

THE LAST RESORT When all else failed, the Doctors said, "try Fruit-a-tives" And "Fruit-a-tives" cured Mrs. Cadieux

PLANTAGENET, ONT., JANUARY 31st, 1910. "About March 1st 1900, I was taken deathly sick with Stomach Trouble, Backache and General Break-down. I failed from 125 pounds down to 80 pounds, was confined to bed for eight weeks, and was unable to eat or keep anything on my stomach, vomiting nearly all the time. I expected to die, and took many remedies as well as employing different physicians. The doctors said they could do nothing for me and, as a last resort, one of the doctors told me "to try Fruit-a-tives—if they would not cure me, nothing would."

My husband bought "Fruit-a-tives" from Mr. Arthur Rolcan, merchant of Plantagenet, and I started taking them at once, and inside of ten days, I was able to leave my bed. My stomach got strong and I could eat and retain my food. I gained rapidly and soon had my usual good health back again, and today I weigh as much as ever, 125 pounds."

MDE. LAURENT CADIEUX. Even the doctors are recommending "Fruit-a-tives". They realize now that these wonderful fruit juice tablets will positively cure all Stomach Troubles, Indigestion and Dyspepsia—and they are using "Fruit-a-tives" in their practice.

Few people realize the vital importance of keeping their blood pure. Impure blood is the chief cause of Stomach Trouble, because it is from the blood that the stomach obtains the fluid which digests food. When the blood is laden with impurities, the dissolving fluid (or Gastric Juice) will be impure. Kidneys, from an inactive skin, or from all four. Naturally, the ordinary "digestive powders" and "pepsin tablets" will not cure the trouble, because they only help to dissolve the food—they do not go to the seat of the trouble. "Fruit-a-tives" is the greatest remedy ever discovered for all forms of Indigestion, Dyspepsia and other Stomach Disorders, because "Fruit-a-tives" is unequalled as a blood-purifying medicine. "Fruit-a-tives" acts directly on the liver, regulates the bowels, strengthens the kidneys, stimulates the skin, and thus rids the whole system of all impurities. "Fruit-a-tives" will positively cure you of any kind of Indigestion. "Fruit-a-tives" is sold by all dealers at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50 or trial size, 25c. If you are unable to obtain "Fruit-a-tives" conveniently, do not accept substitutes but send to "Fruit-a-tives" Limited, Ottawa and the regular size packages will be mailed you, postpaid, on receipt of price.

FINE DISCOURSE FROM A TIMELY SUBJECT

not less heavy the yoke of unworthy rulers. Wendell Phillips once in addressing the City Council of Boston told them that every one of them had been nominated in a saloon on Saturday night and was all but mobbed because he told the exact and literal truth. Last autumn, when a strike was on in a certain Western city, the rioting was so perilous that the Mayor closed up all the saloons until the strike was settled. Several months later it was discovered that the politicians had had no meeting places, and that with the closing of the dram shops, from whence issue five-sixths of all the crime of the country that the political machinery had also been closed. Two or three weeks before election the merchants and business men of the town got together, and for the first time nominated the candidates, all of which throws a floor of light upon De Toqueville's statement. One day he asked the mayor of Philadelphia some questions with reference to the future of democracy in America. The French scholar said, "Your saloons seem to be responsible for nearly all of your crime. Why do you not peremptorily close the saloons in your great cities? Why," answered the mayor, "because of the opposition of the business interests." "From which I am to infer," said De Toqueville, "that your republic is controlled by saloon capital." With one stroke of his knife, De Toqueville laid bare the rotten nerve that spreads disease through the body politic.

OLD POLITICAL CONDITIONS

In 1839 Macaulay describes a struggle in the English parliament of that winter. He says: "Lord Norriss was whistling. Lord Maidstone ill-mannered and drunk. After much grossly indecent conduct, a curious outbreak took place." Then Macaulay gives the bickering between the drunken speakers, and the page ends with these words: "At last the tumult ended from sheer physical weariness. It was past one o'clock, and the bellers of the opposition had been howling from six o'clock with little interruption." Then an American historian describes a struggle over the tariff in the State chamber in Washington 1878. "The distinguished senator strode back and forth. His arms went around every man he met, in maudlin embrace, and both sides of his desk were needed when he rose to vote. Another senator distinguished for his opposition to the bill, by help of diligent whispering, a man prompting and supporting on each side, gave his amendment correctly, dropped back in a drunken stupor. One was at full length on his desk and chair while Congress was legislating on the most important of problems, legislating with his eyes shut, and his mouth wide open." The American historian ends the statement with, "God deliver us from a pickpocket Congress, part of it drunk." Fortunately, that era for England's Parliament, and the republic's Congress is gone forever. But a condition just as bad may prevail, only from another viewpoint of peril.

Could Not Sleep.

DOCTOR SAID HEART AND NERVES WERE RESPONSIBLE.

There is many a man and woman tossing night after night upon a sleepless bed. Their eyes do not close in the sweet and refreshing repose that comes to those whose heart and nerves are right. Some constitutional disturbance, worry or disease has so debilitated and irritated the nervous system, that it cannot be quieted and causes nightmare, bad dreams, starting in the sleep, twitching of the muscles, restlessness, etc. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are a specific for all people troubled in this way. They have a soothing and calming effect on the nervous system. Mrs. Calvin Stark, Rossmore, Ont., writes: "About two years ago I began to be troubled with a smothering sensation at night when I would lie down. I got so bad I could not sleep in the dark, and would have to sit up and rub my limbs, they would become so numb. My doctor said my heart and nerves were responsible. I saw Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills advertised and got a box to try them. I took three boxes and can now lie down and sleep without the light burning and can rest well. I can recommend them highly to all nervous and run down women." Price, 50 cents per box or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price to The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

not a man fitted for the task of making the laws and executing them, but a man possessed of a large assortment of incapacities, partly inherited and partly acquired, and the municipal or state train runs wild. When a man has burned his life out to the dregs in achieving millions, it is dishonorable for him to ask the people to permit him in his broken-down old age to take charge of the financial interests of ninety millions of hard working people. If the rulers of this country were to sit down honestly and say, Am I fitted for this position? Have I really mastered the last fact in the case all this tariff? And this rate of bill? And this city? And have I any moral right to cast this vote, or hold this office? If every man who would be compelled to answer "No" should resign, most of the seats in our state, municipal and national capitals would be as empty as a church at midnight. We must hope much from the new movement among the educated young men of the country who are now detesting themselves to politics at the beginning of their career. EDUCATION OF CONSCIENCE.

A generation ago families grown prosperous, gave up moral drill and training of children. Now comes the harvest of penalty, blackened names, ruined homes, one wide desolation, a trackway of a tornado of crime and sin. Not so our fathers. They believed in patriotism, and in properly, believed in educating their children in mathematics, and drilling them, and compelling them to master the principles of morals. They had the sturdiness that belongs to men of oak and rock. Open your biography of Washington, just before the great battle. Washington went into his room, and closed his door and fell on his knees to pray, leaving orders that he should not be disturbed. An aide came and rapped on the door, then went away, to come back and again rapped loudly. Washington rose and thrust his sword through the panel of the door. It was that thrust, united with that prayer, that gave us this republic.

God gave us from a set of prosperous, effeminate men and women enjoying the fruits of their Christian fathers' fidelity, loyalty and manhood, but who are rearing a generation of children that are floating in "leopatra's barges, spreading purple sails, mere molluscoides in morals. Boys that are base while they are fearless, and daughters of pleasure who are rotten before they are ripe. No nation can be truly democratic until it is first truly "eocratic. This people representing 90,000,000, now shaping the molds of free schools, that all may become scholars, political liberties that all may become patriots, free markets, that all may become self-sufficing, must stand for morals, since rightness alone exalting a people, and not for their own sake simply, but because the American institutions of today are the seed-corn for 1,000,000,000 Americans who shall enter the scene on the morrow.

The Gillette slips through a heavy beard as though it were cream on a baby's face.

The twentieth century has brought forth no greater contribution to the comfort and satisfaction of mankind than the GILLETTE Safety Razor. You now see the clean-shaven "Gillette" face everywhere among the men who are doing things. The mustache affords a nursery for organisms, whereas the daily shave acts as a regular antiseptic." The GILLETTE SAFETY RAZOR is antiseptically clean. Each blade comes to you sealed in its own individual wrapper. It can never be other than antiseptically clean, because your face is the only face it touches—and there is no honing—no stropping.
