—HOLMAN DAY.—It is a pleasure for the Guardian to comment upon such an enterprising arrangement as that announced by R. T. Holman, Limited, Summerside. This firm has arranged individually for a special train with excursion rates to run from Tignish to Summerside on Wednesday, November 24th. In order to secure excursion return fares they deposited a cheque for one hundred and twenty-six dollars ($126.00) with the railway as guarantee money. The train will leave Tignish at 6.45 a. m., and will return at 5.30 p. m. This special train will be run in conjunction with HOLMAN DAY, which is next Wednesday. The full page advertisement in this issue offers a host of unusually attractive values for Holman Day, which should be seen by all. There is little doubt that the people of Western Prince County will appreciate the enterprise of this progressive concern, and it is safe to say that the Holman's special train will carry a happy, pleasant, appreciative crowd to Holman's Store next Wednesday morning.

—THE BOYS, care free and full of life, reck not on the increased cost of leather and shoes. IN MEMORIAM

THEOPHILUS MCKENZIE.

The people of Cavendish and vicinity were shocked and saddened on learning of the death, which occurred suddenly yesterday afternoon, of Mr Theophilus McKenzie, one of the prominent and most highly esteemed residents of that section. He had been in his usual health practically up to the moment of his death and had been at work as usual during the forenoon. Shortly after taking dinner he was stricken suddenly with his last illness and he passed away in a few moments. Much sympathy, in which the Guardian joins, is felt for his aged mother and other relations.

ARTHUR NEALE.

As already noted in the Guardian, he died suddenly while attending divine service in the Kingsboro Baptist Church on Sunday evening, Nov. 14th. An orphan who had been cared for in an orphanage at Birmingham, England, he had been sent over to Canada when six years of age (in 1896) and was adopted by Mr and Mrs Ezra

ELEANOR CHRISTINE McDONALD.

She was born February 7, 1888, the youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs Theophilus McDonald, of Kingsboro, was baptized into the fellowship of the Lord's Lake (otherwise East Point) Christian Church by Evangelist Abraham Martin, of Illinois, in August 1902. Had been living at Chelsea, near Boston, for some time, with her sister, Mrs Patterson, and was employed lately at the Hotel Touraine, Boston. She had been ill for some time, but continued at her work (ill within a few days of her death. Was taken to hospital on November 10 and died the next day, November 11 (Thursday). The remains were brought to Kingsboro under the care of her brother-in-law, Mr Patterson, arriving here on Tuesday. The funeral took place next day, November 17, conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Piper, assisted by Rev. H. McDonald, a near relative of the bereaved family. The deceased was gentle and gracious in all her ways, and greatly endeared herself to all about her. She leaves to mourn her loss her parents, two brothers, Joshua, living at home, and Warren, living in Manitoba, three sisters, Lydia (Mrs J. A. Stewart) living at Kingsboro, Elizabeth (Mrs Patterson) at Chelsea near Boston, and Emmeline (Mrs Estabrook) at Dorchester, near Boston. A large gathering of friends was present at the obsequies to show their respect for the memory of the deceased, and the esteem in which the entire family is held.

HOW TO CLEAN TARNISHED SILVER.

When silver is very much tarnished, and this often is the cause when it has been put away for some time and not used, it is a good plan to clean it with oil and whiting. Take an old piece of cloth or rag, dip one corner of it in the oil—lard can be used instead if more convenient—then in the powdered whiting, and rub the black marks with it. They will gradually disappear with this treatment, and the silver must then be rubbed with clean dry whiting and polished with a soft leather.
