

We Recommend for Investment
NEW ISSUE
 6 1/2% 1st Mortgage Sinking Fund
 Twenty Year Gold Bonds
Viau Biscuit Corporation
 Net assets four times amount of Bond issue.
 Earnings six times Bond interest requirements.
 Price—99 and accrued interest to yield over 6.60 p. c.
 Full particulars on request.
Eastern Securities Co., Ltd.
 Bank of Nova Scotia Building
 St. John Charlottetown, P. E. I. Halifax

St James Presbyterian Church
REV. W. B. MUIR, MINISTER
 F. T. WATKINS, ORGANIST AND CHOIRMASTER
 11.00 A. M.—Sermon.
 2.30 P. M.—Sabbath School.
 7.00 P. M.—Sermon.

Trinity United Church
 MINISTER:—Rev. W. M. Ryan, B. A.
 ASSOCIATE:—Rev. E. H. Ramsay, B. D.
 ORGANIST AND CHOIRMASTER:—W. E. Fletcher,
 A. R. C. M., A. T. C. L.
THE SERVICES
 10.00 A. M.—Prayer Meeting in Hertz Hall.
 11.00 A. M.—Preacher: Rev. W. M. Ryan, B. A.
 Subject:—"God's View of Goodness."
 Anthem:—"Jerusalem, My Glorious Home"..... Mason
 (By request).
 2.30 P. M.—Sabbath School and Bible Classes.
 7.00 P. M.—Preacher:—Rev. E. H. Ramsay, B. D.
 Subject:—"Our Lord's Third Temptation"
 Selection by Trinity Male Quartette.
 A CORDIAL WELCOME TO ALL.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS
 One insertion..... 10c per line of 5 words
 Four insertions..... 35c per line of 5 words
 Eight insertions..... 70c per line of 5 words

Agents Wanted
SELL HOSIERY FOR THE FAM.
 ly direct from Mill to Consumer.
 We supply samples.
 Catalogue Free. Sterling Hosiery
 Mills, Ltd., Dept. "V" Toronto,
 Ont. A.W. Jan. 9, 16, 23, 30.

LIGHTNING STRANGE BATTERY
 Compound. Charges discharged batteries instantly. Eliminates old method entirely. Particulars, Lightning Co., St. Paul, Minn.
 A. W. Sat. 11.

AGENTS SELL WASHO. WASHO. is clothes without rubbing. Sells on sight. Great repeater. Good commission to agents. Write quick.
 P. A. Lefebvre & Co., Alexandria,
 Ont. A. W. Jan. 9, 16, 23, 30 Feb. 6.

WELSMEN - WE OFFER
 ready employment and pay weekly to sell our complete and exclusive lines of guaranteed quality, whole root, fresh-dug-to-order trees and plants. Attractive illustrated samples and full co-operation, a money-making opportunity. Luke Brothers Nursery, Montreal. S. W. 91.

PORTRAIT AGENTS - WRITE for prices and catalogue. United Art Co. Limited, 4 Brunswick
 Toronto, Ont. 6863-12-23wsm201.
 *Lessons in home nursing will be given by the Red Cross. For information apply 59 Grafton St.
 7039-11-1mws.

LARGE CANADIAN MANUFACTURER
 of biscuits and confectionery, requires representative for Prince Edward Island. Straight commission. Must own car. Do not apply unless you have had successful selling record and can produce results. Apply P. O. Box 613, Halifax, N. S. 7259-16-1-53

AGENTS-NEW REMEDY FOR rheumatism—Solar brings instant relief and conquers after doctors fail. Thousands waiting for it.
 Exclusive territory free. Hustlers making $35 to $75 weekly. Write today. Chemical Products, 539
 Echo Drive, Ottawa.
 A. W. Jan. 16stf.

A BUSINESS OF YOUR OWN - NO capital required. Sell Canada's greatest line of Men's Tailored to measure clothes at $22.96 delivered direct from manufacturer to wearer. Every sale a big cash profit in advance. We deliver and collect. Experience unnecessary. Full or part time. We show you how. Remarkable selling outfit including raincoats, boys suits, shirts, pants and overalls. A money back guarantee with every sale. Write Society Craft Tailors, Box 2022, Montreal.
 B357

Central Guardian

SHOP from Holman's Catalog.

MISS MCKENZIE'S music classes re-open today Jan. 16th. 7271 16 11.

IN CONNECTION with the Hippodrome Skating program at the Arena this afternoon Children's season tickets will not be good for admission till after performance which commences at 3 and runs till 4 o'clock. 7268 16 11.

GRANVILLE CIRCUIT, United Church of Canada, services for Sunday, Jan. 17th: Pleasant Valley 11 a. m.; Granville, 3 p. m.; Wheatley River, 7 p. m.; Hunter River, 7 p. m. Rev. H. Pierce, B. A., will be the preacher at Hunter River.

ANGELIC SERVICES. -In the Parish of New London on the 17th inst. will be as follows:—Pr. John River 10.30 a. m., with Holy Communion. Burlington 2.30 p. m., Kensington 7 p. m. Sunday School 2 p. m. Annual meetings Monday 18th Burlington 2 p. m.; French River 7 p. m.; Kensington 7.30 p. m., to all four until Wednesday 20th at 7.30 p. m.

RED CROSS ACTIVITIES. -The Red Cross nurses were busy this week carrying on inspection in West Kent School. The nurses have been assisted by Dr. Johnson, Archibald, Warburton, Dewar and Aldmarsh, in their good work. The Red Cross nurses are also conducting a Home Nursing class in connection with the Women's Institute Short Course.

HIPPODROME SKATERS at Arena this afternoon. Admission children 25cts. adults 35 cts. Performance starts at 3 o'clock, doors open at 2.30 7268 16 11.

NEW GLASGOW CHRISTIAN CHURCH. -Rev. John William Tyndall, Jr. will preach in the New Glasgow Christian Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and Sunday evening at 7 o'clock and in Fredericton at 8 p. m. Services will begin promptly on the hour and all are requested to be on time. The public is cordially invited to worship with us.

BIRTHS
BROWN - At Hunter River, on Jan 8th, 1926, to Mrs. and the late Gordon Brown, a daughter, (Helen Gordon.)

DEATHS
DRUMMOND - At Brookfield, Jan. 15th. Mrs. Catherine Drummond, age 80 years. Funeral Monday at 1:30 p. m. to Brookfield Cemetery.

FINLEY - At Vernon on Jan. 15th. Patrick Finley. The funeral will leave the house Sunday the 17th at 2 p. m.

SINCLAIR - At Hamilton, P. E. I., Jan. 15th. Rev. Robert Sinclair, aged 78. Funeral Sunday, Jan. 17th at the church Malpeque at 2.30 p. m.

BROWN - At Montreal General Hospital, Montreal, Jan. 14th, 1926. Emmeline Jane Vessey, wife of Stephen Brown, Little York. The funeral will be held from her late residence, York, Monday, Jan. 18th service starting at 2 p. m., funeral leaving house at 2.30. Interment at York Cemetery.

ROBERTSON - The death occurred at Jamaica Plains, Mass., on Nov. 1st, 1925, of Mrs. Alice Robertson. Deceased was formerly Miss Ellen Daniel of Murray Harbor North and resided in Brudenell before her removal to the United States several years ago.

FRENCH FORT AND DUNSTAFFAGE NOTES. -It will be interesting to note that Mr. George D. Stewart has taken up his winter quarters in French Fort, as he has a good string of speed in that section to train in his spare time. Including Papper, Gilr, E. Connely, Nancy Hart, Harry Marjorie and a yellow pacer, Jack, owned by S. Woolridge. There is no doubt when the ice cleans off and our veteran gets going that there will be lots of whirl winds seen on the East River. There is no doubt when our trainer gets his string in line that he will open the eyes of their owners and show them what skillful handling will do. We all join in wishing him success with his bunch. Mr. Stewart also intends landing his mud digger on Johnsons River as soon as the farmers say the word. He has a new double ratchet cog fork, and it is his intention to give all customers satisfaction. Of course this only takes place when the ice is not in shape for speeding. -Mr. Earl P. Connely of French Fort has recently purchased from Mr. Murdoch McLeod his handsome driver. It is rumored that our jockey is going to put her under training for the winter months which will no doubt benefit her. -Our two local farmers Mr. Wallace Owens and Mr. Ambrose Henry have completed the dusting of the ice and no doubt it will be very satisfying to know that under such capable management one need have no fear of driving over a spring hole if he follows the bushes. -Mr. Ambrose Henry has been granted the contract to supply the Dunstaffage Creamery with their year's supply of ice. And as Mr. Henry filled the bill last year the Directors did not hesitate in giving him the contract. -Messrs. James Miller and Robert Rhynes, Jr. attended last night's hockey match. It is their intention to follow up as many games as possible as they are both great lovers of sport. -Con.

PRESENTATION. - On New Year's eve twenty-eight in number of choir and congregation of the Baptist and United Presbyterian church of Bonshaw gathered at the home of Mr and Mrs S. Hickox. On behalf of those present Mr J. J. McLeod and Mr. H. Crosby gave short addresses. Mr. H. Crosby made the presentation of a very well filled envelope to Mrs. S. Hickox, organist of both churches. Mrs. Hickox in a few words thanked all for the gift, and thoughtfulness and kind words of appreciation. A lunch was then served by the young ladies after which a very enjoyable hour was spent in a sing supper and social chat and after all joining hands and singing Auld Lang Syne and For They're a Jolly Good Couple, they went home after spending a very pleasant evening.

Male Help Wanted
BIG EARNINGS STEADY EMPLOYMENT for Barbers. Become expert in 8 weeks. Write Mober Barber College, Department "W", Halifax. 3-1-tst-ft.

FOR SALE - JERSEY BULL, Fifteen months old, sire bred on Jersey Island. Dam heavy producer. William Clark, Jr., North Wiltshire. 7243-15-1M31.

FOR SALE - TWO SILVER BLACK Males one female patch. Will sell cheap for a quick sale. Apply W. H. Carragher, Kelly's Cross, Lot 29, P. E. I. 7260

FOX RANCH WITH LARGE ENCL. Keeper House, Managers House, Barn, Hen House, and thirty acres of the best soil near the City of Portland, Maine. Great bargain. A. T. McConnell, 27 Jackson Street, Portland, Maine. 7154 11 1 71.

FOR SALE - THREE PURE BRED Hereford Bulls under 1 year. Sanders and Saunders, Appleton, Ed. G. Saunders, City or Frank Sanderson, North River. 7182 12 1f

FOR SALE - LUMBER SCANTLING, boards, laths, staves, shooks, barrel heads and lobster traps stock. We are open to receive orders for any of the above mentioned stock and also orders for the different kind of barrels. Our prices are right and we would be pleased to receive your order by phone or letter. -E. E. Shearbell Postage, P. E. I. 7208-14-131

TO LET - LARGE SUNNY room, heated, central. Apply Guardian Office. 7222-14-2-11

FOR RENT - TEN ROOMED dwelling house at Portage Station suitable for lodging house ready for tenant first of June. Apply E. E. Shearbell, Portage, P. E. I. 7208-14-131

TO LET - FROM FEB. 1st SOUTH-ern half of the (Palmer estate) house No. 220 Queen Street, "ones. Enquire at 222 Queen Street. 7229-14-11st

Situations Vacant
$5. sess. HOUSEHOLD NECESSITIES - greatest imaginable demand; have business of your own; make five dollars up daily; capital or experience unnecessary. B. Garretson, Brantford, Ont. 1-13-121.

Hippodrome Skaters at Arena this afternoon.

Admission children 25cts. adults 35 cts. Performance starts at 3 o'clock, doors open at 2.30 7268 16 11.

PRESBYTERIAN SERVICE will be held in the Marshfield Baptist Church Sunday, January 17th at 3 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Muir will preach.

FUNERAL TODAY. -The funeral of Catherine McKay takes place this morning from A. A. Hennessey's Funeral Home to St. Dunstan's Cathedral thence to R. C. Cemetery.

GRANVILLE. -There will be service in the Presbyterian Church Granville on Saturday evening, Jan 16th at 8 o'clock. A hearty invitation to all.

HIGHFIELD. -The service in the Presbyterian Church Highfield on Sunday, Jan. 17th, will be at 3 p. m. Sunday School at 2 p. m. All are invited.

AT BURNS ANNIVERSARY. Rev. Bruce Muir, o' the Kirk, will give readings from Rabble's poems in the brae Scots tongue. -Janwar 25th, and 26th. 7269 16 11.

BROOKFIELD. -The services in the Brookfield, congregation on Sunday, Jan. 17th, will be as follows, Hartsville 4 p. m.; Brookfield 7 p. m. and Hunter River 7 p. m. All are cordially invited.

BRADALBANE AND ROSE VALLEY. -The services at Bradalbane and Rose Valley on Sunday, Jan. 17th, in connection with the Presbyterian Church in Canada will be held in the Orange Hall, Bradalbane at 11 a. m., and in the Orange Hall, Rose Valley at 2 p. m. Sunday School at the regular hour. All are cordially invited.

IN CONNECTION with the Hippodrome Skating program at the Arena this afternoon Children's season tickets will not be good for admission till after performance which commences at 3 and runs till 4 o'clock. 7268 16 11.

C. G. I. T. RALLY. -A splendid rally of C. G. I. T. girls was held Thursday evening in St. Paul's Parish Hall under the direction of Miss Mary Allison, National Girls Work Secretary. After supper the girls were divided into ten groups and each group under the leadership of a girl previously chosen discussed challenging questions relative to group and personal standards. When the girls re-assembled a new game and a short singsong were entered into with great spirit followed by a service of worship. Findings from the discussion group were read by Miss Nancy Weeks and the whole discussion then summed up most convincingly by Miss Allison who stressed greatly the importance of a girl living out her C. G. I. T. standards at all times in home, school and church for by her daily conduct will she be judged and not by her ability to lead meetings and make speeches. The rally ended with prayer and the singing of "Taps."

Ordination of Elders at Mount Stewart

On Thursday evening the Presbyterians of Mount Stewart turned out in large numbers to witness the setting apart of two worthy men to the eldership of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. The Rev. D. MacVicar, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather had driven over from Cardigan and had brought with him four of his own elders to take part in the ordination. The old Methodist Church was filled to capacity by a congregation of sincere worshippers. The Rev. W. Bruce Muir, St. James', Charlottetown, preached the sermon from the great text of St. Paul: "Out of the Weak Things of the World God has ordained strength." He gave a powerful exposition of this text and showed how it was being repeated today in the preservation of the Presbyterian Church in Canada which, although numerically weak was by the blessing of God becoming stronger every day. All that the genuine Presbyterians of Mount Stewart required to do was "to be steadfast and always abundant in the words of the Lord" and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the eldership. The service of praise with Miss Marion MacKenzie at the organ was excellent and the congregational singing some of the old time Methodists and thus they would go on from strength to strength. After the sermon Mr. MacVicar ordained to the eldership Mr. Geddie Douglas and John Pigott who in the most manly manner and without any equivocation or mental reservation took the vows which all good elders of the Church have taken from time immemorial, promising to follow no divisive courses. Mr. MacVicar then gave a few words of wise counsel to the newly-elected elders, and also to the congregation exhorting them to be loyal to the men of their choice for the elders