THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

SCHOONER FOR SALE—THE schooner Marion Emerson, built at Murray Harbor, 30 tons register. For particulars apply to Percy White, Murray Harbor. 11-19M1iE2ipd.

AN OMISSION.—In The Guardian's report of "The Messiah" in the First Methodist Church Monday evening the name of Miss Gwyenneth Coombs, one of the soloists, was inadvertently omitted. Miss Coombs has a sweet, rich voice and her part in this magnificent oratorio was a most creditable one.

MAN BADLY HURT.—A seaman belonging to the schooner Clarence, which vessel is now at the Railway Wharf, Charlottetown, was badly hurt Tuesday. He was walking along Queen Street on the sidewalk when a hand-sleigh pushed rapidly by a boy collided with him, catching the man at the ankles taking him off his feet before he knew what happened. The man had his hands in his pockets at the time and did not have time to withdraw them to save himself. He fell with great force to the sidewalk, being rendered unconscious. He was carried into L. J. Reddin's store where medical aid was at once summoned. It was over an hour before the man regained consciousness. The practise of coasting on the sidewalks of the principal streets is something whirh should not be tolerated and the police should see to it that this harmful practise be stopped.—Ex.

(From Yesterday's Evening Guardian)

HAPPY EVENT.—Among the recent happenings at Cornwall was the marriage by the Rev. George Orman, at the Parsonage, of Elmer Clow and Agnes McKinnon, both of North Wiltshire.

ANOTHER FOX COMPANY.—It is reported that another fox company is being promoted, the object being to buy a pair of 1913 pups, from a ranch, located on the farm of Henry Smith, Tryon.

SOCIAL EVENT.—Mrs. W. W. Wellner, Charlottetown, announces the engagement of her daughter Miss Abbie J., to Roland Rattenbury of Winnipeg. The wedding takes place quietly in Charlottetown the latter part of December.

MRS. MOBBS DEAD.—The death occurred from pneumonia at Wheatley River on Sunday, Dec. 8th, after a week's illness of Mrs. John Mobbs aged 77 years. Besides her husband, she leaves to mourn one sister Mrs. John Ling, Wheatley Rider, and a wide circle of relatives and friends. The funeral took place the following Wednesday and was largely attended, Rev. J. B. Gough officiating.

HENRY DAWSON DEAD.—There passed away on Monday at his home, in North Tryon, Henry Dawson, in his 83rd year, leaving to mourn, besides his widow, three sons and five daughters, Gordon, at Cape Traverse; John, Edwin, Augustine Cove; Mrs. Patrick Trainor, Kinkora; Mrs. John Driscol, Cape Traverse; Mrs. Dodge, and Mrs. Sullivan, Boston, and Miss Ida at home; also a large circle of relatives and friends. To the family, and friends The Guardian extends its sincerest sympathy.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES—The congregations that gathered on the Cornwall circuit on Sunday, Dec. 15th, were good as usual. The services at North Wiltshire and Kingston were of a Christmas character and the hymns and special pieces were in each case very ably rendered by the choir. The Incarnation, formed the theme of the evening's discourse at Cornwall sustained by scripture references. The text was When the fulness of the time was come God sent forth His Son, made of a woman, made under the law.

::Smokers Goods.—We have an excellent assortment of cased pipes, tobacco pouches, cigar and cigarette holders and case smoking sets, ash trays, tobacco jars, pocket lighters, cigars of all kinds in Xmas packages (10's and 25's) and everything a smoker could wish for—All of the above articles were specially selected for the Christmas trade and make acceptable gifts. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, Sunnyside. 12-13Mtf.

(From Yesterday's Evening Guardian)

GOOD RECORD.—There were no cases before the Charlottetown Police Court this morning.

NORTHUMBERLAND LEAVES.—The Northumberland left Charlottetown othis morning at 7.30 for Pictou with a fair number of passengers and a general cargo.

INWARD TRAINS.—The eastern express arrived in Charlottetown this morning at 9.40 a. m., ten minutes late; the southern accommodation at 10.25 a. m., fifty minutes late, and the Cape Traverse accommodation at 10.35 a. m., forty minutes late.

FOX FARMS.—According to a St. John's exchange, Dr. Alex Campbell, has started a fox farm near Mundy's Pond and purchased a few days ago for a substantial figure a splendid black fox from Placentia. He has six animals on his ranch and studied the question very thoroughly on a visit to P. E. Island last summer. By the Fogota yesterday Messrs. Day and Abott, of Musgrave Harbor, brought along a splendid black fox which they think is worth $2,000. It was caught in a trap there three weeks ago and when it arrived three intending purchasers were on the wharf and promptly began to bid against each other for the animal. It is said that a number of men of a speculative temperament, are planning the formation of a large fox farm in the vicinity of St. John's and will go into the business on a substantial scale in the near future. It looks from present indications as if Newfoundland would soon outdo Prince Edward Island in the number of fox farms in operation, the more so as there is the whole Colony and Labrador as well to draw from.

VICTORIAS MEET.—The Charlottetown Victoria Club held its annual meeting last night which was well attended and most enthusiastic, the outlook for the coming year being exceptionally bright. This club during the past year has done excellent work as is well known and now holds three trophies, The Starr and two Prince Edward Island Trophies, this being the second year to hold this high honor. In the Baseball field the club also did excellent work winning the ten gold medals offered by Mr Heartz as consolation prizes between the Vics and Y. M. C. A. teams. The finances of the club are very satisfactory and for the coming winter strong teams will be in the hockey arena, probably the same members playing as last year with three exceptions, but for these vacancies good men have been chosen. The officers elected for the season are:—Dr. A. B. Reid, President, (re-elected), Vice-President, Pope Beer. Secretary, J. F. Fraser, (re-elected.) Treasurer, Allan McCabe. Executive Committee, the officers and John Martin, John Wonnacott, and Anthony McAskill. The delegates to the P. E. I. Hockey League are:—Dr. A. B. Reid, J. Frank Fraser and J. Carl Milford. The Hockey Committee is Dr. A. B. Reid, John Wonnacott and Percy Rodd.

::Any woman would be delighted with a gift from our stock of chocolates, perfumes, ebony goods, toilet articles, etc. We have the gift, the goods and the low prices and know you will find satisfaction here. The McKinnon Drug Co., Corner Great George and Kent Sts. Mtf.

::Civic Taxes—Citizens will please take notice that taxes and amounts due for concrete must be paid at once as the books are about to be closed for the year. 12-13 M6i.
