

THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

THERE WILL BE a sale of candy at Officer 666 tonight. 5787-5-16m Fri Mon 21p.

BOYNE L. O. L. TONIGHT:—An adjourned general meeting of Boyne L. O. L. will be held this (Monday) evening at 8 o'clock. It is of the greatest importance that all the members be present.

CAPT. MCLEOD HOME.—Captain Allan McLeod, Hunter River, who left here in charge of B. Company of the 106th Battalion, arrived home Saturday night. His many friends will be delighted to see him again.

LAID TO REST.—The remains of the late Dr. C. L. Strickland were laid to rest in St. Peter's Cemetery. The funeral was private according to the wishes of deceased Rev. Canon Simpson officiated.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY.—The funeral of the late Mr. H. C. Connolly took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence on Grafton St. to St. Dunstan's Cathedral and thence to the R. C. Cemetery. A large number of citizens attended including the Knights of Columbus. The pall bearers were as follows:—Thomas Campbell, Patrick Clarkin, Joseph McCarty, D. J. McDonald, M. W. Residon, Jos. Kelly.

MEETING OF TEACHERS' UNION.—A meeting of the P. E. Island Teachers Union was held Saturday in the Prince of Wales College for the purpose of deciding upon a plan of action due to the fact that the Government had passed the Education Tax Act which changed conditions. It was decided that the teachers might engage to teach next year at a lower supplement than stated in the minimum schedule of the Teacher's Union provided that they engaged with the conditions that should The Plebsicite show that the people are unfavorable to the Education Tax then the engagement will be no longer binding. A more extended report of the proceedings will appear later.

BRINGS OUT HIDDEN FLAVORS

of many of the "ordinary" dishes you eat. It discovers delicious flavors that you can never know of until you add a dash of

LEA & PERRINS SAUCE

THE ORIGINAL WORCESTERSHIRE "Necessary as salt to good cooking."

BUILD YOUR BLOOD with our blood purifier. Johnson & Johnson, Druggists, 5787-5-17m21.

PRINCIPAL MCKINNON IN CHARLOTTETOWN.—The congregation of Zion Church yesterday celebrated the Sixth Anniversary of the dedication of the church with appropriate services. The preacher in the morning was Rev. Dr. Clarence McKinnon, Principal of Pine Hill Presbyterian College, who preached a characteristically able sermon from 2nd Peter, 1:19 to a large congregation. In the evening Principal McKinnon occupied the pulpit of St. James Church, and preached an impressive sermon on the text Genesis 28:21, having special reference to the return of the soldiers from the front.

INTERVIEWED RAILWAY BOARD.—Hon. H. D. McEwen and Mr. H. H. Shaw, Provincial Engineers, returned Friday night from Moncton where they interviewed Mr. Hanna and Mr. McLeod of the Railway Board. The matters taken up with the Board were the proposed spur line to Richmond Bay in connection with the mussel mud and tiles and the complaints of the returned soldiers relative to working hours and wages in connection with the standardization of the P. E. Island Railway. All their matters were placed fully before the Board and Mr. Hanna promised to give them immediate consideration.

BELETED ARRIVAL.—Bdr. Roy Aitken, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Aitken, Georgetown, one of the original Second Siege Battery, arrived on Saturday night. He had been held up in England through the loss of his papers when the first group of First Division men were coming. The authorities succeeded at last in disentangling the papers, and he crossed by the Scotian, arriving in Quebec last Thursday. Pte. W. T. Clair, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Clair, Montague, one of the original 105th, also arrived Saturday night. He had been transferred to the 13th, and arrived in Halifax by the Olympic on Friday. Both these young men saw much service, having taken part in practically all the battles in which the Canadians were engaged. Bdr. Aitken was slightly gassed but has fully recovered. Pte. Clair received two slight wounds from which no ill effects followed.

Ask for Minard's and take no other

PERSONALS

Mr. Fred Cairns, of St. John, representing the Ford automobile is in the city.

Mr. C. E. Loring, representing the Royal Baking Powder, St. John, is in the city.

Messrs. Eugene McEachern, J. B. Gaudet and W. Dystant returned Saturday from the Magdalen Islands.

Miss Irene Donnelly, Peakes Station, spent a few days in Donaldston, the guest of Miss Florence MacAulay.

Mr. Neil McLeod, and Misses Marion McLeod and Della Matheson, city, motored to Brookfield Saturday.

Messrs. J. A. G. Ellis, H. G. Vickerson and F. C. Parkman, Montague, motored to the city Saturday morning.

Many friends of Mr. Wilfred MacNally, ex-soldier, Tracadie, are very sorry to know that he is ill in the City Hospital.

Mr. D. Anderson, son of Mr. John Anderson, Provincial Auditor, who has been taking a course in Science in McGill University, Montreal, has arrived home for the holidays.

Premier Arsenault and Hon. James A. McNeill, Commissioner of Public Works, leaves this morning for Quebec City to attend a conference of representatives from the different provinces regarding the proposed federal grant for roads. It is understood that if the provinces come to a satisfactory understanding respecting the division of this grant, Dr. Reid, Minister of Railways, will meet them and consider their recommendation. It is also understood that he has an important announcement to make in connection with the grant.

U. S. Declines to Recognize Kolchak

(Special to The Guardian) PARIS, May 17.—The French today are eager for recognition of the Kolchak government of Russia, declaring the Allies should recognize someone before the peace conference closes to bring about a settlement of the boundaries. Kolchak forces have made considerable advances since May 1, especially north of the Caspian Sea, and in the valley of the Volga. The Americans decline to recognize Kolchak because they regard him as a reactionary but favor aid to the Finnish government.

German Cardinal Appeals To Pope to Save Germany

(Special to The Guardian) COLOGNE, May 17.—Cardinal Hartmann, Archbishop of Cologne, has requested Pope Benedict to intervene in the situation between the Allied powers and Germany in order to protect Germany from the complete breakdown which menaces her. In his appeal the Cardinal asserted that the peace conditions would mean the utter ruin of Germany and be a cruel violation of the rights of seventy million inhabitants of the country.

Prince Edward Theatre advertisement for 'The Love Trail' and other plays. Includes details about the opening play, other plays, and prices.

End of Ottoman Empire in Egypt

(Special to The Guardian) PARIS, May 17.—The Allied occupation of Smyrna is taken by the Paris Press as an indication of an end to the Ottoman Empire. European Turkey, the Echo de Paris predicts, will be divided into two parts, one to go to Greece and the other to be made into the international state of Constantinople, with the United States as mandatory. Armenia, according to the newspaper forecast will become a nation under an American protectorate. England will have the mandate for southern Mesopotamia and Palestine. France will be given control of Syria, with possible Diarbekir Adana and several mandatories in the neighborhood of Anatolia, while Italy will receive the Adalia district and made protector of the Turks, whose new capital will be Konua or Brusa, 100 miles south-east of Constantinople.

Asks Safe Conduct To Irish Delegates

(Special to The Guardian) PARIS, May 18.—The Irish-American delegates called on Secretary Lansing today and asked that he present a formal request to the British Government that Professor Valera, Arthur Griffiths and Count Plunkett, Irish Sinn Fein leaders be given a safe conduct to come to Paris to present their case to the peace conference.

Will Celebrate Arrival Of U.S. Airplanes at Azores

AZORES ISLANDS, May 17.—Visitors are arriving at the Azores in anticipation of the passage of the American airplanes and are planning a reception and general holiday to celebrate the event.

RETURNED SOLDIER WELCOMED

When it became known that Private J. Edison Mallet, who had returned from France was going to spend the evening of April 29th with his sister, Mrs. Frank Lowther of Cornwall, word was sent round and some friends representing Cornwall district from which Edison had enlisted in Sept. 1915, called upon him and presented him with an address of welcome and appreciation accompanied by a gold signet ring. After a few remarks explaining the object of the gathering Rev. J. Healey read the address and Mr. Hugh McMillan made the presentation and an interesting and appropriate speech. Private Edison responded thanking the friends and declaring that he would not soon forget their kindness. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant evening was spent. Mr. John A. Murray's singing was a feature of the entertainment which was much enjoyed. The address follows: (Cornwall, P. E. I., April 29, 1919) Private J. Edison Mallet, Dear friends—We are here this evening with a desire to express to you in the best way we can our great appreciation of the services you have rendered to our Empire in the defence of our homes and liberties and our persons and to welcome you back again. We also take this opportunity of conveying to you our sincere and heartfelt sympathy in the bereave-

PEOPLES THEATRE MATINEE—3.15 NIGHT 7 AND 8.45

The Bernhardt of the Screen PAULINE FREDERICK In Victorien Sardou's Great Drama, made famous by Sarah Bernhardt "FEDORA" Tremendous Drama of Intrigue & Violent Vengeance Villainy and Intrigue in the days of Russia's Czar

PEARL WHITE -IN- "Meshes of Evil" 7TH THRILLING CHAPTER OF "The Lightning Raider" Wednesday - - Thursday BRYANT WASHBURN -IN- "Venus of the East" From a story published in The Saturday Evening Post.

PRINCE EDWARD TO-NIGHT ONLY St. Dunstan's College Dramatic Society PRESENTS "Officer 666" The greatest "CROOK PLAY" ever produced. SPECIALTIES BETWEEN THE ACTS Some worth while TALENT will take part. Also the COLLEGE ORCHESTRA. Secure your Tickets now and give the boys a "BUMPER" House. Prices—25, 35 and 50 cents. Doors open 7.30! Curtain 8.30 sharp.

The House of Quality SUITS AND DRESSES That Will Rivet Your Interest! THAT will upon sight create an immediate desire in the woman who has been looking for the "Newest" and has thought it impossible to find Style Satisfaction except at a higher price. Here is the result of an exceptional purchase, which we pass on to you at a fraction of their real value. The style embraces a dozen carefully selected models; all of them right UP-TO-DATE, and all of them of the most desirable fabric and trimming. Big and little women; old and young; We can fit you all. PATONS Ltd.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS true regarding the health of the mind. DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS ALL KIDNEY DISEASES RHEUMATISM BRIGHT'S DISEASE DIABETES BACKACHE NEURALGIA 23 THE PROMISE