They said their simple goodbyes, shaking hands over a pile of stores. "I've only got one decent place to keep things safe," Ezra concluded, "and that ain't no alfalfa decent, either. When I get any papers that are extra precious, I always stick 'em down the leg of these high old—boots between the sock and the leather. But it's too much work to take the boot off now, so you keep 'em there."

"I suppose you've got a million dollar bank note hidden down there now," Ben remarked.

"No, not a cent. Just the same if I ever get shuffled off all of a sudden I want you to look there mighty careful. There may be a document or two of importance."

"I won't forget," Ben promised.

TAMING THE WOLF

On arriving in Snowy Gulch, Ben's first efforts were to acquire in regard to horses. Both pack and saddle animals, he learned were to be had of Sandy McClurg, owner of the general store and leading citizen; and at once he made his way to confer with him.

"Most of my mustangs are rented out," the merchant informed him, "but if you can get along with three, I guess I can fix you up. You can pack two of 'em, and ride the third."

"Good enough, Ben agreed. And after I once get in, I'd like to turn back two of them, and maybe all three—to save the hire and the bother of taking care of them."

"Just a little faster than a dog. Horses don't much care to grub their food out of their spruce forests. Where are you heading if the best one's far?"

VERNON RIVER SCHOOL CIRCUIT

The Christmas concert held by the pupils of the Vernon school on Thursday, the 21st, passed off the best in the history of the school. The hall was filled with parents and visitors from many districts.

The Rev. Robert M. Brodie capably presided. The hall was very prettily decorated for the occasion by the teachers, Miss D. Matheson and Miss M. McGillivray, and pupils.

The great centre of interest to the adults was the representation of "A Christmas Eve Dream," by a large number of the pupils, which was carried out with magnificent success. Of course, the boys' and girls' interest was the heavily laden Christmas tree with its gifts, which were distributed by Santa Claus (Mr. Milton Furness) after the following program had been efficiently carried out: Chairman's remarks; welcome by Mary Henry; opening chorus, Ring, Ring, Christmas Bells, by senior pupils; recitation by Margaret Huntley; recitation by Maymie Masters; recitation by Carmena Fraser; monologue by Agatha Henry, "Christian Eve Dream," the following being the characters represented: Peggy (the child who dresses), Olive Brodie; four Christmas Bells, Ruth Furness, Marion Jenkins, Ruth Fraser and Eunice McDonald; Three Christmas Stockings, Dennis Docherty, Byron Henry, Ernest Henry; Christmas Tree, Margaret McKenna; Three Christmas Candles, Wm. Sullivan; Claud Henry and Michael Docherty; Christmas Gift, Ann Irving; Christmas Candy, Harold Fraser; Christmas Guest, Margaret Huntley; Help, Stella Delory; Christmas Angels, Fraser, Sullivan, Mary Henry, Mary McDonald and Maymie Masters. Each of the above, including Miss Mary McGillivray, who presided at the organ, did their part exceedingly well. Following the above, the teachers, Miss D. Matheson and Miss Marion McGillivray, each received an address and gifts from their pupils, followed by recitation by Ann Irving, which was a most fitting and touching presentation to the teachers and pupils, moved by Mr. Milton Furness; recitation by Byron Henry; chorus, by junior pupils; after which "Santa" entered and cleared the tree of its treasures. The singing of the National Anthem brought a very successful evening to an end.

WESTMORELAND SCHOOL CONCERT.

The semi-annual examination was held in Westmoreland school on Dec. 19. There were twenty-eight visitors present. The school was very tastefully decorated for the occasion. In one corner of the room stood a well-laden Christmas tree. The pupils were examined in the different subjects in the usual manner. Miss Jeanette MacVittie, assisted by Miss Hagan, teacher at Maplewood, and Miss Tierney, teacher at Inkerman. After the satisfactory examination, in which all the pupils made a very pleasing and creditable showing in class-work, Mr. G. A. Canfield was appointed chairman, and a much-enjoyed program was rendered in a splendid manner. Santa appeared with a bundle which consisted of gifts for each of the pupils. He was assisted by Miss D. Nowson, and Mr. H. Canfield and distributed from the tree a bag of candy to each pupil, also a prize for spelling to Rose Campbell, Amy MacVittie, Winifred Best, Ella Canfield, Freddie Matters, Roy Oakes, Agnes MacVittie, Maudie Oakes. There were many presents given to the teachers which showed the good feeling existing between teacher and pupils. The visitors were beautifully treated to home-made candy. After the program complimentary remarks were made by the chairman, moved and seconded by Messrs. James and Heath MacVittie, complimenting Miss MacVittie on the work she had done during the past four months. The teacher, in a few words, thanked the people for their kindness in coming, also to the teachers, who were kind in coming to the examination. The following is the program: Opening address by Agnes MacVittie; chorus, "Sleigh Bells of Santa Claus," by the boys and girls; dialogue, "The Minister's Mistake," by Parker Canfield and Maudie Oakes; recitation by Fenton Wilson; recitation by Jean Garrett; recitation by Elmer Newton; "Carnegie Bazaar," by the Minister; "The Minister's Mistake," by Carrie Oakes and Freddie Matters; song, by Agnes MacVittie and Carrie Oakes; recitation by Chester Wilson; dialogue

EXAMINATION

The semi-annual examination of Cross Rivers School, took place Thursday afternoon, December 21st in the presence of a large number of visitors, Rev. J. A. McDonald and ladies of the district. It was one of the best examinations held in that school for some time, and reflects much credit on the ability of the teachers, Miss Margaret McCorvill of Borden and Miss Margaret Curley of Freetown who have so successfully conducted this school for the last six months. The pupils were examined in Reading, Arithmetic, Geography, Grammar, Drawing and History and showed by their ready and correct answers that they had been very carefully instructed. They were examined by the teachers, assisted by Mrs. J. J. McInnis, Mrs. J. N. McKinnon and Miss A. McInnis. During the examination, songs, recitations and dialogues were given by the pupils and were much enjoyed by all the visitors. An address was then read by one of the pupils Miss A. McDonald and the teachers were each

Drink Water When Your Kidneys Hurt

Stop Eating Meat for a While if Your Bladder is Troubling You

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. An excess of meat may form uric acid, which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and sluggish. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach, sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in urine so it no longer irritates, thus often ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia water drink. Drink lots of soft water.

NEW PERTH SCHOOL

The closing exercises and half yearly examination of the New Perth School took place in the school room on the evening of Dec. 23, and was well attended by the parents with a number of visitors. The scholars who continue to progress under the teaching of Mr. Ernest Parker, were examined by Inspector Shaw, who expressed himself well pleased with the result. Complimentary speeches were made by Mr. John A. Dewar and Mr. Wm. Kansen. A short programme of songs, recitations and readings by the scholars was well rendered the singing of "When Father Laid the Carpet on the Stair," being well worthy of the applause received. A Christmas Tree had been provided and nicely decorated and on the arrival of Santa Claus, to the delight of the children, proceeded to distribute the presents, which it was laden with, together with a generous share of candy, which had been given by the Women's Institute to the children of the district. The ladies of this Institute are, in an unassuming way doing a great deal towards placing the standard of education on a higher plane, and The Guardian joins with their co-operative workers continued success with a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

CENTRAL ROYALTY SCHOOL CONCERT

The pupils of Central Royalty School treated their parents and friends to a very enjoyable concert on the evening of Thursday, 21st. Invitations had been sent out and by half past seven the school was filled to capacity.

Tasty decorations and a pretty Christmas Tree well laden with gifts, were pleasing features.

The audience were surprised and delighted with the excellent programme provided, and the hearty applause which followed each number showed their appreciation. Much credit is due the teacher, Miss Melvina Gordon, who had trained the little ones so thoroughly.

Mr. T. P. Cullen acted president. At the close of the programme, the appearance of Santa Claus, created excitement for the children, and the distribution of presents, candy and apples brought this pleasant evening to a close.

Following is the programme:—

Song—Christmas Bells, by the school.

Addresses—Joe Hamby, Frances Cullen, Ada Swan and Alice Chowan.

SHAMROCK SCHOOL

The half-yearly examination of the Thistle and Shamrock school was held on Friday afternoon, Dec. 22nd. There was quite a large number of the rate-payers present. The pupils were examined in the different subjects by Mr. Geo. P. Trainor, Mrs. Angus R. MacDonald and the teacher Mr. John H. Moan. The pupils by their prompt and accurate responses to the different questions gave ample evidence that their successful and thorough work has been done during the term. They certainly did credit to themselves and to their teacher. In the various classes, questions and answers followed one another unbrokenly without those painful pauses and promptings common on such occasions, and a smile of satisfaction could be seen on the faces of parents and other visitors.

The examination of the classes being over, an excellent programme was carried out in which fourteen of the pupils took part, each contributing something in the way of a reading, recitation or song.

At the close of the programme Master T. C. Gillis came forward and on behalf of the pupils read the following address to the teacher while Master James E. Hughes presented him with a substantial and valuable present.

THE ADDRESS.

Dear Teacher,

At this joyous season of the year when peace and good will shall reign on earth, allow us to wish you from the depths of our young hearts the compliments of the season.

Only a short time ago you came amongst us as our teacher, but in that short time you won the way to our hearts by your words, your actions and your example. When we learned that in securing one of the best teachers in the province, no wonder we felt honoured when a worthy son of the district was chosen to be our guide and teacher.

We know that at times we have been very trying, boisterous and rough. But you have conducted us in a mild quiet way teaching us another great lesson in the nature of patience. We have learned of you to overlook our imperfections and promise to do better in the future. We ask you to accept this small gift not for its worth but as a token of love and esteem in which you are held by the pupils of the school. Once more wishing you the compliments of the season.

We remain on behalf of the pupils of Thistle and Shamrock School,

JAMES E. HUGHES

T. C. GILLIS

The teacher in brief but well chosen remarks responded thanking the pupils heartily for their kindness, complimenting them for their good work and wishing them the greatest happiness that the joyous season can bestow.

Short but pointed addresses were delivered by Mr. George P. Trainor, Mr. J. J. Hughes and Mr. Hugh Gillis each complimenting the good work done, and in which they congratulated the district on the improved condition of the school building which has undergone considerable repairs one of them being a new hardwood floor.

As the shadows of evening were falling the singing of the National Anthem brought a very successful and profitable afternoon to a close.

CROSS ROADS SCHOOL CONCERT AND XMAS TREE

The school was nicely decorated for the occasion and a large number of parents and visitors were there to enjoy the entertainment so successfully given by the young people of Cross Roads.

Much credit is due the teacher, Miss Clara Praught for the very excellent manner in which she trained the children to perform their different exercises so creditably.

Mr. N. Molyneux acted as chairman for the evening. Mrs. Alfred Stewart was organist, and Messrs. Harold and Alfred MacPhail very kindly helped with the programme, as well as with all work connecting with making it a successful entertainment.

The Christmas Tree was beautifully decorated, and was well laden with presents, and was the centre of attraction for the children, who very gladly welcomed Santa Claus when he came with a jingle of bells and presented them with many gifts from the tree.

The teacher was not forgotten. Besides numerous individual gifts, a ring set with onyx and pearls given by the pupils. After some remarks, a vote of thanks moved by A. E. MacPhail and seconded by M. W. Wood, was tendered to the teacher.

Miss Praught replied in a few well chosen words, and kindly thanked the pupils for their gift, and the people for their hearty cooperation in the carrying on of her work.
