

FAMOUS SCHOOL

Winchester is the first of the British famous public schools. It has a longer record than either Eton or Harrow. Lord Wavell has disclosed that many generations of his family received their education at Winchester, the first Wavell recorded, on the school rolls going back very nearly five hundred years. Others famous public schools are, of course, now very much on their mettle and are looking up their files to discover what they can do in the way of challenging Winchester's Wavell record. They are scarcely likely to beat it, even if they can equal it. Winchester dates its scholastic existence to 1939.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our son and brother Gunner Laughlin Stewart, R. C. N. V. R., who lost his life on H. M. S. "Beaverford", November 5, 1940.

The faint last wishes, we should like to have heard
And breathed in his ear one last parting word
Only those who have lost are able to tell,
The pain in the heart in not saying farewell.

Lovingly Remembered by Father, Mother, Brothers and Sisters.
11-5-1i.

IN MEMORIAM

In fond and loving memory of our dear husband and father, who died November 5, 1942.

He little thought when leaving home,
That he no more would return,
That he in death so soon would sleep
And leave us here to mourn.
To think we could not say good-bye
Will always bring regret
But the hearts that always loved him
Are the ones that can't forget.

Sadly Missed by Wife and Family.
11-5-1i.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear father,

WILLIAM ROBINSON

who departed this life November 5, 1942.

Inserted by His Family.
11-5-1i.

IN MEMORIAM

In fond and loving memory of our dear son and brother Gunner Laughlin E. Stewart, R. C. N. V. R. who was killed in action in the Jarvis Bay Convoy, November 5th, 1940.

His Parents, Brothers and Sisters.
11-5-1i.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Laughlin E. Stewart who lost his life in the sinking of the S. S. Beaverford on November 5th, 1940.

We may not see the spot where you are lying
Nor place the poppy-wreath upon your grave
But mingled with our hearts deep sorrow
Is pride of one who was so brave.
Who answered quickly when the summons came
With eager courage glad to do your part;
There is no need of stone to mark your resting place
You live—though dead, in each remembering heart.

Lovingly Remembered by Mrs. Lloyd Herring.
11-5-1i.

TOWN CLOCK STRIKES —The town clock is again functioning normally, having been successfully repaired by Mr. A. MacEachern. The eye-bolt on which the striking weight was hung, removed the beam on top of the tower. A new cable and a new beam were used to replace the old which permitted the clock to strike again.

KENNY—KEOUGH WEDDING. A quiet marriage was solemnized at Seven Mile Bay, October 26th, when Kathleen Keough, daughter of Martin and the late Mrs. Keough, Albany, became the bride of Frederick Kenny, R.C. N., now stationed at Halifax, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kenny, Waterford. Rev. W. V. MacDonald officiated. The bride was becomingly dressed in a powder blue dress and hat, a grey coat with black accessories. The bride and groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Emmett MacIsaac, sister and brother-in-law of the groom. After the ceremony the newly wed couple left for Charlottetown where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Noonan. They also visited friends and relatives in the Western part of the Island. Their many friends wish Mr. and Mrs. Kenny many years of happiness.

WEDDING RECEPTION. — A very pretty wedding reception took place on October 27th at eight o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert MacKay, Graham's Road, in honor of their daughter Miss Miriam who had been married earlier in the day to Mr. Harold Bernard, son of Mrs. Alice Bernard, French River. The bridal party on their arrival home received congratulations from about sixty invited guests The young bride looked very lovely dressed in a gown of blue with matching accessories and wearing a corsage of roses. Their attendants were Miss Charity MacKay, sister of the bride and Mr. Reggie Simpson. A buffet luncheon was served under the supervision of Mrs. A. M. Green and Mrs. J. M. Campbell. The groom's present to the bride was a gold necklace and bracelet, to the bridesmaid, a gold locket and to the groomsman a fountain pen. A week previous to her marriage the bride had been given a shower at her home, receiving many nice gifts and a substantial sum of money. The best wishes of the community go with this young couple to their home in French River where the groom is a prosperous farmer.
