

CHURCHES TOMORROW

CHURCH OF ENGLAND

ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL Rectory Square

Rev. Canon E. M. Malone M.A., L.Th., Incumbent.

Services: 8.30 Holy Communion, 10.30 Morning Prayer and Sermon.

WEEKDAYS: Holy Communion, 8.15 Monday and Friday, 8.45 Tuesday, 8.30 Wednesday, 7.45 Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday.

Evangelism: 7.30 Friday.

The week day services are in All Saints' Chapel. All seats are free and unreserved.

EVERYBODY WELCOME

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

Rev. James F. Ibbott, Rector

Services: 8.30 Holy Communion, 10.30 Morning Prayer and Sermon.

WEEKDAYS: Holy Communion, 8.15 Monday and Friday, 8.45 Tuesday, 8.30 Wednesday, 7.45 Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday.

Evangelism: 7.30 Friday.

The week day services are in All Saints' Chapel. All seats are free and unreserved.

EVERYBODY WELCOME

PRESBYTERIAN

THE KIRK OF ST. JAMES

Rev. T. H. Russell Somers M.A., S.T.M., Minister

Services: 8.30 Holy Communion, 10.30 Morning Prayer and Sermon.

WEEKDAYS: Holy Communion, 8.15 Monday and Friday, 8.45 Tuesday, 8.30 Wednesday, 7.45 Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday.

Evangelism: 7.30 Friday.

The week day services are in All Saints' Chapel. All seats are free and unreserved.

EVERYBODY WELCOME

ZION PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. and Graston Street

Services: 8.30 Holy Communion, 10.30 Morning Prayer and Sermon.

WEEKDAYS: Holy Communion, 8.15 Monday and Friday, 8.45 Tuesday, 8.30 Wednesday, 7.45 Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday.

Evangelism: 7.30 Friday.

The week day services are in All Saints' Chapel. All seats are free and unreserved.

EVERYBODY WELCOME

MEMO TODAY

PEARSON'S, Parkdale

Crib sheets and pillow cases, Quilted carriage spreads, Bunting bags, Cardigans, Vests, Shawls, Jersey sun suits, Wool blankets, etc., etc.

United Pentecostal Church

39 Elm Ave.

10 a.m.—Sunday School, 11 a.m.—Worship and Preaching, 7.30 p.m.—Evangelistic Service, Rev. Q. Stairs will speak.

10 to 10.30 a.m. Saturday CFYC Children's Choir of the Air.—Fast time.

Monday 8 p.m. Meeting in Orange Hall, Hunter River.

Tuesday 8 p.m. Meeting in Hall at N. Granville. Standard time.

REV. J. C. KLEINSTEUBER, Pastor.

CENTRAL GUARDIAN

This column is reserved for news of local interest, but advertisements of a new nature may be inserted at five cents a word, strictly payable in advance.

CRASWELL for Photographs.

HOWARD McINNIS for Photo Footers.

NEW CRESTFIELDS just arrived. Tombs Music Store.

HAY SALT, Cash & Carry Stores

GENERAL ELECTRIC Record Players. X Tombs Music Store.

SEE LATEST IN FOOTWEAR. WARE, Crockett's Jewellery.

LOWTHER PICNIC will be held on Wednesday afternoon, July 31st, on the grounds adjoining the Church of England at Craupud.

NEW BING CROSSBY RECORDS. Tombs Music Store.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.—All advertisements to appear in Guardian must be in office by noon of day previous to insertion to ensure publication.

HAMPTON UNITED CHURCH.—Services Sunday, July 28th. Minister, Rev. Peter Jackson. Bonshaw M. De Sable 3 P. M. Hampton 7.30 P. M.

THE KIRK OF ST. JAMES.—Morning Worship at the Kirk tomorrow will be conducted by the Minister, the Rev. T. H. Russell Somers, M.A., S.T.M., who will also preach the Sermon. The music will be under the direction of the Church Organist, Miss E. Lillian McKeizle, Mus. Bac. The Evening Service is withdrawn until September.

BIBLE SOCIETY WORK.—The British and Foreign Bible Society has issued translations and forwarded their circulation, believing that in themselves they can bring light to human souls and the experience of the power of the Gospel to every man. It clearly recognizes that under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the interpretation of the Holy Scriptures, and instruction therein, belong to the teaching ministry of every branch of the Church. The P. E. I. Auxiliary of the Bible Society, under the leadership and support of everyone, Auxiliary Office, 142 Prince Street, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

TRINITY CHURCH.—The Reverend Doctor H. C. Rice, Minister, Pastor of Trinity Church will conduct the services both morning and evening and preach the sermons. His subjects for the day will be "The Nest that is stirred up" and "A positive rather than a negative life." Dr. Rice will be the guest preacher all during the month of August. The music this Sunday will be under the direction of Mr. A. Roy Kendall, L. R. A. M., and at the morning service there will be a solo by Mr. Roy M. Smallman of Charlottetown. Visitors to our city are warmly invited to worship in Trinity Church.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.—Holy Communion will be celebrated Sunday morning in St. Paul's Church at 8.30. The Rev. J. T. Ibbott, R. D., will preach at both morning and evening services. Starting Sunday August 4th the Services in St. Paul's Church will be conducted by Rev. W. W. Clark, Rector of St. Mark's Church, Halifax. Rev. W. W. Clark had charge of the services in St. Paul's last August, and his return to Charlottetown and to St. Paul's will delight his many friends here. Mr. and Mrs. Clarkson will occupy St. Paul's Rectory during the month. Rev. and Mrs. Ibbott expect to leave the City for the month of August.

MASS CARDS

Mrs. F. J. Donnelly, Mrs. E. P. Donnelly, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Keefe, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Doyle, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gallant, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Donnelly, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kelly, Miss Norma Donnelly, Mrs. Owen Trainor, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Trainor, Mr. and Mrs. W. Currie, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Doyle and Family.

CECIL McCARTHY, Mrs. Irene Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rogerson, Mrs. Catherine Gillan, Miss Clemmie Livingstone

MESSAGES OF SYMPATHY

Mrs. Lily Webster, Miss Doreen McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cullen, Miss Margaret Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Pigott and Family, Mr. L. W. Shaw, Supt. of Education, Members of C.V.T. Staff, Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Burge, Mrs. Irene Grant, Mrs. Henry Bauley.

Card of Thanks

To Blanche and Jack Stewart, the staff of the P. E. I. Hospital and the many kind friends relatives of Vesta C. Rose who visited her during her illness and who so kindly sent letters, cards and flowers, and for flowers and messages of sympathy at her death.

Since personal acknowledgement of all is impossible may we express our sincere appreciation for your kindness.

S. J. ROSE, G. J. STEWART, W. G. STEWART, SPENCER STEWART.

Card of Thanks

The family of the late Francis J. Donnelly wish to take this opportunity to express their appreciation and thanks to neighbors and friends for the tokens of sympathy shown them in their recent bereavement. Also for the many mass cards and messages of sympathy.

"No, please, let me talk—and don't sit down." For Gil would have swept her into his arms again, not let her go on. "You see, Anne let him have it straight from the shoulder, 'I'm engaged to someone else.'"

"You don't say," Gil said. He had set down whether she liked it or not, and entirely too close to her. He took one of her hands in his, played with its delicate slender fingers, lifted it to press against his cheek, his lips, then to give it back to her gently, carefully, as if presenting her with a gift.

"But I do say," Anne persisted. "You must listen to me. It's been fun—loads of fun. But I didn't mean it to end like this."

"But that isn't the end, foolish child. Haven't I already told you several times about that? Have you forgotten so soon? Besides, I knew you were engaged." His grin was mocking, but his eyes were serious. "I told you that Mary had told me all about you. You've been engaged all your life, almost—and to one man. That's another thing I love you for, my sweet, your constancy."

"I'm afraid I haven't been as constant as I ought, or as faithful to you." But it was not altogether her fault, if he knew about David.

"Anne was anxious to get me to feel guilty now, thinking of David. David deserved the flirtation all during these past weeks. She had sent him that picture postcard as she had promised, a ridiculously frivolous one with a bathing beauty displaying the fish she had caught. It had brought a brief businesslike letter in return. Anne was much too busy to take time to write more. She had had to hurry when she was thinking of poor David working so hard in a hot poky little town while she was having such a heavenly time. But the quality had been short-lived. She had promised herself she would be thoroughly selfish for the first, and doubtless the last time in her life. She had promised herself that she would be thoroughly selfish for the first, and doubtless the last time in her life. She had promised herself that she would be thoroughly selfish for the first, and doubtless the last time in her life.

"Gil shook his head. "I wouldn't want that kind of love. Nor any part of it. The minute I'm sure you love me, Anne, I shall run away with you. Don't you know that that other spring might never come?"

"Yes, that was why she had felt as she had about this one that had just slipped away, about all of the springs before. "But I shall never love anyone except David," Anne said. How could she, when she had loved him so long and so truly? "I'm sorry Gil, if I lied to you believe I might. I do like you, and its been fun now, but I am almost over. Now, I am going home." She decided that just then. "I'll always remember what fun K's been, the lovely things you said to me. But this is the end."

"That's what you think," Gil said. And from the way he said it, with that purposeful gleam in his dark eyes, that mocking laughter in his grin, Anne wondered if he could be right.

(To be continued)

ON SALE AT McCOORMACK'S

Parquet floors, 170 Prince St. Chesterfield stoves, studio couches, kitchen ranges, kitchen tables, kitchen cupboards, Extra. Buffets, china cabinets, etc. Priced right and prompt delivery.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH.—The service of Morning Worship will be conducted by the minister, the Rev. J. Hudson Levy, B. D., with sermon "The Voice of God." A selected solo will be sung by Mr. George Johnson.

The Church Sunday School during the summer months, worship will be conducted by the minister, with sermon "Prayer That Does Things." A duet, selected, will be presented by Messrs. J. Rogers and W. Phillips.

Miss Louise Cox, organist and director of choir will be in charge of the music during the service. An invitation is extended to all.

IN MEMORIAM

FRANCIS J. DONNELLY

It is with feelings of deepest regret we chronicle the death of Francis J. Donnelly, one of the oldest and most respected residents of St. Patrick's Road.

The death occurred at his home on June 23rd after an illness of one week at the age of eighty-five years.

The deceased was widely known and esteemed and by his death the community in which he has long resided has lost an honest and upright citizen, a man of whom it can be truthfully said he has left no enemies, but a host of friends who will long cherish his memory.

He was the son of the late John and Mary Donnelly, a family of men who always had a cheery word for everybody.

During his illness he was visited by his pastor, Rev. J. B. Croken who also administered to him the last sacraments.

Besides his sorrowing widow the following are left to mourn the loss of a devoted father: Mary, Mrs. M. K. Keefe, Mrs. Laura, Mrs. J. W. Gallant, Dartmouth; Annie, Mrs. Milton Doyle, Summerside; Edward, Charlottetown; Reuben, Halifax and Arthur at home. Two brothers also survive, Michael, Vernon Riverview, and Joseph, Mass. Also 18 grandchildren.

The funeral to St. Teresa's church took place from his late residence on June 25th and was largely attended where a solemn requiem mass was celebrated by his pastor Rev. J. B. Croken after which his body was borne to the adjoining cemetery and consigned to its last resting place in the cemetery of the Resurrection. The pallbearers were: Joseph Myers, Walter Rogerson, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Gormley and Henry Trainor.

The rolling stream of life rolls on. But still the vacant chair. Recall the love, the voice, the smile Of the one who once sat there.

Always Another Spring

By Adelaide Humphries

"Gil, this is mostly my fault. We've been having so much fun all these weeks, I've been playing a sort of game with you, that may not have been quite fair. To either of us, Anne added in the confused jumble of her thought. She turned from him, sat down on the curving bench that circled the summer house, looked up at him, standing so tall and straight and handsome in the silvery light from the big round moon. Oh, she saw now that she never should have listened to Gil and slipped away from the party which was now going full swing in the cottage, to have a look at this moonlight scene. She saw that she should not have done many of the things she had during these new-come days and nights. There was nothing to do now except to be perfectly honest. And take her medicine as it came.

"No, please, let me talk—and don't sit down." For Gil would have swept her into his arms again, not let her go on. "You see, Anne let him have it straight from the shoulder, 'I'm engaged to someone else.'"

"You don't say," Gil said. He had set down whether she liked it or not, and entirely too close to her. He took one of her hands in his, played with its delicate slender fingers, lifted it to press against his cheek, his lips, then to give it back to her gently, carefully, as if presenting her with a gift.

"But I do say," Anne persisted. "You must listen to me. It's been fun—loads of fun. But I didn't mean it to end like this."

"But that isn't the end, foolish child. Haven't I already told you several times about that? Have you forgotten so soon? Besides, I knew you were engaged." His grin was mocking, but his eyes were serious. "I told you that Mary had told me all about you. You've been engaged all your life, almost—and to one man. That's another thing I love you for, my sweet, your constancy."

"I'm afraid I haven't been as constant as I ought, or as faithful to you." But it was not altogether her fault, if he knew about David.

"Anne was anxious to get me to feel guilty now, thinking of David. David deserved the flirtation all during these past weeks. She had sent him that picture postcard as she had promised, a ridiculously frivolous one with a bathing beauty displaying the fish she had caught. It had brought a brief businesslike letter in return. Anne was much too busy to take time to write more. She had had to hurry when she was thinking of poor David working so hard in a hot poky little town while she was having such a heavenly time. But the quality had been short-lived. She had promised herself she would be thoroughly selfish for the first, and doubtless the last time in her life. She had promised herself that she would be thoroughly selfish for the first, and doubtless the last time in her life.

"Gil shook his head. "I wouldn't want that kind of love. Nor any part of it. The minute I'm sure you love me, Anne, I shall run away with you. Don't you know that that other spring might never come?"

"Yes, that was why she had felt as she had about this one that had just slipped away, about all of the springs before. "But I shall never love anyone except David," Anne said. How could she, when she had loved him so long and so truly? "I'm sorry Gil, if I lied to you believe I might. I do like you, and its been fun now, but I am almost over. Now, I am going home." She decided that just then. "I'll always remember what fun K's been, the lovely things you said to me. But this is the end."

"That's what you think," Gil said. And from the way he said it, with that purposeful gleam in his dark eyes, that mocking laughter in his grin, Anne wondered if he could be right.

(To be continued)

Old Home Week & Provincial Exhibition Charlottetown—Aug. 13-14-15-16. The Big Event of the Maritime Season! Four complete afternoons' Harness Racing... the fastest trotters and pacers in the Maritimes will show their wares... lagging between events... high class vaudeville will intersperse the racing.

VAUDEVILLE 4 Afternoons Harness Racing. With over 100 of the fastest trotters and pacers in the Maritimes in stirring battles with Vaudeville attractions interspersed.

THE LIVE STOCK SHOW. Will bring together the finest horses, cattle, sheep, pigs, etc., in the Garden of the Gulf. Shown in separate rings with seating accommodation for spectators.

BILL LYNCH'S BIG MIDWAY. With new 1946 attractions on main Fair grounds.

SUPERB EVENING SHOWS. Superb Evening Shows with Vaudeville, Singing, Revue and other colorful features. Carferries at Tormentine and Cariboo—low rates.

Always Another Spring. By Adelaide Humphries. "Gil, this is mostly my fault. We've been having so much fun all these weeks, I've been playing a sort of game with you, that may not have been quite fair."

Card of Thanks. To Blanche and Jack Stewart, the staff of the P. E. I. Hospital and the many kind friends relatives of Vesta C. Rose who visited her during her illness and who so kindly sent letters, cards and flowers, and for flowers and messages of sympathy at her death.

Card of Thanks. The family of the late Francis J. Donnelly wish to take this opportunity to express their appreciation and thanks to neighbors and friends for the tokens of sympathy shown them in their recent bereavement.

Advance Notice. OUR PLANT WILL BE CLOSED FOR HOLIDAYS OLD HOME WEEK AUG. 12-17. Sterns Limited.

Positions Open AT THE P. E. I. Hospital. DIETITIAN, MAIDS, TRAY GIRLS, KITCHEN HELP. Apply to Business Manager.

The British and Foreign Bible Society. IN CANADA AND NEWFOUNDLAND.

FOX PENS. A few Fox Pens left with inch and inch and one half wire. Also a quantity of 1/2 and 2-inch fox wire.

MEMO TODAY. PEARSON'S, Parkdale. Crib sheets and pillow cases, Quilted carriage spreads, Bunting bags, Cardigans, Vests, Shawls, Jersey sun suits, Wool blankets, etc., etc.

United Pentecostal Church. 39 Elm Ave. 10 a.m.—Sunday School, 11 a.m.—Worship and Preaching, 7.30 p.m.—Evangelistic Service, Rev. Q. Stairs will speak.

J. M. Ladner. 177 KENT STREET. This year get a NEW Renfrew CREAM SEPARATOR.

HOOKED RUGS HANDICRAFTS AND SOUVENIRS AT THE Abegweit GIFT COURT. STORE HOURS 9 A.M.—9 P.M. 21 GRAFTON ST. Charlottetown.

United Pentecostal Church. REV. J. C. KLEINSTEUBER, Pastor.