The Treatment Usually Accorded Boy's Clothing

is well represented in the picture above. Boys clothing must be built to stand just such wear and tear and strain. There are a few real good kinds—and lots of the other sort. Most any kind of boys clothing looks well until its put to the test. After that you know whether it's a "Progress" Brand or only an imitation. It's foolish to take chances—because it costs money.

Capt. John Hughes of this City left yesterday morning for Boston to bring home the body of his son John Hughes, who was drowned there on the 8th inst, while boarding his schooner.

A memorial service was held in the Sackville Methodist Church last Sunday evening for the late Rev. Dr. William Dutton. Addresses were delivered by, President Allison, of Mt. Allison University, Dean Paisley, of Theological Faculty and Rev. J. L. Dawson.

Persons sending advertising matter to The Guardian are requested to state whether same is to appear among Classified ads, Business locals, Announcements or among regular display advertisements. When no such information is furnished the management will not be held responsible if ad does not appear as desired.

The marriage takes place at six o'clock this morning in St. Dunstan's Cathedral of Josephine Carroll, daughter of the late John Carroll, of this City, to Doctor Joseph H. Cunningham of Cambridge, Mass. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. John A. McDonald, of Grand River, Lot 14, who was the Doctor's teacher when he attended St. Dunstan's, and in whose parish he was when Father McDonald took charge of Miscouche, which he did for fifteen years. The bride, who is a graduate nurse, will wear a gown of pale grey with a large hat of grey felt, set off by two large grey and pink plumes, while her bridesmaid Miss Celia Kelly of this City and sister of Rev. F. C. Kelly of Chicago, will wear grey broadcloth with a pale blue panne velvet hat. Both the bride and her maid will carry bridal bouquets. Fred. S. McLeod, ex-rector of Massachusetts and a resident of Cambridge, will act as groomsmen, while L. B. McMillan will give the bride away. Rev. J. T. Gallant of St. Dunstan's College will preside at the organ, while the soloist will be Edward Wallace, an American student at the College. After the ceremony the happy couple will take breakfast at L. B. Millan's home before leaving on a wedding trip to Montreal and other American cities. The bride will travel in a tailor made suit of brown broadcloth with hat to match. Doctor Cunningham has many friends throughout this Province, he having been a Professor of Chemistry at St. Dunstan's College and was quite active in athletics in the eighties, he having been centre back and the Rev. John McDonald centre scrummage in the St. Dunstan's team when it defeated the strong Abegweit's football team of that time, it being the only team known to do so. It will also be remembered that when the Doctor's father died, the late John Cunningham, he with the remainder of his family presented Rev. J. A. McDonald's church at Miscouche with a beautiful peal of memorial bells which ranks among the finest in the Maritime Provinces. The Guardian heartily congratulates the young couple.

The Montreal Star says—Lady Davies of Ottawa is in town the guest of Mrs. W. McLea Walbank, Peel Street. Shippers were yesterday paying 25 cents for potatoes, 22 cents for black oats, 50 cts for white and 11 cents for turnips. Tenders are being received by the P. E. R. for transportation of steel rails from Picton to Charlottetown. See ad. Mrs. Stetson and two daughters who were attending the funeral of her son, the late Arthur Stetson, returned to O'Leary yesterday. Joseph Halpin who has been the machine operator at Fairland left yesterday on return to his home in St. John, Reginald Cox of this City has taken his place. A Dutch clog of the 18th century and another a wooden shoe of the kind used during the 18th century are on exhibition in Sprague and Co's window, on Sunny-side. Advertisers will kindly bear in mind that The Guardian cannot undertake to insert in following issue any "changes" of ads received after one o'clock each noon. The contractors of the crib work for the new P. E. R. wharf have finished the concreting for this season and are now preparing to return to Halifax for the winter. City subscribers sending in changes of address—will please give the number and street of old residence as well as new. The carriers' lists have all been revised and agree with the new numbers. This will avoid delays and trouble. The Guardian news office closes at twelve midnight Saturday and does not open again until midnight Sunday. In the meantime any news items, duly signed by the writer and dropped in the letter box in the Guardian main entrance door, will have prompt attention when office opens. The ad of The McLeod Milling Co. Ltd. Halifax, manufacturers of McLeod's Special Flour, appears in this issue and should be read by all house-keepers. Their lady demonstrator will call at the different homes in the course of a few days and her call will be of much interest as every woman knows how much the excellence of the bread, pastry, etc, depends upon the flour used. Owing to the enormous amount of time and expense necessary in book keeping and making out small accounts as well as mailing and collecting same, The Guardian has decided that in future all ordinary amounts under one dollar will be accepted on a cash in advance basis and ten per cent discount given, except to those who have a regular advertising account who will still have the privilege of monthly credit. Last night a man named John Morrow much the worse of liquor, tried to force his way into John McKinnon's house in Brighton, Mr. McKinnon's two children were alone in the house at the time and the man after pounding at the front door and telling them to let him in as he was their father, etc, he went around to the back threatening the while that he would break the door in. The little ones were greatly frightened and had not some neighbors heard the noise and gone to their assistance some damage would no doubt have resulted. He was later on secured and taken to the police station.
