The Wellington
THE UNIVERSAL PIPE

JUST smoke—clean, dry smoke down to the last piece of tobacco—that's what you get from a Wellington. The moisture stays in the well. The bowl is genuine French briar, fashioned and fitted by a master hand. The WDC triangle trade-mark tells you so. Good dealers have the shape and size you want—$1.00 and up, and worth every penny of it.

If You Saw Wood Each Day
You Won't Need Cascarets

Great medicine—the Sawbuck. Two hours a day sawing wood will keep any one's bowels regular. No need of pills, Cathartics, Castor Oil nor "Physic," if you'll only work the Sawbuck regularly.

Exercise is Nature's Cure for Constipation and—Ten-Mile walk will do, if you haven't got a wood pile. But, if you will take your exercise in an Easy Chair, there's only one way to do it—and make a Success of it. Because—there's only one kind of Artificial Exercise for the Bowels and its name is "CASCARETS." Cascarets are the only means to exercise the Bowel Muscles, without work. Druggists—10 Cents a Box.

REMAINS EXPECTED TONIGHT.—The remains of the late Mrs. James Fendergast, whose death occurred in Boston, Mass., are expected to arrive this Monday night. Funeral Tuesday morning services beginning at 10 o'clock at St. Dunstan's Cathedral.

KINGS COLLEGE FUND.—During the past fortnight Dr. Boyle, President of King's College visited Charlottetown, Craupud, Springfield, Kensington, Burlington and French River in the interest of the King's College Advance Movement and Canon Vroom the organizing Secretary, Charlottetown, Milton, Rustico, Summerside, St. Eleonors, Kensington, Port Hill, Ellerslie, Biddeford, Lot 11, and Alberton. The amount subscribed to date is $90,000.

The death occurred at her home 179 Water St. of Mrs. Ann Doyle, widow of Mr. James Doyle, after an illness of three weeks at the age of 68 years. Besides a large circle of friends there are left to mourn five sons, namely: Officer Dominic Doyle, Charlottetown, James, of Attleboro, Mass., Alfred, in France, Joseph and Stephen, of this city and one daughter, Angela, at home, also three sisters Mrs. McKenna and Mrs. Sheridan, of Attleboro, Mass., and Mrs. Sinnott, of this city, and two brothers, Patrick McKenna, of Port Augustus and James of United States.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 2.50 and was largely attended. The pall bearers were: Messrs. John Trainor, P. A. Smith, John McDonald, Hugh Hennessey, Sixtus McLellan, Chas. Simmons.

The family have the sympathy of all the community in their double bereavement. May her soul rest in heaven, one of her sons, Mr. Peter Doyle, having predeceased her about peace.

Mr. Maxwell Suffered Years With Pimples Healed by Cuticura

"I suffered for years with pimples and blackheads on my face. The latter one could hardly get a pin point between, and the former itched and burned so that I could not sleep at night, and my face was just a mass of eruptions.

"I decided to give Cuticura Soap and Ointment a trial, and after using two boxes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was completely healed." (Signed) R. B. Maxwell, Upper Sackville, N. S., August 10, 1917.

You may think that because Cuticura does such wonderful work in skin, and healing every itching burning eczema it is not adapted to the gentle uses of the toilet. On the contrary, that is just where it is most alive in preventing these serious troubles.

Free Sample Each by Mail. Send for it. Cuticura, Dept. 10, U. S. A." Sold everywhere.

MRS. ARRAS GALLANT.—The sad death from pneumonia occurred in Summerside on Saturday afternoon of Mrs. Bella Gallant, wife of Mr. Arras Gallant, Summerside at the age of 30 years. Besides her husband she leaves to mourn two children. The funeral took place yesterday from her late residence to St. Pauls Church, thence to St. Pauls Cemetery. Deepest sympathy of all is extended to the bereaved in their hour of sorrow.

TWILIGHT RECITAL.—The first of this season's series of Twilight Recitals to be held in the Baptist Church took place on Saturday afternoon before a large and very appreciative assemblage. Prof. H. A. Tanton's ability as an organist is too well-known to need any superlative tribute. The programme was an exceedingly well-balanced and well-arranged one and the rendition of the organ numbers without exception was a treat. The solos by Miss Blanche Boyer and Mrs. H. S. Henderson, who are both possessed of voices of rare excellence and the male quartette by Messrs. Gallagher, Howatt, Quigley and Dr. Yeo were splendidly rendered and much appreciated.

It was remarked at the last meeting of the City Council by one of the Councillors that whatever Mayor Wright "undertakes" to do he carries out successfully.

Evidence of the truth of this statement was once more furnished on Saturday night, when His Worship very kindly invited the members of the City Council, and other city officials, the Water Commissioners, the members of the citizens banquet committee and representatives of the press and several others to dine with him at the Victoria Hotel.

This thoughtful action on the part of the city's chief magistrate was to use his own words, to express in a small way his appreciation of the citizens who stood behind him so faithfully and well in connection with the planning and carrying out of the arrangements of the civic functions in connection with the Governor General's recent visit.

Needless to say an altogether enjoyable evening was spent by all present and the sentiment so emphatically and vociferously pronounced that He's a Jolly Good Fellow left no room for doubt in the minds of anyone as to the sincerity of the statement.

Manager Sterns of the Victoria again fully sustained his reputation in the splendid manner in which the repast was served.

Those present consisted of the following: City Council.—Messrs. D. J. Riley, L. B. Miller, Dr. J. Y. Yeo, P. A. Smith, H. F. Connors, R. B. Rattary and J. J. McKinnon. City officials.—Messrs. W. W. Clark, K. J. Martin, W. J. McMillan, M. D. John McLaughlin, John P. Nicholson, James McMillan, Albert Douse and Robert Vanderlinck. Water Commissioners.—Messrs. Charles McGregor, and John McKenna. Citizens Banquet Committee.—Messrs. G. S. Inman, G. W. Harrison, Major Bartlett, W. A. Stewart, H. M. vanBuskirk, Donald Nicholson, Rev. Dr. Fullerton, H. V. Buntain, A. A. Pomeroy, D. O. M. Reddin, J. O. Hyndman, Senator B. C. Prowse, J. E. Bell, Col. Leigh, Capt. U. G. Dawson, W. A. Wright. Colonel Beattie, Lt. Colonel Leigh. City Press.—Messrs. R. McDonald and J. J. Enman.

An impromptu toast was very successfully carried out. Mr. G. S. Inman acting as vice-chairman, he and all the other speakers in turn paying very complimentary tributes to His Worship, both as to his qualities as a citizen and a Mayor.

The toast list was as follows:

THE KING
God Save the King

THE MAYOR, CITY COUNCILLORS AND WATER COMMISSIONERS
Responded to by His Worship, Coun. Miller, Coun. Yeo, M. D. Coun. McKinnon, Coun. Smith, Mr. Chas. McGregor, Mr. John McKenna.

DEFENDERS OF OUR EMPIRE
Colonel Beattie, Rev. Dr. Fullerton, Capt. U. G. Dawson.

THE COMMITTEES
Messrs. H. V. Buntain, H. M. VanBuskirk, A. A. Pomeroy.

EX-MAYORS, CITY COUNCILLORS AND WATER COMMISSIONERS
Mr. Donald Nicholson, M. P., Mr. D. O. M. Reddin, Col. D. Stewart, Mr. B. C. Prowse.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH
Dr. W. J. McMillan.

THE PRESS
R. McDonald, J. J. Enman.

The speeches were interesting, informative and amusing, but lack of space will not permit of a detailed report of them in this issue.

His Worship at the close warmly thanked those who had spoken so kindly and said he greatly appreciated their remarks.

The proceedings closed about 11 p. m. with the National Anthem.

TUESDAY

—HOME ON FURLOUGH.—A welcome visitor to town this week is Mr. Reggie McMahon of the R. F. C. Toronto who is spending a limited furlough with former friends here. Mr. McMahon was some time ago an employee of this branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce and has still many warm friends here.

A telegram was received yesterday by Rev. Maurice McDonald, announcing the death in St. John, N. B., of Gunner Damien W. F. Leonard. Gunner Leonard was a son of Mr. William Leonard, Cornwall, and enlisted with the 9th Siege Battery a few months ago. He had drilled in St. John for some time and visited his home on furlough about three weeks ago. He was then in the best of health and about a week ago the first intimation of his illness was received. He was not then considered seriously ill and no particulars have been received as to the nature of his illness. The body will arrive this evening accompanied by the mother and sister who went to St. John on learning of his illness. The remains will be forwarded to the late home in Cornwall. There are left to mourn his father and mother, two sisters, the Misses Loretta at home and Ella, teacher in Queen Square School, Charlottetown, and three brothers, Ernest at home, Vincent, in the Bank of Montreal, Mahone Bay, N. S., and Louis of the Dominion Express Co., Charlottetown. The family and relatives will have the deepest sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement. Funeral notice will be given later.
