After the ceremony the bride and groom left on a motor trip to Ottawa, Quebec and the Gaspe Coast before returning to their home in Montague.

The Rev. R. J. Berlis, B.D., conducted both services of worship at the Kirk yesterday. At both services Mr. Berlis dealt with the spiritual meaning at the centre of the catastrophic happenings of our day. In the morning his address was based on the incident of the blind man at Jericho. The minister pointed out that there was always some inner meaning at the centre of tumult which we must inquire into. Perseverance, which is a spiritual quality, is needed. At the evening worship Mr. Berlis dealt specifically with change, showing that obstacles which cause change show us which way we are going, and that in such moments life may find its highest spiritual meaning.

The music consisted of two anthems by the choir: "Hear, O Father, Hear Our Prayer" (Ryder) in the morning and "Now the Day is Over" (Marks), in the evening. The soloist in the latter selection was Mrs. Lemuel MacDougall.

A wedding of considerable interest took place on Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the United Church Parsonage, when Miss Neva Mathieson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Mathieson, became the bride of Mr. Earl Corney, of Corney Bros. Summerside. Rev. L. E. G. Davies performed the ceremony. The bride was very charming in a printed sheer dress in a lovely soft rose shade with wool coat in a matching shade and navy hat and accessories and wearing a corsage of roses. Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Crockett were the attendants. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Corney left by car on a honeymoon trip through the Maritimes. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Corney will reside at their lovely new home on Water Street East which was built last fall and completed early this spring. Mr. Corney is well known in the Maritime Provinces and his bride is one of Summerside's most popular young ladies. She was for many years secretary of the Summerside High School Board. The Guardian joins with many friends in extending congratulations. Previous to her marriage Miss Mathieson was the guest of honor at several informal parties where she received some very lovely gifts.—S.

ATTENDING NATIONAL CONVENTION — Mrs. Leslie Ramsay, of Indian River is at present attending the National Convention of the Catholic Women's League which is being held this week at St. John, N. B. Mr. MacMillan was formerly Manager of the Royal Bank of Canada in Charlottetown and in Edmonton, Alberta. He will remain on the Island for about a fortnight.

ADDRESSED GYROS — Members of the Gyro Club heard an address on, "Time" delivered by Mr. R. Burleigh Taylor last night. During the course of the meeting, Dr. Ross Thompson presented a baby mug to Mr. William R. McNeil. There were two guests present and Mr. Ralph Creighton, occupied the chair.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY — The funeral of the late Mrs. Thomas Holmes was held yesterday from the MacLean Funeral Home. Services were conducted by the Rev. Canon Malone who also officiated at the grave at the People's Cemetery. Pallbearers were: Willard Kelly, James Power, Ed Acorn, Patrick McTague, Russell Abbott and Rankine McLaine.

In the death of Mr. William R. Stewart, Hampshire, the community lost a respected citizen. Born sixty-four years ago, he was the son of the late David Stewart and was one of a family of nine. He lived all his life in his native community and for many years was farmer for the late Malcolm MacLeod of Colville and Charlottetown.

A wide circle of friends will be shocked to learn of the death of Mrs. Charles J. Mitchell at St. Joseph's Hospital, Saint John, N. B., early today.

Mrs. Mitchell, a highly respected resident of this city, had undergone an operation recently and her condition was belived good until shortly before her death.

Funeral arrangements were not complete this morning.

She is survived by several of a family and her husband, Charles J. Mitchell, member of the Patriot staff.

—DEATH OF MISS ODILE ARSENAULT — Miss Odile Arsenault passed away without warning in the early hours of Saturday morning at her home in Mount Carmel. Miss Arsenault resided with her brothers, Andrew, and Francis, who found their sister had passed away when they went to her room Saturday morning. The deceased had not been in good health but she had been up and about. She was sixty-nine years of age. Besides her brothers there are left to mourn two sisters, Mrs. Amande Richard of Mont Carmel and Mrs. Emanuel Gallant of Summerside.—S.

FUNERAL SERVICES — The funeral of the late Mr. J. Mortimer MacLean, Montague, who passed away at his home after a very short illness, was held from the Christian Church on Wednesday at 2 o'clock and was very largely attended. Rev. Wilfred Outhouse conducted the service, assisted by Rev. S. E. Hayward. Favorite hymns of the departed were sung, and were "When The Mists Have Rolled Away," by the choir and a Quartette "There's A Land That is Fairer Than Day," also the hymn Abide With Me. The pallbearers were Messrs. Harry Davison, Milton Mellick James Gordon, Alexander Hamilton, Joseph MacGregor and Russel MacGregor. The floral tributes were very beautiful. Interment was in the New Park Cemetery Montague. —L.

ENTERTAINS RECRUITS —The Carry On Canada Corps which has recently been organized in the City last night assisted Mr. Albert Dinnis in the entertainment of a number of recruits awaiting a draft to the mainland. They were entertained at the Drill Shed with songs, merriment and refreshment. The wives of the members of the Carry On Canada Corps helped in the preparation and serving of the refreshments and local wholesalers made generous contributions. Boy Scouts from the 6th Charlottetown troop, were supplied by District Commissioner V. A. Ainsworth, who acted as guides. The boys will be escorted to the station this morning by members of the Carry On Canada Corps and the bugle band of the West Kent cadet band.

The body of Mr. William Frederick McHugh, 53-year-old Saint John man, was found at McCarron's Point, on the shore of Hillsboro River, late yesterday afternoon. The man had been missing since May 16.

The body was identified by clothing and by papers in the pockets. The man had disappeared from his hotel in Charlottetown following his release from hospital. He had been under treatment for several days.

The same day a hat and coat were found on a local wharf. They were identified as belonging to Mr. McHugh and dragging operations were carried out along the waterfront for several days.

The body was found almost two miles from the wharf where he is thought to have drowned. It was discovered by a Charlottetown boy, Wilfred Bolger, who was driving along the shore on his bicycle in search of putty clay.

Coroner Dr. I. J. Yeo decided an inquest was not necessary.

The body will be sent to Digby, Nova Scotia, for burial.

Mr. McHugh was a commercial traveller. He had been coming to this province for many years.

—MONTREAL VISITORS — Mrs. J. R. McKenna and daughter, Miss Patricia, R. N., of Montreal were visitors during the week-end to Clinton, they were the guests of Mrs. James O'Connor and son, Lewis. Mrs. McKenna was formerly Miss Butler of Charlottetown.—K.

An eagle which had been captured alive last autumn by a schoolboy of Mount Pleasant School district in King's County was given its freedom on Sunday last, 23rd June.

The novel and interesting event was witnessed by a large gathering of school children of the school district, their parents and neighbors an a number of visitors, at "Fairhaven," the summer camp of Mr. A. J. D. Martin.

ROTARY — The annual meeting of the Rotary Club was held yesterday with A. H. Mould in the chair. Reports were given by the President, A. R. Cooper, by the Secretary, Roy Quigley, who also read the report of the Treasurer, D. F. Archibald, also by the chairmen of the various committees. This was stork day and Dr. Giddings, the happy father, was presented with the emblematic silver mug by the last preceding recipient, Dr. Gilbert Houston.

Rev. Robert Cain, C.SS.R., was ordained to the Holy priesthood at St. Alphonsus Seminary Woodstock, Ont., Sunday, June 23.

He is a native of New Perth and a son of Mr. William Cain and the late Mrs. Cain.

Before going to the Seminary, Fr. Cain was a student of St. Dunstan's University. Previous to this he was employed at the Harris-Abattoir in Charlottetown.

He will celebrate his first Solemn High Mass in his native parish at Montague next Sunday.

Another young Redemptorist, Rev. Gerard Campbell, of Roxbury, Mass. was also ordained with Fr. Cain. Fr. Campbell is well known in Souris, where he spent most of his summers. His father, Mr. Archibald Campbell, is a native of Souris, and many of his relatives are residing there.

The marriage of Miss Helen Winnifred Hyndman, daughter of Mrs. W. E. Hyndman and the late Mr. Eardley Hyndman of Charlottetown, to Mr. Thomas A. Dadson, Three Rivers, Quebec, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dadson of Winnipeg, took place at 10:30 a. m. yesterday in St. Peter's Cathedral, Charlottetown, Rev. Canon E. M. Malone officiating. The church was decorated for the occasion.

Given away by her brother, Mr. F. Walter Hyndman, the bride wore a dusty rose ensemble with a French blue coat with a platinum fox collar. She carried a boquet of Bouvardo roses and sweet peas. Miss Nancy Hyndman was bridesmaid. She wore a pale blue mull gown with a nosegay of pink rosebuds. Mr. Robert Walker of Sydney was best man. The bride's mother was gowned in blue crepe ensemble for the occasion. She had a corsage of delphinium roses.

Messrs. Robert Hyndman and Arthur Peake acted as ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Charlottetown Hotel. The couple left later on a motor trip to Muskoka Lakes, Ontario. They will reside at Three Rivers, Quebec.

WEDNESDAY

MacKINNON - VALLEY WEDDING—Miss Evelyn Kathleen Valley of Moose Creek, Ontario, and Wallace MacKinnon of Maxville, Ontario, were married yesterday. The ceremony was at Zion Presbyterian Church manse, Charlottetown. The Rev. G. Caryle Webster, pastor of the Church officiated. Mr. MacKinnon is a student minister. He is stationed for the summer at the Presbyterian Church at Caledonia, this province. He is taking his theological work at the Presbyterian College, Montreal.

WHARF PROJECT DISCONTINUED — Allegedly owing to heavy war expenditure, the contract for the reconstruction of the Railway Wharf in Charlottetown has been closed out. Work, which was about to commence, will be discontinued for the time being. The contract had been awarded to J. P. Porter & Son, Montreal. The bulk of the material which was to have been used on the project has already been delivered in Charlottetown and will be stored until it is needed. It amounts to one half the value of the project and includes steel and sheet piling, creosote piling and also an amount of miscellaneous steel and iron. The work was to be in charge of the Dominion Department of Public Works. The money which had been voted for the project lapsed on the 31st. of March. According to officials of the Department it will not be revoted this session but will be used for war purposes. The project called for a considerable amount of dredging as well as extensive reconstruction to the present wharf. However, it is expected that the wharf will put into shape, during the summer, for the fall shipping.

It was with deep sorrow and regret that her many friends heard of the passing of Miss Marion Harris, at the Prince Edward Island Hospital on June 19th. Her period of illness was very short and her sudden passing came as a great shock to those who knew her. Possessed of a splendid personality and having fine qualities of character, she was a splendid citizen, and a very faithful worker in the Charlottetown Baptist Church. At the time of her death she was assistant-treasurer of this church, a diligent worker in the Sunday School, and a member of the Philathea Class of young women. At the funeral service, held in the Baptist Church on Friday afternoon, June 21st, this class attended in a body to show their affection and regard for the deceased. A large and representative group of citizens gathered for this service, which was conducted by the pastor, Rev. H. L. Denton.

The late Miss Harris was a daughter of Mrs. James Harris and the late James Harris, of Charlottetown. One sister, Edna, predeceased her some years ago. Other surviving members of the family are Clarence W. Harris, Summerside, P.E.I.; Ernest J. Harris, Summerside; Harry J. Harris, New Glasgow, N.S., Miss Maude Harris, New Glasgow, N.S., Mrs. Clifford Moore, East Royalty, P.E.I.

Use Minards for aches

Miss V. K. Cox, of Winnipeg, is being welcomed on a visit to her brother, Mr. Reginald W. Cox and Mrs. Cox.

Dr. J. A. Clark, Mrs. Clark and daughter Ena, have returned from Presque Isle, Me., where they attended the Rotary District Conference at which Dr. Clark, District Governor, delivered an address.

On June 3, after a short illness and long life spent on his beautiful homestead at Annadale, there passed very peacefully, through the Great Divide, James Norton, "the governor," as he was kindly and familiarly spoken of by his neighbors and friends.

The death of the late Mrs. Dave MacKenzie occurred on Saturday evening at the home of Miss Lexie Sutherland, Chestnut St., Trenton, N. S., where she has been the past two and a half years, and who devotedly cared for her in her declining years and in her acute illness of only two days' duration.

ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS.— Three hundred and fifty-four pupils from the various city and country schools of Queen's County, wrote the first set of Matriculation Entrance Examinations to Prince of Wales College yesterday. This number was approximately 15 less than last year's figures. Grade ten pupils from other parts of the province wrote the examinations at Summerside, Alberton, Souris and Montague.

RECEIVE DRUG CLERK CERTIFICATES.—At the annual meeting of the Nova Scotia Pharmaceutical Society held in Halifax recently, it was announced that Mr. Frederick Thompson was awarded his certified drug clerk certificate. It was also announced that on the completion of further time service, the following will be granted their certificates as certified clerks: Miss Helen Frances Marks, Summerside, and Mr. Robert Louis Stevenson, of Charlottetown.

—PASSED AWAY IN CAPE BRETON — Mr. J. J. MacNally, of Summerside, has received word that his aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Gallant passed away on Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. J. Gillis, Esplande Street, Sydney, Cape Breton. Mrs. Gallant was 99 years of age and was the last remaining member of her family. She was a native of Egmont Bay, and was the widow of the late Stephen Gallant. She had resided in Cape Breton for many years. The funeral is taking place this morning. Interment will be in Sydney, C.B.—S.

MacNEILL - NYLAND — The marriage is announced in Trenton, Ontario, of Miss Mildred Nyland, daughter of Mr. J. Nyland and the late Mrs. Nyland of Ocean Falls B.C., and Mr. William Frederick MacNeill, R.C.A.F., only son of Mrs. MacNeill of 2509 Pandora street, Vancouver, B.C., and the late Frederick MacNeill of Milton, P.E.I. They have taken up residence for the time being at 10 North Front Street, Belleville, Ontario. Mr. MacNeill has been stationed at Trenton with the R.C.A.F. for the past two years—he received his pilot's license at the Sea Island Air Port, Vancouver in 1937. He is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. John Watts, Hampshire, P.E.I.—Vancouver Daily Province.

Citizens were yesterday grieved to learn of the comparatively sudden death of Mrs. Charles Mitchell, beloved wife of Charles J. Mitchell, news editor of the Charlottetown Patriot.

She leaves to mourn besides a sorrowing husband, one son, Gerald Richard; four daughters, Mary Marjorie, Marie Elizabeth (Betty), R.N., (who was with her mother when she passed away), Mary Winnifred, and Marion Margaret, all of Charlottetown.

Five brothers also survive, Arthur J. and John R. of Boston, Edmund A. and F. Clement of Saint John, and Vincent W. of Saint John, who is at present in Charlottetown.

Deep sympathy will be extended to the bereaved family by a wide circle of friends both within and beyond this province.

The remains arrived by the late train last night, accompanied by her husband and her daughter, Marie Elizabeth.

INSULIN STOLEN FROM CAR. —A commercial traveller from Montreal parked his car outside the New England Cafe last night while he was eating his lunch. When he came out about 20 minutes later a travelling bag and suit case were missing from the vehicle. The man is suffering from dibetes and one of the stolen bags contained his insulin. After making several fruitless enquiries, the traveller went to the police staiton and informed the police about the theft and also stated that unless the suitcases were recovered it might be necessary for him to enter the hospital to receive his insulin treatments. Constables Augustus Dowling and Sterns Webster began a search for the stolen bags. They made some inquiries and were finally rewarded when a storekeeper informed them that a young man and woman were seen going past the shop on a bicycle with two bags. From the description, the police were able to recover the stolen articles. They were found in the possesion of the young woman who was under the influence of liquor. She was placed under arrest.

An enjoyable evening was spent recently by the younger element of Kensington at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. William Semple when Miss Carrie Woodside, one of our popular young ladies who will in the near future be one of the principles in a happy event, was tendered a miscellaneous shower. The happy bride-to-be was sedately escorted downstairs, to the seat of honor, which was, along with the room, tastefully decorated in yellow and white, by Mrs. Frederick Semple. The heavily laden baskets of many beautiful and useful gifts were then brought in by the Misses Doris Saunders and Mildred MacFarlane. Miss Annie Delaney opened and read the verses, passing them to the happy bride-to-be, after which the Misses Annie Cole and Grace Semple arranged them on the table, then one and all joined hands and sang "For Shes' a Jolly Good Fellow." Carrie, although taken by surprise in her most charming manner, thanked them one and all for their many useful and beautiful gifts and extended to them an open invitation to visit her in her future home. After a dainty lunch was partaken of, the remainder of the evening was thoroughly enjoyed in social chatter, games and sing-song.

—RETURNED TO SASKATCHEWAN — Mr. and Mrs. Justin Hughes and children who have been visiting Mr. Hughes' home in Norboro, left by motor car for home on Monday. Mr. Hughes is an attorney-at-law in Eston, Sask. Many of our Island boys attain success in the professions abroad. —K.

WORK ON AIRPORT CONTINUES.—Work on the Charlottetown Airport under the Empire Training scheme is progressing rapidly, and it is expected that hard-surfacing will be commenced on the runways within two weeks. Gravelling of the runways will last for another month. More equipment has arrived recently and 60 men are working on a double shift in an effort to rush the work to completion. The day shift employs more men than the night shift, as must of the work is done by machines during the night. An additional runway has been constructed. Three of these runways are each 3000 feet long and the fourth is 3200 feet in length. One runway was practically completed last year. On another the grading is almost finished and on the other two gravelling is about completed and hardsurfacing is expected to be commenced on them soon. Twenty trucks have been employed on the project, and it is expected that this number will be increased to 25 this week. Up until last night the contracts for the erection of the buildings to be used for the training school had not been let. It is expected that work on these buildings will be commenced soon.

THURSDAY

TO ATTEND CONVENTION. — Dr. E. S. Mason, Superintendent of Home Missions for the Maritime Baptist Convention, and Dr. F. W. Patterson, president Acadia University will be in Prince Edward Island for the Baptist Association session this week. During their visit, Dr. Mason will take the morning service and Dr. Paterson the evening service at the Baptist Church, Charlottetown.

VOTES IN 1ST PRINCE.—Counting of the ballots in connection with Tuesday's plebiscite on the Prohibition Act began yesterday in the 1st District of Prince. The result in the sixteen polls counted was: Prohibition 591; beer and wine, 546. There remain three uncounted polls in the district. Mr. George E. Brown acted as scrutineer for the Temperance Federation in place of Hon. Horace Wright.

ANNOUNCE WINNERS. — Winners in the Strathcona Trust Shield physical training competition in Island schools, were announced last night. First place went to Armadale school. Other prize winners included: 2nd, Miscouche Convent; 3rd, Bunbury; 4th, Victoria; 5th, Pisquid East; 6th, Mt. Buchanan; 7th, O'Leary. The competition is open to all schools in the province, and is an annual event. The above mentioned schools have also been awarded First Prize for excellence in physical training in their respective inspectorates.

VISITING NATIVE PROVINCE —Mrs. Margaret Jewell and her daughter, Mrs. Hugh Tucker and Mr. Tucker of Concord, New Hampshire, motored here on a short visit, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Spence and family at Hunter River. They were very pleased to find Mr. Spence so much improved in health after his recent illness and hope for a speedy recovery. It is ten years since Mrs. Jewell's last visit here and twenty-one years since Mrs. Tucker and Mr. Tucker's first visit. They all were delighted with the Garden of the Gulf, and hope to be able to visit again next year. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Jewell's sister-in-law, Mrs. Eliza Jewell who was visiting her sisters, Mrs. Eldon Seaman, Hunter River and Mrs. Jamie Cuttcliffe, of Cape Traverse.

The home of Mrs. K. Moore, Mt. Edward Road, was recently the scene of a happy event, when a pre-nuptial shower, arranged by the members of Parkdale Women's Institute was held in honor of their retiring secretary, Miss Annie Hudson. The bride-to-be was taken completely by surprise, when she found herself being conducted to the daintily trimmed seat of honor by Mrs. C. Swan to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. B. Myers. An address of appreciation and good wishes was read by Mrs. Harold Newson and a beautiful three compartment silver pie plate was presented on behalf of the Institute by Mrs. Swan. Two heaping baskets of individual gifts were carried in by Mrs. P. Gay and Mrs. K. Moore. Mrs. Swan also assisted in opening the parcels while the accompanying verses were read by Mrs. Ralph Gay. Miss Hudson in a few well chosen words thanked all present for their kindness to her. Following a hearty sing-song in which all joined, a dainty lunch of ice-cream and cake, was served by the committee in charge, viz. Mrs. C. Swan, Miss McVance, Mrs. Percy Gay, Mrs. Ralph Gay, Mrs. B. Myers and Mrs. K. Moore. A pleasant evening was brought to a close by bouncing the bride-to-be and singing the National Anthem.

FUNERAL SERVICES — The funeral of the late Oliver Wendell MacDonald was held from his home, Caledonia South to the Caledonia Presbyterian Church at 2.30 p.m. on Thursday, June 13th. Despite the unfavorable weather a large crowd gathered to pay their last tribute to the late Mr. MacDonald. The service was conducted by Mr. Wallace MacKinnon, B.A., Caledonia, assisted by Rev. J. Owen Hughes, B.A., Montague, and Rev. W. I. Green, Murray River. The hymns "The Sands of Time are Sinking", "Whiter Than Snow" were sung as special requests of the family. "God Will Take Care of You" was rendered by the choir. The following were the pallbearers: Messrs. John K. MacDonald, Wilfred MacDonald, C. R. Martin, Beaton Stewart, Hanley Brooks and Angus Johnston. Mr. MacDonald who passed away at the early age of 29 years leaves to mourn his passing his wife, Helen Brooks, formerly of Arthurette, N.B., three children, Olive Eileen, aged four years, Donald Brooks age 2 1-2 years and Florence Jean age 1 1-2 years; three sisters, Mrs. Milton Dingwell, Mattapan, Mass, Miss Florence J. MacDonald, Boston, Mass., Miss Doris Reynolds, Murray Harbour, P.E.I., and his mother, Mrs. Perle Butler, Westboro, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Silliphant of Hunter River, accompanied by their son Lemuel and Mr. Chesley Wood, were visitors last week at the home of James O'Brien, Elmsdale. Mr. Silliphant although eighty-four years young, is hale and hearty, and gave a splendid exhibition in step-dancing to the tune of "Lord MacDonald's Reel" and as an encore skilfully stepped off the "Sword Dance". Congratulations, Mr. Silliphant, and would we had more people of your calibre to brighten those dark days!—E.

FAREWELL PARTY — The members of the Hazelbrook W. I. met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Larkins previous to their departure from Hazelbrook. The presentation of a beautiful blanket was made by Mrs. J. C. Wood, accompanied by a complimentary address. Both Mr. and Mrs. Larkin made a suitable reply, expressing their regret in leaving the district and their appreciation of the many kindness shown them during the past years, after which all joined in singing "For They are Jolly Good Fellows". The evening was pleasantly spent in games and music, after which a bountiful lunch was served by the ladies. The singing of the National Anthem brought an enjoyable evening to a close.

SOCIAL GATHERING.— A complimentary stag dinner in view of his approaching marriage, was tendered Mr. J. Pius Callaghan, by his friends Tuesday evening at the Blue Room. Benedicts and bachelors, to the number of 30, assembled, the former to welcome his advent to their ranks, the latter to bid him farewell on his departure from theirs. During the course of the dinner, the master of ceremonies, Mr. P. J. Rossiter in a few apt words expressed the good wishes of those present and on their behalf presented Mr. Callaghan with a suitable token of remembrance of their regard to which the recipient replied in his usual gracious manner. Brief remarks were made by those present wishing Pius success and happiness in his new state of life.

—VISITING ON P. E. I. —Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith of St. Thomas, Ontario, are visiting in Summerside, the guests of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Stewart. They motored to the Island and came via New York where they visited the World's Fair. They also spent a short time in Boston. While in Summerside Mrs. Smith was taken suddenly ill and was rushed to the hospital. It is pleasing to report, however, that Mrs. Smith is much improved and is now convalescing at the home of return trip. Mr. and Mrs. Smith her cousin before starting on the expect to stay off in Port Elgin where they will visit Mr. Smith's aunt, Mrs. T. A. Blacklock, returning to St. Thomas by way of Montreal. —S.

PRETTY JUNE WEDDING —An unusually pretty wedding was solemnized in Trinity United parsonage at Charlottetown on Thursday evening, June 20th when Annie Winifred Hudson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Hudson, St. Avards, became the bride of Mr. Harry Campbell Mellish, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Mellish, Union Road, Kings County. Rev. Hugh Miller was the officiating clergyman. The bride looked lovely in a floor-length gown of white silk trimmed with radium lace, white picture hat with pale blue trimmings and matching accessories. Her corsage boquet was of sweet peas and forget-me-nots. Miss Victoria I. Hudson, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She looked exceedingly pretty, wearing a sheer pale yellow dress, matching bonnett hat, with brown trimmings and nose-gay of snap-dragons in yellow and rust shades. The groom was ably supported by his brother, Mr. Reginald Mellish. Only immediate relatives were present. Following the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served at the home of the bride's parents, which was prettily decorated with cut flowers, streamers and candles in shades of pink and white. The array of beautiful gifts testified to the popularity of the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Mellish will make their future home in Montague. —(Patriot please copy).
