IN MEMORIAM

ROBERT J. TODD

At Rose Valley, P. E. Island, on Wednesday, June 21st, 1933, Robert J. Todd, a much respected and well known resident, passed away at the age of seventy-eight years.

He married Ann MacIntosh who survives him and he leaves a family of two sons and six daughters. James and David of Rose Valley, Christy Ann wife of William Cousins of Rose Valley, Katie, wife of Neil MacCallum of Brackley Point, Margaret Ann, wife of William Anderson of Boston Mass., Florence, wife of Charles Barkley of Winnipeg, Man., Phoebe, wife of Alex Aiken of Stanohel and Mary wife of Harold Lefurgey of North Bedeque.

MR. ARTHUR R. ATTEBERY

The following notice from an Oakland, Calif., exchange will be of interest in P.E.I., as Mrs. Attebery was formerly of this Province, being the widow of Mr. John A. Ross, Grand View, before marrying Mr. Attebery.

We are greatly shocked to hear of the sudden death of Mr. Arthur R. Attebery which occurred June 5. Mr. Attebery has been a member and an Elder of the First Presbyterian Church for many years. His faithfulness to the work of the church and his fine Christian spirit was an example to all and he will be greatly missed by everyone. To Mrs. Attebery and family we express our heartfelt sympathy and pray for them the comfort and courage that comes from a sense of God's presence in the Valley of the Shadow.

Mr. Attebery was a native of Oregon. Past master of Alcatraz Lodge No. 244, A. F. and A. M.; also a member of the Scottish Rite Lodges of Oakland.

Funeral services were held on Thursday, June 8, 1933, at 10.30 a. m. at the parlors of the James Taylor Co., northeast corner Fifteenth and Jefferson streets, Oakland, under the auspices of Alcatraz Lodge, No. 244, F. and A. M., and Rev. Dr. Baird of the First Presbyterian Church to which friends were invited.

MAURICE FRANCIS FITZSIMMONS

A wave of sorrow swept over Long River and surrounding districts when it became known that Maurice Fitzsimmons had passed away on Sunday morning, June 18th, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Fitzsimmons, Long River. Deceased had been in failing health for about a year, but it was only the day before his death that his condition was calls were made at Poulamon De Course and other Isle Madame ports, arriving at St. Peter's Canal about 5.30. Continuing on through the lock to Bras d'Or Lake. Some exceptionally fine looking farming land is noted through this portion of the trip.

Continuing, Indian Light and Cape George Lights were passed arriving at Marble Head Mountain about 8.30. From there to the beautiful hillside town of Bedeque, remaining there all night.

Away next morning at 7 a.m. they proceeded down the lake, past Ross Ferry, where two boats are kept busy all the time.

Mr. McLaren speaks in glowing terms of the delightfulness of this trip; the scenery is among the most beautiful that a country noted for its beauty can offer. The officials are courteous and do all in their power to add to the pleasure of the trip.

Mr. McDonald and Capt. Beardon, both of the McDonald Steamship Co. are busy wide awake business men. Captain York of the Enterprise and Captain Worthen of the Surr at all times provide for the comfort and pleasure of their passengers.

While at Sydney, Mr. McLaren, through the kindness of Superintendent Moore, was shown through the steel plant, viewing the steel through the various stages and finally the finished rail. Interesting too was the manufacture of nails and wire.

Through the thoughtfulness of Mr. John Renton, formerly of Georgetown, Mr. McLaren also had the pleasure of being shown through the foundry, where all the most important castings are manufactured.

On return from Sydney Mr. McLaren motored to Hawkesbury, then came by boat to Georgetown. The motor trip was most delightful, along Sydney River, past East Bay, Big Pond, Irish Cove, (along here is the Road to Lock Lomond where Prof. Patterson has his summer home.) Soldiers Cove and St. Peter's Canal Bridge.

Mr. McLaren in all had a most delightful trip, meeting many new friends and renewing ties with hosts of old ones. "To fully enjoy the fine things this trip affords," says Mr. McLaren, "one must make it himself."

DEPARTMENTAL CO-OPERATION The fine spirit of co-operation that exists between the Dominion and the Provincial Departments of Agriculture is further extended in an admirable working arrangement between the Canadian and United States agricultural authorities, particularly in connection with the presence and spread of destructive insects. Each country reports to the other the appearance of new troubles. Armed with this knowledge measures are promptly taken on either side to deal with the matter and stop possible invasion. In this connection, scouting is carried on in districts adjacent to infested United States territory by the Dominion Entomological Branch. Searching for the Brown-tail moth, the European Apple Sucker, and the European Beech Scale has all been done in the Maritime Provinces. In Quebec along the U. S. boundary signs of the Gipsy moth are looked for by scouting parties. In this way the Japanese beetle, which already has invaded 50,000 square miles in the United States, with Philadelphia as a centre, has been kept out of Canada by the vigilance of the Canadian officers. This beetle costs the U. S. 600,000 dollars a year in attempts at suppression.

WATERVALE INSTITUTE The June meeting of Watervale Women's Institute met at the home of Miss Annie Byrne with an attendance of six members and two visitors. Meeting opened in the usual way and roll call was responded to with jokes. Minutes of last meeting were read, approved and signed. Correspondence was read by the Secretary and discussions on same followed. Program consisted of a number of humorous readings. July meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Margaret Hayes. Meeting adjourned after singing the National Anthem.

"Smith wants me to lend him $10. Shall I do it?" "You would be doing me a personal favor if you did." "In what way?" "If he doesn't get it from you he will come to me."

Sterling Soars To Best Level In Years

(By The Canadian Press) Sterling, soaring upward to its best level in several years, Friday carried with it industrial securities and wheat in a general advance on all the country's markets.

Sharp appreciation continued throughout the day until nearly to the close when the pound faltered, the United States dollar firmed and traders began to pick up their substantial profits.

The close in both wheat and stocks was under the day's highest points but still above Thursday's close. Wheat at Winnipeg rested fractionally up after having touched levels two to three cents better than Thursday.

Convicted Of Manslaughter

(Canadian Press) AMHERST, N. S., July 7.—Sentence of a year in jail was imposed by Mr. Justice Hugh Ross today on Melville Rushton, of Springhill, who was convicted in Supreme Court on a manslaughter charge.

Rushton shot and killed Mrs. Major Spencer of Southampton, whom he mistook for a deer while hunting with a party of friends last fall.

JENKINS—SHAW

An interesting wedding was solemnized Wednesday, June 28th, when Della St. Claire, daughter of Mrs. Shaw and the late Orin Shaw, was united in marriage with Fulton Willard Jenkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jenkins, Marsh St.

The home of the bride's grandfather, Mr. J. J. Grant, Temperance St., was the scene of this pretty wedding. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Hugh Munroe, B.A., D.D., of Westminster Church, in the presence of the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

The house was most artistically and beautifully decorated for the occasion, with flowers. Blue and white was the color scheme in both drawing-room and living room, and this was carried out in lupinus in those shades. In the drawing-room, where the ceremony took place, the focal-point of the decorative scheme was the beautiful bridal arch under which the couple were united. The arch was covered with evergreen intermingled snowballs, the whole making a very lovely setting. Suspended from it was a large white wedding bell trimmed with orange blossoms and lily-of-the-valley.

The wedding music was played by Miss Olive Grant, cousin of the bride. As the strains of the Bridal Chorus rang out, the bride, a sweet and fair picture in her white gown, entered the room on the arm of her uncle, ex-Mayor George Grant, by whom she was given in marriage. The beautiful bridegroom was of white satin, made on princess lines, with very long sleeves, tapering to a point. With it she wore a lace jacket. Her veil, made in cap shape, clung to her head in graceful folds, caught up with orange blossoms. The simple loveliness of the costume was completed by the sheaf of lilies she carried.

The bride's sole attendant was little Miss Carol Jenkins, niece of the groom, a sweet little figure in her ruffly rose-tinted organdie dress and matching organdie hat.

Mrs. Shaw, mother of the bride, received the guests, assisted by Miss Jean Grant. Mrs. Shaw wore a becoming gown of blue crepe, with corsage bouquet of roses.

Mrs. Jenkins, mother of the groom, was given in navy blueorgette with navy hat to match. Following the ceremony the guests took the opportunity of extending best wishes to the newly-married couple. They then repaired to the dining room, which was prettily decorated for the occasion, the color note being pink and white. Pink roses centred the table, flanked by tall pink tapers in silver holders. The cloth covering the table was of Maderia, with cut-work embroidery and lace. The beautifully decorated three-tiered cake was cut by the bride, Mrs. Robert M. Grant poured tea, and a number of girl friends of the bride served. Those serving were the Misses Kay MacLeod, Vivian Jenkins, Gladys Gammon, Bertie MacCallum, Mary Yorston and Mildred Yorston.

Following the reception, the bride and groom left on a motor trip which will include points of interest throughout the Maritime Provinces. For the honeymoon trip the bride wore a very attractive suit of sand and brown flecked rough tweed. Over it she wore a swagwogger of the same material, with small hat to match. Her shoes, gloves and bag were of sand, corresponding with her costume.

Both bride and groom have always been very popular with the younger set of New Glasgow. It is a source of gratification to their friends at the present time.

Struck By Tree, Killed Instantly (Canadian Press) CHIEFMAN, N. B., July 7.—Struck by a tree he was felling in woods 23 miles from here, Herbert Brown, 48, was instantly killed today. The tree fell unexpectedly as Brown, who was working with a lumber crew, started moving towards apparent safety. By motorboat, stretcher and freight train the body was taken to the home of Brown's sister at Red Bank, where he had been living alone on his farm.

SELECT FIELD FOR CANADIAN TOURNAMENT (Canadian Press) VANCOUVER, July 6.—One of the most select fields in the history of the Canadian Amateur Golf Tournament is assured for the opening of the classic event at Shaughnessy Heights course here Monday. B. L. Anderson, Secretary of the Royal Canadian Golf Association announced that, following the plan successfully inaugurated during the tourney at Toronto last year, the Royal Canadian Golf Association will hold an invitation tournament Tuesday and Wednesday for those players who fail to qualify for the championship event. Prizes will be given for the best gross and best net scores in 18 holes played Tuesday and again Wednesday will prizes for the best aggregate gross and net scores in the two days. The event will be played in four ball foursomes and players will be permitted to select their own partners.

AUBURN SCHOOL CLOSING The closing exercises of Auburn School were held on Friday, June 30th, in the presence of a large number of visitors and ratepayers. The schoolroom which was recently painted and cleaned by the Auburn Women's Institute looked very attractive. The examination of the different classes was conducted by the teacher, Miss Cusack assisted by William Simpson and Augustine Kelly, students at S. D. U. An interesting event of the program was the presentation of a Public School Certificate to Miss Rita McCarron. After the classes a short but interesting program was efficiently carried out. Brief addresses were then made by several of those present complimenting teacher and pupils on their progress. An especially pleasing feature of the afternoon was a vocal solo by Mrs. Byrne. A most delectable treat of home made candy was served in generous quantities during intermission. On behalf of the pupils Miss Lillian McKenna read an address and Miss Rita McCarron presented the teacher with a purse which were suitably acknowledged by the teacher. Following is the address:—Miss Mabel Cusack, Auburn. Dear Teacher,—We have learned with deep regret that you are leaving this community and for this reason we are taking advantage of this special occasion to offer you a little token of friendship and appreciation. While we deeply regret your departure from our midst it is pleasing to know that you will not be far distant and we are confident that the future will not sever the golden chain of friendship which binds you to us. Since you came here five years ago, by your strict attention to duty, by your firm yet gentle discipline and by your ability as a teacher you have gained the confidence and won the love of all whom you have taught. We thank you, dear teacher, for all that you have done for us, for your patient instruction, your ever ready assistance with our lessons and for many acts of kindness from time to time, and we ask you to accept this parting gift as a token of our appreciation. We hope you shall have a pleasant vacation and that the future shall bring you continued happiness. Signed on behalf of your pupils of Auburn School.

FEEDING THE NURSING SOW The following meal mixture for nursing sows is recommended by the Swine Division of the Dominion Department of Agriculture in a folder of concise information just issued. The mixture consists of ground wheat, 150 pounds; and tankage 30 pounds. If possible, 50 pounds of bran should be included. Nursing sows with large litters will lose flesh rapidly, and, if the litter has done well, good nursing sows may be very thin at weaning time. Do not change grains of the nursing sow's meal mixture. A sow nursing a small litter should be fed less than one with a large litter. As soon as the sow has completed farrowing and seems anxious for feed, she should be given a warm thin slop, containing such feeds as bran and ground oats. Feed a limited quantity and at next regular meal the nursing ration can be used, gradually increasing the amount until in a few days the sow can be given all she wants.

JULY HARVEST MONTH July is the harvest month of France, Austria, Hungary, Roumania, Bulgaria, Serbia, Czechoslovakia, Switzerland, Southern Russia, Southern Germany, South of England, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Missouri, Nebraska, Kansas and Oregon. RITA MCCARRON, LILLIAN MCKENNA. With the singing of the National Anthem a very enjoyable program was brought to a close. many friends that they are to remain in New Glasgow, residing, for the summer months, with the bride's mother, Mrs. Shaw. The many and beautiful gifts testified to the esteem in which the young couple are held. They were the recipients, among other gifts, of a silver service and a chest of flat silver, besides many other pieces of silver, linen, china and glassware. Highly valued by the bride were the gifts with which she had been "showered" by her girl friends. The young couple were also the recipients of a handsome occasional chair, the gift of members of the firm for which the groom works. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful filligree platinum dinner ring, diamond-set, and the pianist an amethyst pendant and to the flower girl a ring set with her birthstone, the opal. The groom is a grandson of the late John F. and Mrs. MacLeod, Ugg, and a nephew of Benjamin and the late Nicholas Jenkins of Mount Albion. He has many relatives and friends in this Province, who will wish him and his bride many years of happiness. Judge—Why did you marry two wives? Bigamist—It takes two women to support a man with conditions as is a source of gratification to their friends at the present time.
