In Memoriam

MRS. GOLDEN WEEKS

Seldom has any community been more deeply moved with sorrow than were the residents of Fredericton, when it was learned that Mrs. Golden Weeks had passed peacefully away on Tuesday, April 18th. Mrs. Weeks was the daughter of the late Elizabeth and James Sharpe of Pleasant Valley, Cassie, as she was known to all, had a very quiet and unassuming life, and a loving neighbour, always ready to help in time of need, but it is in the home that her loss is keenly felt, as those who knew her best loved her most. She is survived by her husband Arthur, and two sons, George, predeceased her in infancy, and the following brothers and sisters: (Jeanette) Mrs. George Sherman; (Mina) Mrs. Harry Weeks and Harold, all of Pleasant Valley; (Eliza) Mrs. Rufus Stevens, Hazel Grove; (Ruby) Mrs. Rose Weeks of Fredericton; (Annes and Stanley) Charlottetown; and (Benjamin) R. T. Holman Ltd., Sackville. Her funeral took place on Thursday, April 20, from her late residence, and was largely attended. Her pastor, Rev. D. J. Morrison of Bradabane conducted the service, and spoke comforting words to the bereaved. The following hymns were sung: "The Lord's My Shepherd," "Peace Perfect Peace," and "Softly and Tenderly Jesus is Calling." She was laid to rest in Fredericton Cemetery. There were pallbearers, all being nephews of the deceased, Hyatt and Arthur Haslam, Milton, Allan and Eldred Weeks and Sheldon Abbott. There were many floral tributes bearing their silent messages of respect for the deceased and sympathy for the bereaved.

Killed in Action

Mrs. Beatrice Crozier of Montreal, formerly of Charlottetown has been informed of the death of her husband, Pte. Phillip Bruce Crozier, 34, who was killed in action in Italy on May 23rd. At the outbreak of war Pte. Crozier joined the P. E. I. Highlanders from which he was transferred to the N. S. Highlanders and went overseas in July 1941. He has been in active service in Italy with the Loyall Edmonton Regiment since Nov. 1943. Besides his wife he leaves to mourn a daughter Joyce, he is also survived by two brothers and two sisters, Jack serving with the Canadian Army in England, Bill of Charlottetown, Margaret, (Mrs. A. Champion) of Dartmouth and Mary, (Mrs. A. Hall) of the same place. The sympathy of many friends go out to the family in their bereavement.

In Memoriam

Mrs. George Allan Walsh

Death at all times brings sadness to the heart, but when it comes suddenly and unexpectedly to a young man in the prime of life it brings an extra share of sorrow. The sympathy of the whole community was extended some time ago to Mr. and Mrs. William Walsh of Cardigan on the loss by accidental drowning of their son George Allan. Their sorrow was all the greater because a few years ago they lost by accidental death another son in the first years of his young manhood. George Allan, answered his country's call and was home on his Christmas leave when he accidentally lost his life. He was a member of the Prince of Wales Own Regiment. His body was recovered on Easter Sunday morning. The funeral service was held in All Saints Church Cardigan, on Easter Sunday afternoon and was conducted by Rev. F. McMahon, D. D. parish priest. The large number of people from Cardigan and surrounding districts who came to pay him their last tribute of respect showed the highest esteem in which he was held by all and the sympathy that was felt for his bereaved parents and the other members of his family. May he rest in peace. 6-13-11.

Double Wedding in St. Pauls Church

An event of more than passing interest occurred on Wednesday evening, June 7th, when the Misses Olga Ethel and Jean Eleanor, the two older daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Wells, were united in marriage, Olga Ethel to AC. Charles Sinclair, R.A.F., son of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Sinclair, of Fyfeville, Scotland, and Jean Eleanor to George Starostis R.C.N.V.R., Halifax, son of Mrs. Starostic of Niagara Falls.

The marriage took place in St. Paul's Church with the Rector, Rev. A. Ledrew Gardner, officiating. The choir of which Olga was a member, sang "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden" as the procession hymn.

Both brides were given away by their father a member of the Canadian Ordnance Corps. Olga entered the church on the arm of her father and Jean was attended by Mr. Fred Moore. Both brides looked very charming.

Olga wore a full length white lace dress, and veil and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses. Jean wore a full length sky-blue silk jersey dress, and flowered hat with shoulder length veil and carried "Britt" Cliff's wedding ring.

During the signing of the register Miss Delys Owen sang "O Perfect Love". The ushers were Messrs. Hilton, Vail and John MacLean of Charlottetown.

The bride's mother wore a soldier blue dress, feather hat, silver fox furs and wore a corsage of carnations.

At the reception Mrs. Starostic left on a honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls, Ontario, and Hartford Conn., where they will visit the bride's aunt, Mrs. Bertha MacDougal. Mrs. Starostic wore a powder blue wool suit with navy blue accessories.

At the reception Mrs. Fred Moore poured the tea while Miss Joye Brown assisted her.

The brides' sisters wore a sea blue allover lace dress over blue satin with a small flowered matching hat.
