Gleanings From Rural District of New Glasgow

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wyand gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bulman on Friday evening, December 5th, to say farewell to them before they departed for their new home in Cavendish. During the evening an address was read and the presentation of a purse was made to this young couple, who have always taken an active interest in the welfare of the community. Gains and social hour were enjoyed while many enjoyed the light fantastic music furnished by Messrs. Wilfred Doucette on the violin, accompanied by Elwood Weeks and Billie Andrew with the guitar. Mrs. Bulman in her usual good style assisted by a number of ladies served after wishing Herb and Ruth success and happiness in their new home, and thanking the Bulman family for a pleasant evening. They took their departure homeward.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Orr accompanied by Mr. Manderson were visitors here on Sunday, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Miller Orr. Mr. Billie Andrew accompanied them on their return, enroute to Amherst where he is employed.

Messrs. Wayfield Orr, Eric Stevenson and Chester Bulman were in the capital Friday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Green and their daughters Helen and Mrs. Eric Simpson motored to Charlottetown on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith attended the joyous events on Friday evening of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Andrews Silver Wedding where numerous friends and relatives called during afternoon and evening. Their friends wish them many more years of wedded bliss.

Mrs. Millar Orr was called to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Pursey, as her father had suffered a heart attack, but his friends will be glad to learn his condition is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith were visitors to Hunter River on Sunday, visiting Mr. Smith's father, Mr. William Smith, who sorry to say, has been somewhat indisposed. The genial old gentleman has been the faithful mail carrier for many years, and always had a friendly greeting to all.

Mrs. Mervyn Bulman was the welcome visitor to her home here last week. Mrs. Bulman was employed on the Prince Nova this past season, where she was very efficient in her duties. She returned to Charlottetown on Saturday with Mr. Bulman and son Allison.
