The latest news, first of all.

Miss Lizzie Irving of Montague is visiting in Richibucto.

Miss Sadie Riley, Milburn, Lot 40, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Armor has returned to her home in this City from Richibucto. While there she was a guest of Albert and Mrs. White.

Rev. H. B. Bell will conduct services at New Glasgow at 11, Fredericton at 3, and Brantford at 7, on Sunday, June 19th.

F. Glydon, Margate, has contributed an article on Sorting Cows for Dairy profits to the June Maritime Farmer and Co-operative Dairyman.

The Maple Leaf of Oakland contains a fine photo of Miss Regina P. Kelly, daughter of Richard A. and Mrs. Kelly formerly of Lot 11, P. E. I.

Miss Sarah Harris, formerly teacher in Prince Street School in this City, is now on her way home from Vancouver to visit relatives and friends.

Prof. Samuel J. Willis, B. A., of Victoria College, Victoria, B. C., is spending a few weeks at the home of his parents Mr and Mrs Charles Willis, Kingston.

Commencing June 24th the S. S. Halifax leaves this City every Friday for Boston instead of Tuesday as at present. The Plant Line ad in another column gives fuller particulars.

George McDonald proprietor of McDonald's livery and boarding stables on Grafton Street, has some first-class single and double rigs for hire at most reasonable prices. As the rigs are all new, a stylish turnout is the result, and persons wishing a delightful drive should call or ring Mr McDonald by phone to make arrangements.

Among the graduates who received diplomas at the Providence Hospital Training School in this city on May 31st was Miss G. Winnifred Young of Prince Edward Island. Miss Young is a daughter of Captain George Young of Cardigan, and a niece of Rev. E. J. McKinnon, pastor of St. Augustine's Church in this city. Oakland Maple Leaf.

A very pretty scene presented itself in the S. A. Citadel Wednesday night, when over three hundred of Charlottetown's youthful citizens gathered there, their bright happy faces making a beautiful and interesting sight. The program was immensely enjoyed, and there is a prospect of a good crowd next Wednesday night, when another special service will be held. Watch for further announcements. All children welcome, free of charge.

A very pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. J. E. Coates, mother of the bride, Coates Mills, N. B., on the 14th of June, 1910, when the Rev. Richard Opie united Anthony McNair of Buctouche and Miss Jennie S. Coates of Coates Mills in the bonds of Holy Matrimony. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The presents, which were numerous, valuable and useful, testified to the popularity of the happy couple. After partaking of an excellent supper, the newly married couple left for Moncton en route for P. E. Island, where they intend spending some weeks. The tour of P.E.I. will include Summerside and Charlottetown.

The marriage of Miss Annie M. McIntyre to William Grace of Boston, was solemnized in St. Joseph's Church, Roanoke, May 7th at 5.30 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father King. The bride, who looked very pretty in a gown of white, with a large white picture hat, was assisted by Miss Helen Sullivan of Roxbury, also attired in white. Mr. Grace is the son of N. J. Grace of the White Star Line, and was ably supported by Oswald Frazer, also of Boston. Both bride and groom have many friends in this city, the bride formerly being one of Charlottetown's popular young ladies. The groom also spent several summers in this city. They received many beautiful and useful presents, among them being a solid silver berry set from B. Bacon of the firm of W. and A. Bacon, where Miss McIntyre has been employed for the past five years, and, from the employees, a large buffet. The Guardian joins in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Grace much happiness in their new sphere of life.
