JOHNSTON - NOONAN.

A wedding of interest to many, the principals being widely and favourably known, took place on Tuesday morning, September 22nd, before friends and relatives at St. Peter's Church, Seven Mile Bay, when Miss Mary Harriet Noonan, daughter of the late Joseph Noonan and Mrs. Noonan of Albany, was united in wedlock to Mr. James P. Johnston of the same place. Reverend Wm. E. Monaghan performed the ceremony. The bride, who was attired in an ensemble of blue with accessories to match, was attended by Mrs. George J. McCormac while Mr. George J. McCormac supported the groom.

The Wedding March was played by Mrs. James McAleer of Borden and solos were beautifully rendered during the Nuptial Mass by Mr. Roland Phillipson and Mr. Urban J. Pineau.

In the evening, a reception was held at their home which was tastefully decorated for the occasion with gladioli and other cut flowers. About twenty guests partook of a bounteous repast, after which two to three hundred neighbors and friends gathered to charivari the happy couple who received them all and treated them to refreshments.

CRISPNESS at its best

THERE'S a crunchy goodness in toasted flakes of corn that no other cereal can give you. And when you enjoy Kellogg's—the original Corn Flakes—you have the added quality of oven-freshness—matchless flavor. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

Nothing takes the place of Kellogg's CORN FLAKES

AGING EYES NEED HELPING LENSES

Persons are unduly alarmed when they are unable to read as they once could. That is a handicap which can readily be overcome. Aging eyes need helping lenses. As this condition progresses stronger and stronger corrections are required.

Do not neglect the condition which makes reading difficult.
