

THAT'S the result of the shave you get with an AutoStrop Razor. Its clean, sure stroke, adjustable for light or close shaving, removes the beard quickly and thoroughly, leaving the face soft and smooth.

Such comfort is possible only with an AutoStrop Razor. Why the AutoStrop Razor in particular? Because with its stropping feature there's always a sharp blade ready for use. A few turns on the strop re-aligns the saw-like edge that results from shaving; it keeps the blade free from rust; and gives you for each day's shave a keen-edged blade. You do not need to take the blade out to sharpen it, nor do you have to take the AutoStrop Razor apart to clean it.

Self-stropping, shaving and cleaning are all done without removing the blade from the razor.

Everywhere—razor, strop and 12 blades, complete for $5.00.

THE continuous P-R-E-S-S-I-N-G of the hot, heavy iron to make the cuff fold properly weakens the fabric and causes the cuff to fray.

Not so with Double Wear Cuffs. They are ironed flat and fold easily of their own accord—either way. A clever new idea in cuff designing makes this possible. Let the next shirts you buy be BAD ACCIDENT.—Gunner McAleer of this city who has been engaged for some days on railway construction met with a painful and somewhat serious accident Saturday morning. While with several others on a trolley running along the track the wheels of the trolley ran over a signal torpedo which had been left on the rail. The torpedo exploded and some fragments of the shell went through his leg below the knee inflicting a nasty flesh wound. He was brought to the city by the morning train and taken in Wright's ambulance to the Convalescent Home.

Father McLean officiated. The bride was attended by her sister Miss Eileen Maddix while Mr. Fred Gallant of Moncton acted as groomsmen. The funeral of the late Edmund MacDougall of Nine Mile Creek took place on Wednesday, May 14, 1919, and the interment was in New Dominion cemetery. The deceased, who was in his seventy-sixth year, had been in a declining state of health during the winter and gradually sank into that sleep which knows no waking until the great resurrection morn when all that are in graves shall come forth. His sickness was patiently borne and for his future life in the great eternity he trusted only in the atoning blood of Jesus Christ. One of the kindest neighbors, his home was often visited by old and young, and he will be greatly missed in the community and in the church where he was a regular attendant until sickness prevented him from being present. The funeral services in the house and at the grave were performed by the Rev. D. MacLean, and Messrs. Neil MacEachern, George Wilson, Neil J. MacNeill, Hugh MacPhee, A. Doull and Theo. Stewart acted as pall-bearers. Although it was a busy season the funeral was very largely attended. He leaves behind to mourn their loss a widow and one son, Colin. "Absent but not forgotten." In the death of Mr. Samuel C. Nash, which occurred yesterday morning, another of the few remaining links connecting the present and the past has been severed. The late Mr. Nash was a gentleman of the Old School, a gentleman in every sense of the word, well informed, courteous, kindly; whose word was his bond and whose integrity was unswerving. He had reached the advanced age of 84 years, retaining his mental vigour to the last moment of his life and his physical health in a remarkable degree, the end coming peacefully and almost imperceptibly as sleep falls upon one wearied with a long journey. Mr. Nash was a native of Nova Scotia being the eldest son of the late Mr. John D. Nash, one of the most prominent citizens of Halifax in his day and generation.

Sleepless Nights for Two Years

Then Mr. Gilmour Found Relief in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

New Brunswick Man Tells All Sufferers from Insomnia How He Found the Way to a Good Night's Rest.

SECOND FALLS, N. B., May 30th. (Special.)—Those who spend sleepless nights should use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Such is the advice of Mr. W. A. Gilmour, of this place, and it is given out of a full heart. He knows what it means to toss around on a sleepless bed and get up feeling hardly alive next day. He used Dodd's Kidney Pills and now goes to bed and enjoys a good night's rest.

"I had not known a good night's sleep for two years," Mr. Gilmour states. "I dreaded going to bed. I also had a very lame back, caused, as I thought, by driving through the country for twenty years. Reading Dodd's Almanac led me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. Surely they are a wonderful remedy, and will do all that is claimed for them. I now get six hours of beautiful sleep, when one or two hours was all I could get before. "Anyone who gives Dodd's Kidney Pills a fair trial will get relief." Impure blood caused by weak kidneys falling to do their work irritates the nerves and causes sleeplessness. Ask your physician for Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Scotia being the eldest son of the late Mr. John D. Nash, one of the most prominent citizens of Halifax in his day and generation.

In early life he was identified with his father in business in Halifax until his appointment to the Inland Revenue Department there in 1870. After three years in that office he was transferred to Charlottetown for the purpose of organizing the Inland Revenue Department which he was then appointed Collector. This position he held until his superannuation in 1914. Thus he was continuously Collector of Inland Revenue in Charlottetown for upwards of forty years—a record seldom equalled in the Civil Service of Canada. In the discharge of his official duties he was conscientious and faithful and his office and books were models of neatness and accuracy. He was educated in Sackville University and was a life long student keeping well abreast with current events and frequently contributing historical and literary articles to the press.

He was a life-long member of the Presbyterian Church, for many years an elder in Zion Church and Superintendent and Bible class teacher in its Sunday School.

He is survived by Mrs. Nash and a family of eight namely: Charles H., in Husum, Wash.; Frederick J., Editor of the Patriot, Charlottetown; Mrs. J. A. Farquharson, Mrs. John Fulton, Mrs. W. C. Laird, Mrs. James Wood, Mrs. David Inglis and Miss Susie. All were at home at the time of his death except Charles and Mrs. Fulton who are expected to arrive in time for the funeral, which takes place this afternoon from his late residence 214 Kent St., at 2.30. The sympathy of the community will be extended to the sorrowing in their bereavement.

CAPT. CLARK'S SUCCESS.—The following reference from a Western exchange will be of much interest here as Capt. Fred Clark is the son of Mr. A. E. Clark, Station Agent at Souris. Captain Fred Clark, whose promotion to a captaincy recently made him assistant superintendent to the Trans-Siberian railroad, writes to his wife, who was formerly Miss Ann Carpenter, under date of April 3, that he has been assigned to charge of the division between Manchuria and Omsk. Captain Clark has been in the service over a year and a half and ten months of this time he has spent in Siberia. He was with the Southern Pacific company here and enlisted with the division of 300 American railroad men for a period of five years, but it is now uncertain whether he will have to remain in the service for this length of time. If he should and be stationed at Vladivostok, Mrs. Clark plans to join him. Captain Clark, who studied the Russian language before leaving this country, has been continuing his study in Siberia, and it is necessary in this branch of the service.
