Patent Medicine Makers Seek Protection

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Manufacturers of proprietary medicines in the United States are more concerned with the elimination of medical bootleggers than in the sale of beer to the sick H. B. Thompson, their Washington representative, told the House judiciary committee today at hearing on the bill to tighten up the Volstead law.

Prior to the enactment of the Volstead law, 80 per cent of the makers of legitimate medicines in which alcohol was used, were required to medicate it so as to render its unfit as a beverage," Mr. Thompson said. "We enforced that regulation before the United States got the eighteenth amendment, but since then thousands of permits were issued under which disguised 'booze' was turned out wholesale."

FOOTPRINTS ON THE SANDS OF TIME.—No, not exactly, but on the sidewalks of Charlottetown. Citizens looked with curiosity yesterday upon the imprint of numerous large footprints, all leading in with each foot was a single word "Klenzo". Investigation showed that these footmarks all lead to one goal—the McKinnon Drug Co's store and as one got nearer the store they appeared in greater number until the front of the store there was a vast number of same, and the mysterious word signifying the name of a leading dental cream.

It's That Great Picture

THE WORLD'S GREATEST COMEDIAN HAS BEEN WORKING ON FOR A YEAR.

Charlie has taken a partner in the fun business. It's Jackie Coogan, the Kid. They're the greatest combination of mirth makers who ever got together; and the laughs that Charlie may overlook come fresh and snappy from the kid. And would you believe us if we told you that here and there thru the six great reels of the biggest comedy film has ever been made, there's a complaint for those best acquainted with the little Scot know all too well that he is not over free with his compliments, especially when talking to his wife's relations. Sir Harry is an honest critic and when he said "George boy your pronunciation is perfect" he meant it and knew what he was talking about.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN IN A SCENE FROM "THE KID"

The daylight trials of motherhood, the midnight trials of paternity are all for Chaplin in this super comedy. He was a good mother to the Kid and when the Kid grew up he sure became a good son; for Charlie is a wandering glazier, and while the kid went ahead breaking windows Charlie was always at hand to get the job mending them. And yet there's a sob now and then. Never expected that of Charlie, did you? Well here's where you get something more than laughs!

It's only an odd one who does not like REAL NICE CHINA CHINA is a leading line with us.

As a Wedding Present it is always appreciated.

We also carry Tea and Dinner Sets in China and Semi Porcelain.

Honest Criticism

George Teleford Vallance in March 1920 went to New York with Sir Harry and Lady Lauder, Lady Lauder by the way is George's sister. At the Lauder apartments, in the Hotel Astor a little farewell dinner was being given one evening, prior to the departure of the Lauders for their home in the old country, they having then just completed their world tour. At this select gathering George T. sang some of the old Scotch songs, for among other reasons to secure Sir Harry's criticism. At the conclusion of the program here is what Sir Harry said, "George boy your pronunciation is perfect." That was a real compliment for those best acquainted with the little Scot know all too well that he is not over free with his compliments, especially when talking to his wife's relations. Sir Harry is an honest critic and when he said "George boy your pronunciation is perfect" he meant it and knew what he was talking about.

The management of the Prince Edward Theatre takes special pleasure in announcing that George T. Vallance the sweet tenor of New Scotland, the understudy and fourth in line of Sir Harry Lauder, supported by Lauder Scotch Concert Party will be its holiday attraction for the 24th of May. Seats now on Sale.

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE

Letter of Condolence to Mr. Hector MacLeod, Fairview, P. E. Island. Dear Brother,—On behalf of the Brethren of Derry, L. O. L. No. 1163, we desire to convey to you and the members of your family our sincere and heartfelt sympathy in the hour of your bereavement.

Death has visited your home, and robbed you of a kind and loving mother and an affectionate wife, and we can realize the depth of your sorrow. We know how in-consolable human sympathy is in such trying circumstances, but will direct you to Jesus for comfort and consolation. It is he alone who can heal your aching hearts and guard and guide the little ones and direct them to that Haven of rest where sorrow is never known. Again we extend to you our deepest sympathy and trust it may be a source of comfort to you in your sorrow.

Signed on behalf of the Brethren of Derry, L. O. L. No. 1163.
