A REMARKABLY NARROW ESCAPE

Special to The Guardian. CALUMET, Mich., August 30—Remarkable escapes from death occurred yesterday at Red Jacket shaft of the Calumet and Hecla mine when Mike B. Sunrich in stepping from a repair cage to the main cage fell into a shaft 150 feet before he grasped a rope, saving himself from a fall of a mile to the bottom of the shaft. His hands were badly burned on the wire rope, but he was otherwise unhurt. He was dangling from the cable when rescued.

CRIPPEN HAS NERVOUS COLLAPSE

Special to The Guardian. LONDON, August 30—Crippen, accused with Leneve of the murder of his wife, has suffered a nervous collapse and was removed today to the hospital ward of Brixton Jail.

LONDON, Aug. 29—Immediately Judge Marsham took his seat today on the Bow Street court. Dr. Crippen and the LeNeve woman entered the court. Crippen's moustache looked freshly grown and grey hairs were plainly visible in his stubby beard. Miss LeNeve had a heavy blue veil which she raised on facing the magistrates. Both were charged with the willful murder of Belle Elmore, and LeNeve was further charged with well-knowing the murder, and aiding and abetting Crippen.

Travers Humphreys, prosecuting attorney, said far as the evidence was completed at the present time it pointed as far as LeNeve was concerned, to the second of the charges. Without saying at the present time that there was not some evidence against LeNeve of being concerned in the willful murder of Crippen's wife, the evidence rather pointed to her having being an accessory after the fact.

All that Mr. Humphreys proposed to hear today was formal evidence of the arrest. Then he would ask for a remand of eight days. Dr. Crippen and LeNeve were calm and collected and listened intently to the proceedings. They leaned on the dock rails quite at their ease.

Inspector Dew, being called, gave an account of the arrest on the S. S. Montrose. On Crippen was found a card on which he had written: "I cannot stand the horror I go through every night any longer, and as I see nothing tonight ahead and money has come to an end I have made up my mind to jump overboard tonight. I know I have spoiled your life, but I (there were two I's) hope some day you can learn to forgive me."

Last words of love. Yours H. "On board the Megantic Crippen asked Dew to let him see, but not speak to his favorite woman. I do not know how things may go," said Crippen. "They may go all right or they may go all wrong, she has been my only comfort for the last three years."

"Dew said he did not speak to LeNeve to see what she had to say. Crippen saw LeNeve afterwards. Dew, replying to Mr. Newton, said the prisoners had given absolutely no trouble."

The prisoners were remanded for eight days. Mr. Newton's request to be allowed to see the depositions was refused. Solicitor Newton says that Dr. Crippen and LeNeve are confident and happy as to the issue of the trial. Crippen told Mr. Newton, "I confessed nothing on the Montrose. Since that police officer's hand fell on my shoulder I have vehemently and strenuously affirmed that I know of no crime and have taken part in none."

"During my voyage to Canada on the Montrose I had not the slightest suspicion that I was watched. No word, no hint that reached me. Not until Inspector Dew boarded the vessel off Father Point did we know that we had been pursued over hundreds of miles of land and water. The arrest came like a thunder-clap. I could not at first realize that I was a prisoner."

RECORDS LIKELY TO GO AT READVILLE.

BOSTON, August 29—This city tonight is filled with horsemen from all parts of the country, in anticipation of the grand circuit meet, which will open at the Readville track tomorrow. The opening will be a three star bill, as outside of the two divisions of celebrated champions, Gilman, will compete his wagon record of 2.01, made this season at Cleveland.

Readville has been called the two-minute track, as over it the famous Lou Dillon first stepped a mile in that time, while the record for pace of 1.59 1/4 by Star Pointer was, too, made at the same track.

The footing on the track is primed to the moment, the gelling to the pink of condition, as was attested today, when his trainer, "Doc" Tanner, gave him several slow miles over the parlor piece of dirt. With these conditions it only remains for the weather to be favorable and the rest will be attended to.

The American Derby by this year is for one and one-eighth miles, in place of one and one-quarter, as before. Outside of the Derby the 2.08 and 2.10 pace will be decided tomorrow, both with a select lot of material.

Wednesday comes the American Horse Breeder's Futurity, the trotting division of which will bring together the crack colts of the season. Colorado E., 2.07 1/4, and Native Belle, 2.07 1/4. Both these youngsters met last week over the Empire track, Colorado E. making himself a world champion by winning.

SIXTY YEARS AGO

The following interesting bit of information has been kindly furnished The Guardian by James Grigg, West Devon, whose letter some months ago was so much enjoyed:— A few months ago I referred to the sixty-four years ago when we had a remarkable early spring. The record shown the 25th day of March, we saw not very good crops. I wish to say a few words with regard to the mode of reaping in the crop. Well, it was done by hand, for there were no mowing machines at that time, and was done chiefly by the small heads. Old and young, male and female, were helping and ten stooks daily

CANADIAN AVIATOR MAKES ANOTHER WORLDS RECORD

NEW YORK, Aug. 29—To the Canadian aviator, J. A. D. McCurdy, belongs the distinction of being the first airman to successfully send a wireless despatch from an airship in motion to a wireless receiving station on land. He accomplished this feat at "Sheepshead Bay" on Saturday, when he sent the following message from a height of 500 feet above the sea to the wireless station—on the top of the Sheepshead Bay race track grand stand: Over Barron Island, 6.54 P. M.

and goes around and around until he has enough to make a sheaf. As our fields were enlarging and the stumps were being removed, we needed a more speedy way to gather in the crop, so we commenced to use the scythe by fixing a bow on the standing and cutting it against the standing. One hand was employed to gather the sheaf, which was a very hard job to do, so we then cut it outward from the standing grain. A rake then could be used to gather the sheaf. The cradle was then introduced which was greatly appreciated, being the mowing machine with the reaper attached. This machine throws the grain on the table, a man sits on the table with rake in hand and hauls it to the ground. The next improvement was a self-raker. Then comes the binder. Farming now is only play to what it was seventy years ago.

A word about threshing. When young I did not like threshing. I was more than pleased when father decided to hire a thresher. He came lately from Old Ireland. He commenced by filling the threshing floor with sheaves and taking his jack-knife cut the ties and then commenced to pound away and at every stroke he changed hands, right and left, so he continued from morning till the day's work was done, with the regularity of clockwork. When Saturday evening came the thresher helped to clean up. We had no fanners at that time, but had a good breeze of wind which went through the floor. The result of the six days' toil was sixty bushels of good wheat.

MR. TIFFIN TALKS OF I. C. R. AND BRANCHES

OTTAWA, Aug. 29—An important official of the Intercolonial Railway of Canada believes that the system could be profitably extended to the west. E. Tiffin, traffic manager of the Intercolonial, said: "I have always been in favor of the extension of the Intercolonial Railway system through Ontario. It would give the lower province manufacturers a better entrance to the upper Canada markets than they have now, and it would facilitate manufacturing here in getting their products to the provinces. At present, however, the greater complaints are from the former."

"What route would be taken from Montreal?" "Paralleling the Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific," stated Mr. Tiffin. "It is through traffic particularly that we would be after. Personally, I am in strong sympathy with the movement in Toronto that our line should be extended there, but it is a matter of policy, in which the ultimate decision will rest with the government."

"Will the Intercolonial be leased?" Mr. Tiffin was asked. "If we should go back to the days of deficits I believe it might be beneficial to lease it, but at present it is on a paying basis, and is one of the best assets the government has." Mr. Tiffin states that the board of management will likely make before long recommendations for the acquisition of certain branch lines under the act of last session, but has not yet been decided which will be taken.

It is understood that certain lines, especially in New Brunswick, are applying their earnings to betterments in order to attain the standard required if they are to be leased by the government.

JACKSON'S CASE IN CONFERENCE

Special to The Guardian. VICTORIA, B. C., August 30—The Methodist Conference spent a part of yesterday in debate on a resolution relative to the teaching of Dr. Jackson in Victoria College, to the effect that it was regrettable that there had been in a college of the church teachings oral and written, which were unsettling and injurious. Dr. A. D. Watson moved an amendment that the General Conference was not fitted for a court of trial in such cases and that Conference reaffirms its allegiance to Christ as King and Savior and God, and its faithful adherence to the Word of God. The amendment was carried 125 to 84.

CURIOSITY TO SEE DR CRIPPEN

LIVERPOOL, August 29—The steamer Megantic, carrying Dr Crippen and Miss LeNeve, arrived off the port here shortly after noon today. Great crowds gathered in the vicinity of the landing stage during the morning and stood waiting for hours in the hope of catching a view of Dr Crippen and the young woman whose romantic flight with him across the ocean in the disguise of a boy had made her not the least interesting figure in the supposed crime. Strayed barricades, however, had been reared about the landing stage specially to prevent any one approaching the ship, and the crowds were kept at such a distance as to give them slight prospect of a close view of Inspector Dew's prisoners.

BARK KINGDOM STILL ON ROCKS

HALIFAX, Aug. 30—The Holy Ghost bark Kingdom is still on the rocks at Mud Island, 30 miles off Yarmouth where she ran ashore last Friday. LIFE'S BALANCE SHEET

(Dr. Palmer, in 'Northwestern Christian Advocate.') And find one act, though small— A thoughtless word—a look of scorn— That made a brother more forlorn, Or caused his feet to fall. Then I will pray my God above, For more and more of his pure love. And when life's toilsome journey's done Its deeds complete, its songs all sung, If I can truly say With heart and voice I did my best, To point the Father's heavenly rest, To all who will obey, Then I shall praise my God above, And ever dwell in his pure love. If, when the joyous day is done, I count the deeds that I have done, And find one act, though small— A loving word, a smile— That did some saddened heart beguile, Or to a soul recall The sunlit of the Father's love, Then I will thank my God above, And ever dwell in his pure love. If, when the weary day is gone, I count the deeds that I have done,
