MARTIAL LAW IN SABASTIPOL.
(Canadian Press.)
ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 9.—Martial law at Sepastopol because of mutiny in the Black Sea and Baltic fleets.
In the naval order by the Minister of Marine he says the Emperor will call the Russian Navy to do their duty to the traitors.
No pardon possible. He thanks those crews who remained loyal.

COAL SHORT.

THE PASSING YEARS.
The passing years, their message bring,
To each attentive ear.
Each tells its part of God's great plan.
For each sojourner here.
Life's meaning true we only see
As changing time unfold.
The Past has taught, the Present speaks;
The Future, God still holds.
What once seemed sunshine, clear and bright,
Ahead—along the way,
The nearer view unveiled to sight
A sky of wintry grey,
What once, perchance, seemed inkly clouds,
Touched by the hand of Time,

Have changed their dark forbidding shades
To beautiful hues—sublime.
But midst the ever-changing years,
And life's e'er changing game,
The God who stands behind the scenes
Has ever been the same.
And as each lesson has been learned,
Has come, yet still, more near,
And bid us, Never fear.
And thus each year brings lessons new
—Of God, of life, of truth,
Which, better fit our feet to tread
The pathway of the Just,
May we, this coming year, be true
To all past years we taught;
And wear into life's web each day
A noble Christ-like thought.

POLITICAL FOOTBALL.
and violently denounced Sir Wilfrid as a traitor to his race and religion, the Conservatives throughout the Dominion complacently looking on. The election was won by the Nationalists, and immediately George Taylor, Chief Whip of the Conservative party, telegraphed his congratulations to Bourassa upon the victory which they had won. From that time forward the conservative party was opposed to the naval policy of the Government; denouncing it in Ontario for not going far enough, and giving immediate aid to the Mother Country, and denouncing it in Quebec for going entirely too far by proposing to give any aid at all. Mr. Borden promised the people that if elected to power he would repeal the naval act of the Government and substitute something else a great deal better. This was surely making a political football of the naval question, and incurring that fearful responsibility which Sir Charles Tupper foresaw in his letter.

now joyfully welcome your return to them, sealed with the Episcopal character. Great dignity and honor has been bestowed upon you by the Holy See, and we rejoice exceedingly, that it was our Pastor who was worthy of such distinction.
We know it will mean separation from your loving parishioners of Vernon River, but by the spirit of religion we can rise above all selfish promptings, occasioned by the thought of parting from such a pastor, and truly rejoice, that God has been pleased to call you to a higher duty and a wider field of usefulness.
May your years in the episcopate be long and fruitful, and may the Spiritual bond between us remain unsevered, ere the fond hopes and prayers of your parishioners of Vernon River.
His Lordship, notwithstanding the fatigue occasioned during the trying ordeal and unusual demands upon him for the past ten days, made a lengthy and feeling reply in which he expressed his genuine pleasure at receiving this splendid testimonial of appreciation from the parishioners of Vernon River, where he had labored for the past five years. While the general expressions of welcome he had received during the past ten days from the citizens of Antigonish were indeed of a most flattering and appreciative nature, and were all that a generous people could express nevertheless a testimony of this kind from the people among whom he had labored for the past five years was a splendid testimony of appreciation which had the value of intimate knowledge and was on that account all the more valuable.
He was therefore most grateful for their kindness and would treasure the same as one of the many examples of the kindness he had received from the good people of Vernon River during his pastorate of that parish.

A BAKING SUCCESS WHICH YOU CAN DUPLICATE IN YOUR HOME WITH BEAVER FLOUR
All this talk about Western wheat flours being "pastry" flour, is just plain talk. Anyone, who knows anything about wheat, knows that Western wheat flour cannot and does not, make as good Pastry as "Beaver" Flour.
Western wheat has what the bakers call strength. It makes a big loaf of bread—but the bread is spongy and lacks flavor. Ontario wheat, blended with spring wheat, makes the ideal bread and pastry flour.
The bakers of Toronto and London—the experts at the agricultural colleges and thousands of homes in Ontario, Quebec and the Maritime Provinces—have proved that "Beaver" Flour is superior to any Western wheat flour, and is equally good for Bread and Pastry.
Try it. DEALERS—Write us for prices on Feed, Coarse Grains and Cereals.
