ANOTHER NEW SHIP WILL CALL AT THIS PORT

W.P. Steamships Company Will Include Charlottetown In Service.

MONTREAL, April 26.—(By the Canadian Press)—A second ship for the service between Montreal and St. John's, Nfld., via Charlottetown, Sydney, N. S., and St. Pierre, Mi-queelon, is contemplated by the W.P. Steamships Company, which is stated here today by William A. Shaw of Halifax, N. S., managing director of the Company.
Mr. Shaw has returned from Newcastle-on-Tyne, England, where he witnessed the launching of the first ship for the new service, the S. S. Belle Isle. If the Belle Isle is successful, a sister ship will be ordered built for next sea-

12 FOX PUPS STOLEN FROM N.B. RANCH

(Canadian Press)
FREDERICTON, N. B., April 26.—
The silver fox ranch of Percy A.
Gerow of this city, situated on the Woodstock road just outside the city limits and opposite the Fredericton Golf Club course, was raided last night or early this morning by persons unknown and twelve pups of a few weeks old and one adult female were stolen.

Ben Close, caretaker of the ranch near Mr. Gerow, was the first to discover the break this morning when he went to attend them and immediately notified Mr. Gerow who made the report known to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. Mr.
Close slept last evening in the house immediately joining the ranch.

Entrance was made into the ranch by cutting a door through the wire mesh which surrounds the ranch and it is unknown what means of conveyance was used to transport their booty. It is thought that an automobile was used, but no such distance from the ranch so an easy getaway could be made should they be discovered.
Conditions were favorable last evening also due to the slight rain during the night covering up traces which might have otherwise been found had the conditions been fine.

Market Dull For N. B. Herring

SAINT JOHN, N. B., April 26.— (By The Canadian Press)—While there is a good run of Gasperau herring in the harbor the market has been "very dull indeed" and a number of fishermen have stopped drifting because of the low prices, B. B. Brittain, Fisheries Inspector, said today. Gasperau today are being sold for 30 to 50 cents a hundred fish, while those for salt-ing are bringing as little as 25 cents a hundred, it was learned from dealers.

Paris, April 26.—A mysterious French woman, with auburn hair, blue eyes and a Mona Lisa smile, whose life intertwined with that of the late Ivar Krueger for a decade lay seriously ill in a hospital on the Riviera today.

She still does not know the millionaire Swedish industrialist is dead.

Stricken by worry over the financial crisis which cut short the strange life of the man whose business adventures and love affairs have startled the world, the woman, known only as "Madame B," was seriously ill in a Paris hospital at the time of his suicide.

Her friends dared not tell her of the tragedy. When she asked why he did not come to visit her, she was told he was absent on a business trip. When Paris overflowed with tales of Krueger and his forgeries, she was taken to the Riviera, lest the stories that were on every tongue reach her ears.

Prime Minister Speaks Plainly To Commons In Yesterday's Debate

Impresses Upon Opposition The Fact "That We Are In The Midst Of The Greatest Crisis The World Has Ever Known". Sounds Warning Re Mad Frenzy Of Speculation

OTTAWA, Ont., April 26.—(By the Canadian Press)—A prolonged ovation from his supporters greeted the Prime Minister as he arose to continue the budget debate when the House reassembled at eight o'clock tonight. It would seem, Mr. Bennett said, that there was no appreciation on the part of the opposition "that we are in the midst of a world depression." The opposition seemed to think, rather, that Canada was enjoying a sort of "humdrum prosperity" and that the old political party speeches, slightly revamped, could be brought out and offered as constructive contributions to Parliamentary deliberations.

"I can tell them," the Prime Minister continued, "that we are in the midst of the greatest crisis the world has ever known. We are up against realities—not theories. Those who have been charged with the responsibility of Government during the last few months have carried a responsibility of almost unprecedented gravity."

The fact was being realized throughout the country, Mr. Bennett said, in a greater degree than some members opposite appreciated; "and I can tell my right honorable friend that many people in the country are glad that at this time he is not the one who is leading the government." Many times, he continued, my heart has been gladened "by the words of approbation from staunch supporters of the Liberal cause."

THE WOMEN FRIENDS OF MATCH KING

Prominent Stockholm
Society Woman
Chief Beneficiary In Magnate's Will.—
Mysterious French
Woman Who Entered Into Life Of Krueger.

STOCKHOLM, April 26.—(A.P.)— To the ever growing list of beautiful women associates of the late Ivar Krueger, Swedish "Match King" today was added the name of Mme. Ingeborg Eberth, prominent Stockholm society figure, who was revealed as the chief beneficiary in the late magnate's will.

Mme. Eberth was hesitant to discuss details of her relations with Krueger, but spoke of him as a "fine and noble man," and stated he never would have resorted to forgery and deceit in his business affairs "if some one had not pressed him to do it."

Poisoned Wine On French Vessels

Associated Press)
HAVRE, France, April 26.—Health authorities here today ordered all ships on which they suspected there might be poisoned wine such as is believed to have been responsible for the illness of about 300 sailors during the last three months, to abandon the use of the wine.

An investigation into the poisoning was begun last Saturday by Havre police. They advanced the theory it was caused either by poison used to treat the vineyards or to reduce the acidity in the wine.

Large quantities of the wine already had been landed from coastwise ships, but some were feared to be still issuing the wine rations.

As far as was known no transatlantic liners had any of the poisoned wine aboard, but it was confined to coastwise, cross-channel, and local fishing boats.

Nothing New In Lindbergh Case

(Associated Press)
HOPEWELL, N. J., April 26.—The Lindberghs will move back to Englewood this week, probably Wednesday, away from the Sourland Hills home that has been the scene of so much sorrow for them in recent weeks.

Headquarters of the New Jersey State Police, in charge of the hunt for the kidnapped Charles Augustus Lindbergh, Jr., will be at Trenton.
Only two or three State troopers will be left at the estate to guard it against trespassers.

There have been no developments in the child hunt for several days. The Norfolk, Va., intermediate, the aged educationist who communicated with the kidnappers as "Jafie" and other independent agencies which have been involved in the baby hunt have made no report of progress.

The World's Unemployed

GENEVA, April 26.—Between 20-400,000, and 25,000,000 persons were unemployed throughout the world during 1931, according to the annual report of Albert Thomas, director of the International Labor Office of the League of Nations.

The report declared this meant that between 60,000,000 and 70,000,000 people were "deprived of the means of existence arising from their own activity or that of those upon whom they are dependent."

The report showed that 7 out of every 200 persons in the world thus suffered from unemployment, directly or indirectly. This is approximately one out of every 28.
