Presentation At Cornwall At the close of the Sunday school in Cornwall United church on June 27th the senior girls presented their teacher, Mrs. (Rev) D. K. Ross with a beautiful silver flower centre and address.

The following is the address: Dear Mrs. Ross—We your Sunday school class of senior girls of Cornwall United church cannot allow this opportunity to pass, without expressing our regret for your leaving, and our appreciation of your sterling worth as a teacher and true friend.

During the time you have been with us, you have by your kindly disposition and genial manner endeared yourself to us all, your success as a teacher has been very marked due to your superior talent and thorough knowledge of the Bible.

We are sorry that you are leaving us, yet we are pleased to know that you are not forsaking our Island home and we feel confident that in your past success is an index to the future, you will make many warm friends and meet with every success in your new field of labor.

Please accept this little gift with the prayer that God may bless your efforts and if He wills, that you may long be spared to continue your faithful service in his vineyard.

Signed on behalf of your Senior Girls Sunday School class. (Patriot Please Copy.) Meeting opened with the "Ode" followed by the reading of the minutes of the May meeting were read and adopted.
