—Three armen stationed at the Summerside R.C.A.F. station are beating the housing shortage in their own way by building cottages for themselves at Glover's Lane, just east of town. The three men, Harvey Feiske, Vancouver; Joe Walker, Winnipeg; and Stan Scotland of Toronto, requested annual leave to do the job. Downhearted at first the three men now feel a little more kindly to their new place of residence, as Holman's and Schurman's have gone all out to give them a break in obtaining materials. Two of them are erecting new cottages and the third is renovating a cottage that he had rented. All three cottages will have water, sewerage and lights. They are working against time trying to have their homes ready to move into by the end of the week. One cottage will have five rooms and a shower and the other two will have four rooms and a shower. The small buildings are 20x20.

APPOINTED ELECTRICIAN AT BERWICK, N.S.—Mr. Fred Champion of O'Leary is receiving congratulations on his appointment as the electrician for the progressive Annapolis Valley Town of Berwick, N.S. He will be leaving on Wednesday, May 11th to assume his new duties. Mr. Champion's application was one of the twenty-two received, which later was narrowed down to about six. Mr. Champion has had much experience in electricity during the past ten years and up to Feb. 16th of this year has given a most efficient electrical service to O'Leary and Knutsford when on that date fire completely destroyed his plant and the equipment which it contained. Mrs. Champion and the two children, James and Barbara, will join Mr. Champion when school is over the last of June. Residents of O'Leary are sorry that Mr. and Mrs. Champion are leaving but they unite in wishing them success in the beautiful little Valley town, where every year the United Church holds a camp meeting on the beautiful natural camp site. Berwick has a population of 1,000.

HAD ENJOYABLE TRIP—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Champion, accompanied by Rev. W.G. and Mrs. Dickson, all of O'Leary, left on Wednesday, May 4th for Berwick, N.S., where Mr. Champion had business and where he was appointed by the Town Council as the electrician for the Town of Berwick. Enroute they called at Sackville, N.B. and visited Bill Turner at Mount Allison, son of Mrs. William Turner of O'Leary. Both Rev. Mr. Dickson and Mr. Champion are alumni of Mount Allison. They visited Halifax and also called on Rev. F.E. and Mrs. McPherson at Windsor.

Summerside Gives Festival Scholarships

At the 1949 Annual Competitive Musical Festival held in the Prince of Wales College Auditorium this past week, Summerside has made its usual contribution. The local Musical Festival Association extends its thanks to the leading citizens and organizations, who awarded $25.00 scholarships, namely, Mr. M.L. Bradshaw, Mr. F.E. Gaudet, Catholic Women's League, I.O.D.E. Abegweit Chapter, R.T. Holman, Ltd., M.P. Schurman Co. Ltd., Smallman's Ltd.

The adjudicator, Mr. David Ouchterlony of the Toronto Conservatory of Music, commended many of the Summerside participants for their achievements and his constructive criticism should be of much value in future efforts. The following awards were presented to the pupils: A $25 scholarship was presented to Margaret Joan Muttart, who was the highest in Girl's Solo - low voice - (18 years and under) singing "The Leaves and the Wind" (Leon) with a mark of 84; Girl's Solo (9 years and under), "The Wingmaker (Alec Rowley) Matreun Forbes in a class of 52 was first with a mark of 85 Piano Solo (9 years and under) "Always Merry" (Gurlitt), Carmella Gallant tied for third place with a mark of 81; Clarinet Solo (Open), own selection, Sonny Huestis with a mark of 74; Piano Solo (8 years and under) "The Elfin Pipes are Playing" (T.P. Durhill) Carol MacLean tied for first with a mark of 84; Piano Solo (12 years and under) "Forest Wonderland" (E. Markham Lee); Herbert Crockett tied for second place with a mark of 80; Girl's Solo (13 years and under) "When the Winds Sweep By" (Geo. Rathbone) Merle Elder and 4) "Lady May" (W.H. Anderson) tied for second place with a mark of 80; (Grades 5 and 6) "Returning Spring" (Harry Brock) second place with a mark of 82; Grades 7 and 8) "John Peel" (arr. Dunhill) second place with a mark of 81.

On Monday afternoon, May 16, all the local Junior competitors in the P.E.I. Musical Festival will present a program; and on Wednesday evening, May 18, the Seniors will put on a concert. Plans are made to have some of the outstanding winners from Charlottetown take part.

MOTHER'S DAY SERVICES

The morning service at Bloomfield United Church was very largely attended with the spacious auditorium being almost completely filled. The Sacrament of Baptism was given by the Minister, Rev. W. G. Dickson, to Blair Earl Harry Lee, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis and Nancy Elizabeth Platt, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Platt. Special memorial flowers were placed in the church by Mrs. Montgomery of Charlottetown in memory of her mother, the late Mrs. Allan Hardy. The choir, under the leadership of Mrs. Alban Craswell, rendered special music. The first afternoon service was at 2 p.m. in the West Devon Church. It was a very large congregation with people coming from many school sections such as Carleton, Coleman, West Devon, Alaska, etc. The choir under the leadership of Mrs. Charles Moreshead rendered a special anthem. At 3:30 p.m. the second afternoon service was held in Brae Church. The Sacrament of Baptism was given to the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman of Evelyn Pearl Gorrill. The final service was in the O'Leary Church and the church was packed to the doors with one of the largest congregations of recent years which overflowed into the Sunday School room of the church. The Minister dedicated a new silver Baptismal Font, which was donated by the Canadian Girls in Training. He also baptized Mary Elizabeth Vey, Pauline Ellen Bernard and Minnie Frances Strang, infant daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Vey, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Strang. A special feature of the service was the singing of the new Junior Choir of the church under the leadership of their organist, Mrs. Keith Matheson. This was their first service and the very large congregation was loud in their praise of their fine singing and splendidly rendered anthem. The girls, many of whom belong to the C.G.I., looked the picture of girlish loveliness in their becoming and attractive C. G. I. T. uniforms and their splendid singing added much to the service of Divine Worship. Memorial flowers were placed in the church in memory of Mother and Dad from the Carruthers Family and in memory of Mrs. Walter Gorrill from her husband and daughter, Mrs. Harry Adams. At all four places the Minister had special messages on Mother's Day speaking on the text: "Her children rise up and call her Blessed" and also "Forsoke not the law of thy Mother."—O

Tignish Shore Home And School Meeting

The annual meeting of the Home and School Association was held on Wednesday evening, May 11th, with a fair attendance of members present. The distinguished visitors of the evening were: Rev. J. A. MacDonald, P.P., Mr. F. E. Dolron, supervisor, Mr. A. A. Bernard, chairman of the Tignish Board of Trustees, and Mr. Claude Kinch, representing the Home and School Association of Tignish Village. Mr. Arthur J. Pitre presided. The program opened with a beautiful choral program rendered by the pupils. This program was presented in honor of the Rev. pastor and other distinguished visitors. Mr. Dolron, who was the guest speaker, delivered an address which was both inspiring and informative. He spoke about the shortage of qualified teachers and exhorted the parents to become education minded and to do their part in encouraging pupils to continue their studies beyond Grade X. Needless to say, Mr. Dolron's address was greatly appreciated by all.

He was followed by Father MacDonald who congratulated the pupils for the manner in which they presented their program. He also encouraged the parents to continue their splendid work in the Association in order that the children might reap the benefits at a later date. Excellent addresses were also delivered by Mr. Kinch and Mr. Bernard. Mr. Ben Pitre, chairman of trustees thanked the visitors for their presence and asked the parents for their co-operation during the coming year. The new slate of officers for next year is as follows:— President, Ben J. Pitre; 1st vice president, Miss Martina LeClair; 2nd vice president, John J. DesRoches; secretary treasurer, Mr. E. J. Arsenault; counsellors, Alphonse Gaudet, Mrs. Arsene Gal-
