

STOCK NOTE.

Anthony Essory, Loyalist Road, had an Oakley Baron filly in the city recently that good judges say is one of the best three-year-old carriage fillies ever seen in Charlottetown. She weighed 1085 lbs., a handsome dappled bay, sound and smooth. $200 was offered and refused for her. It pays to breed to a sire like Oakley Baron. He can be seen at 254 Kent Street, City, also some of his colts that cannot be excelled in or out of harness. He can show some speed. Call and see the best colt ever seen. 5-18dr1.

HORSE NOTES.

It has been circulated by a number of parties that Lord Dalmeny is not a sure foal-getter. This statement is false, as Lord Dalmeny has a larger percentage of colts than any stallion owned in King's or Queen's Counties. Any person found circulating the above report will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. P. C. BROWN. 5-9dr2w.

The MacKinnon Drug Co. have installed a new counter perfume display case showing the exquisite odors of Fred Stearns & Co. of Detroit. These perfumes have an enormous sale in the United States and no doubt will prove very popular here. Their odors are among the very latest and are distinguished for the delicacy and fragrance as well as lasting qualities of the aroma. drtf.

No definite information has been received as to what wharf she will berth at, but in all probability the town wharf will be used.

-A young man named McCaull of Ellerslie had rather a close call from drowning a few days ago. He had been working in a gasoline boat and having occasion to step into a dory which was alongside in some way fell between the two boats and on coming to the surface found himself away from the boats, the engine having been running full speed when he left it. The accident happened about a mile from the shore, which after a hard swim he reached in an exhausted condition. At last account nothing had been heard of the boat.

LE BLANC-DOIRON WEDDING CELEBRATED

Miss Marie LeBlanc, of 5 Belvidere Place, and Frank G. Doiron, of 110 Chandler Street, Boston, formerly of Hope River, P. E. I., were united in marriage on May 4th last, the ceremony being performed at the eight o'clock mass at the St. John the Baptist Church by Rev. John B. Parent. The bride was attractively gowned in a dress of white satin, princess effect, and wore the regulation veil caught up with flowers. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses. Attending the bride was Miss Leonie LeBlanc, her cousin, who acted as bridesmaid, dressed in a cream-colored pongee silk and carrying pink carnations. The groom was attended by Angus Pineau, his cousin, Boston, who acted in the capacity of best man. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party journeyed to the home of Henry and Mrs. Donette, intimate friends of the contracting parties, at 40 Barrett St., where a wedding breakfast was served. Invitations were limited to the relatives and intimate friends, and guests were present from Boston, Chelsea and other places. The present from the groom to the bride was gold bracelet, inlaid with pearls, the present to the bridesmaid was a gold cross and chain and the best man a gold charm. The best man's gift to the happy couple was a handsome tea service and that of the bridesmaid a cut glass fruit dish. Many valuable and handsome presents were received and included in the extensive array was a dinner set from the associates of the bride in building 74 of the General Electric Co., where she was employed before her marriage. The groom is connected with the Epicure Hotel in Boston. After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Doiron will reside in Boston.

COWARDLY ASSAULT ON SPRINGHILL BOY

SPRINGHILL MINES, N. S., May 16—Jephtha O'Rourke, a boy of eighteen years, was brutally assaulted last night by three men. The ruffian used a club on the boy's head, kicked and otherwise ill-used him, so much so that the poor boy cried out "don't kill me." He is a native of the town, his father being out on strike. Young O'Rourke went to work a short time ago for the coal company to make some money, as he stated "to get some clothing." He was waylaid last night by his cowardly assailants and given an unmerciful beating. His face was covered with blood, and he was in an almost unconscious condition when discovered. It is reported that the parties who committed the assault are known and that steps will be taken to bring them to justice.

WABURTON & PROWSE ARE ENCOURAGING TREE PLANTING

C. R. Smallwood, City, Secretary of the P. E. Island Exhibition Association has received a communication from A. B. Waburton and L. E. Prowse offering prizes to schools planting trees along the sides of the public roads. The prizes offered total $50 and they suggest a division as follows:—First, $15; second, $12; third, $8; fourth, $5; fifth, $4; sixth, $3; seventh, $2; eighth, $1. The letter in part says: "We have for some time been considering the advisability of holding out inducements to the people in the country parts of Queen's County, to plant trees along the sides of the public roads. ... Roughly speaking we would suggest that the number of trees planted by each school entering the prize list should be limited to ten or twelve at the outside, and to be planted five or six on each side of the road, so as to make an avenue. The trees not to be evergreens, which, collect the snow. We think that, on a public highway forty feet apart would be a good distance for the trees to be planted should be maples, elms, birches, limes, horse chestnuts or other deciduous trees. We do not recommend beeches or oaks or any tree having top roots. ... We would be glad if your board would publish this offer in your prize list and, if possible, would be glad if you would also publish instructions as to the best method of planting, caring for, cutting, back mulching etc. In your President, Mr. Justice Fitzgerald, you have one of the most experienced tree-planters in the province and we have no doubt that he would draft a brief set of instructions, for the purpose. Our object is to encourage the planting and beautifying of our roads. We think, perhaps, the schools are the best places to begin with." The board of the prize list is shortly to be issued set forth the particulars of this competition. The suggestions as to the division of the prize money, the number and manner of planting and the distance apart will be followed.

ST. JOHN, May 16—When Herbert recovered his memory he was working as a painter with a number of other men on the side of a house in Buenos Ayres. This was the statement made a few days ago to a friend of the family by a near relative of Herbert Read, whose mysterious disappearance in November last aroused such interest throughout the Maritime Provinces and the search for whom occupied several months, covering an immense stretch of territory. The relative said that when young Read awoke from the mental sleep into which he had fallen he found that he was still possessed of about half the $250 he had in his pocket when he left Montreal, so that, figuring his expense while on the way to South America, he probably lost no money nor had any been stolen from him. The money in his possession when he came to was in Canadian bills, so he could not have MONTEAL, May 16—The cost of the Southern New England branch of the Grand Trunk, which will take the Central Vermont into Providence, Rhode Island, is estimated at $4,000,000, although the charter itself authorizes an expenditure of $9,000,000. It was announced today that the Massachusetts part of the road would be completed by the first of next month, and that contracts would be let for construction in the fall. A party of thirty-six engineers is now in the field engaged in the location work for the new line. As soon as the line is completed in Massachusetts application for a certificate of expediency will be made to the Railroad Commissioners and work will be started on the survey in Rhode Island. The Grand Trunk authorities expect to develop a much larger traffic at this port than at its other two ports in New England—Portland and New London—the aggregate of the manufactured products at Providence reaches the substantial total of ninety-two million dollars. So far as dockage facilities are concerned, the whole of those existing are under the control of the New Haven road, but the Legislature at the last session voted a million dollars for port improvements and half a million dollars for new wharves.

WASHINGTON, May 16—Definite plans are under way to prevent the election of Champ Clark as speaker of the next House in the event that the Democrats are in the majority. This statement was made today by a Democrat who has hitherto been regarded as one of Clark's followers: "There are between thirty and forty Democrats," said this member today, "who have already pledged themselves to vote against Clark for speaker, and there will be many more before the next congress. The plans to prevent Clark's election have gone so far that at least one Democrat will announce his candidacy for the speakership in a few weeks." It is declared that the overthrow of Clark will be attempted by a coalition between disgruntled Southerners and Northern Democrats, the latter being under the leadership of Fitzgerald of New York.

USE GAS POWER IN BRITISH NAVY.

LONDON, May 16—The gunboat Rattler has been brought down from the Clyde to Portsmouth for the instruction of naval stokers in the mechanism of suction gas propulsion. The significance of this circumstance is not to be regarded as forecasting the immediate introduction of this circumstance is not to be underestimated. In naval circles it is regarded as forecasting the immediate introduction of this type of prime mover to the Navy. There is indeed good reason to believe that some, if not all, of the unarmored cruisers of the program of 1910-11 will be fitted with gas engines. It has been known for some time past that the naval authorities have not been entirely satisfied with the speed they have been getting out of the smaller cruisers, and yet at the same time they have been anxious not to increase the displacement of these ships. The substitution of gas for steam as the motive power will not only enable the ships to have greater speed but their fighting efficiency will be generally improved also.
