REPORTS VERSUS FACTS.

The following despatch appeared in the Toronto Globe of June 14:

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., June 12.—The prohibition Act has been in force a week to-day, and no conviction has yet been obtained thereunder, although the saloons are openly violating the law. The Act only applies to Charlottetown, and was not submitted to a vote of the citizens before coming into force. It is believed a majority of the citizens are opposed to Provincial Prohibition as being inefficient in its scope. There are also grave doubts as to the constitutionality of the Act, and as a consequence its enforcement has received a serious blow by the resolution of the City Council at the meeting on Monday night. The Council decided that the police officers must take no part in prosecutions under the act; that the enforcement must be left to the Provincial Government. This ties the Act up at present, and the outcome of the conflict between local and civic authorities is watched with interest.

The above despatch, together with others of similar purport has appeared in a number of newspapers in the Mainland Provinces. Its authorship whether at first or second hand can be easily located when it becomes necessary. It no doubt expresses the wishes of the saloonmen and their abettors in the City Council. There is no doubt that they hoped to "tie up the Act" by resolution of the Council, but at the first pull on the string yesterday morning the boasted knot came untied. The Marshal and police concluded, very prudently, to serve the papers issued by the Stipendiary Magistrate and so the tie-up ended rather ingloriously. As to the boast that the "saloons were openly violating the law" at the time the despatch was sent it was simply untrue. It is a fact that during the first week of the law's operation there were no open violations of the law. As to the further boast that no convictions had yet taken place when the law had been in operation barely a week, the truth may be admitted, and it is in no way remarkable. Even had the violations been open and frequent there had not been time for the Court to do its work.

The complaint that the law was not submitted to the people is really laughable. We have had some experience of the Canada Temperance Act when it was voted into force by good majorities. The illicit liquor sellers had not any more respect for it on that account, as was proven by the fact that they were fined right and left and many of their number spent months in jail as the result of their violation of a law that had been submitted to popular vote. There is some evidence that they have now a more wholesome regard for the provincial law with its heavier penalties than they had for the Scott Act. The "grave doubts as to the constitutionality of the Act" are simply an echo of the resolution passed by the Council. Probably the Minister of Justice, who has pronounced the law valid, is a somewhat higher and sounder authority on constitutional law than the Globe's Charlottetown correspondent. Be that as it may the "serious blow" against the enforcement of the Act as delivered by the Council is not apparent. The law will be enforced. And so far, despite the reports sent abroad the first week of the operation of the law was the soberest week that Charlottetown has seen for years past.

The wheat harvest of the United States this year is estimated at 633,871,000 bushels, about two thirds of which will be needed for home consumption, leaving one third for export.

The London, Ont. Methodist Conference has set its face against its ministers accepting reduced rates on railways. They will not ask favors on account of their calling, holding that it may compromise their independence.

Cuba has accepted the United States terms as embodied in the Platt amendment. It remains for the Constitutional Convention to take up and pass an Electoral bill providing for the election of all the officers necessary to set up an independent Government in Cuba. It is thought all can be completed by next Christmas and the island become a self-governing republic by that time, after which the United States troops will be gradually withdrawn.

Manitoba has planted this spring much the largest acreage in her history—2,061,400 acres, against 2,122,500 last year. In wheat alone the increase over last year is over half a million acres. Seeding began in some parts of the Province as early as 1st April and was generally completed by the 20th of that month. During seeding the weather was very favorable for farming operations and it has

THE VACANT CHAIR.

When the little family circle is broken and we sit sadly looking upon the vacant chair, we think of the things that perhaps we might have done to keep the loved one with us. Why not think of these things now before it is too late? Is it a kind, loving and hard-working mother who is giving all her strength and efforts for the family well-being and happiness? Is it a delicate fragile sister; or a weak and ailing wife? Try to give her the tender care she needs. Do not let her fade away for want of earnest effort to preserve and restore her.

An Ohio lady, Mrs. Shopshire, living in Ballou, Shelby Co., in a thoughtful letter to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., says: "My mother had an ovarian tumor which we thought would result in her death, but we commenced using your 'Favorite Prescription,' and before she had taken three bottles she began to improve; she is living to-day and we have given your medicine three times. My mother was sixty-six years old when the tumor commenced to grow; she is seventy-six now and the tumor is all gone. She had gotten awfully large, and her limbs began to swell before she began to use your medicine. I value it so much that I am hardly ever out of it in my house."

This is but one of many thousands of instances in which this matchless "Prescription" has restored such complete health and purification to the distinctly feminine organism as to dispel every possible trace of abnormal or dangerous conditions without resort to surgery or similar obnoxious methods. For every form of female weakness and disease it is the supreme specific designed for this one purpose and no other. rica with a membership of less than 100. These two Associations have multiplied to 1430, with a membership of over a quarter of a million. The Association was 18 years old before the first gymnasium was established. There are now in America 360 Y. M. C. A. buildings, valued at $21,000,000. In 1881 the expenditure of all the Associations was about $100,000 a year. It is now over $3,000,000. The Y. M. C. A.'s in America are less than a quarter of the number throughout the world but they enroll more than half the entire membership. In Europe outside of the British Isles there are 126 Y. M. C. A. buildings, and in the British Isles there are also 126.

The Toronto Globe thus takes note of Sydney's progress: "Where there was nothing but a wilderness a few years ago there is now the smoke of furnaces glowing in the night and visible for twenty miles. The population has jumped from three or four thousand to about fifteen thousand, and the industries under way will sustain even a much larger city. The forest has been cut down to make room for palatial suburban residences, and new buildings of all descriptions are going up in every quarter. The assessable property has increased in value from one million to three and a half million dollars in a year. The postal records of 1899 and 1900 show by comparison the extent of the city's growth in one year. The sale of stamps increased from $4,041 to $15,500; the aggregate of money orders from $21,823 to $153,315; the number of registered letters from 4,500 to 36,000, and of ordinary letters from 464,696 to 714,672."

Fruity Flavor.

The term "fruity" has been applied to a peculiar sweet flavour of very pronounced character which is frequently found in cheese. It has a strong resemblance to the odour of fermented fruit, certain kinds of wine, &c. It is found in the cheese from different sections of the country and during the different periods of the season, but does not appear to bear any relation to other qualities in the cheese. It may run through the output of a factory for several weeks, but usually its appearance is intermittent and only certain days' make, or particular batches, are effected.

The specific cause of this peculiar flavour has not yet been clearly determined, although efforts are being made in that direction. Sufficient is known, however, to justify the conclusion that it is of bacterial or at least fermentation origin, and not due to the effect of any kind of feed as was once supposed.

Remedy.—Without more knowledge concerning the cause of "fruity" flavors, it is impossible to do more than make some suggestions regarding a remedy. As it is most likely the result of the milk being contaminated in some manner, special efforts should be made to locate any unusual taints of flavors in the different patrons' milk by means of the "fermentation test." Special attention should be paid to the cleaning of the whey tank if the whey is returned in the cans. J. A. REDDICK, Chief of Dairy Division, Ottawa, May, 1901.

DOES NOT WANT TO BE WORRIED BY LETTERS.

Mr. Rudyard Kipling, like a sensible man, does not want to be worried by letters when he is away from home. A New Zealand resident wrote for an explanation of the reference to the five free nations in his poem on the inauguration of the Australian Commonwealth. His London secretary replied: Mr. Kipling is at present abroad, and I am desired not to forward letters to him. I am able to inform you, however that the five free nations are England, Australia, New Zealand, Canada and the Cape.
