L. O. B. A. BANQUET—A very enjoyable evening was spent in the Orange Hall, Craupaud when the members of Princess Mary Lodge and their friends gathered for a banquet, this being the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Order. Mr. Percy Dawson acted as toast master. The following toast list was rendered: The King, responded to by singing the National Anthem. The L. O. B. A. proposed by Thos. H. Best, and responded by Bro. J. Verrier Moore, P. G. M. of the Provincial L. O. B. A. The Ladies, proposed by Hesh MacQuarrie, and responded to by F. W. MacDonald. Our New Members, proposed by Sister Leard, and responded to by Sister Rhoda Lowther. Complimentary remarks were made by Mr. L. T. Beaton and others. The remainder of the evening was spent in games and social intercourse. A hearty congratulations were joined brought the evening to a close.

TRAGIC DEATH.—The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ross, South Lake, were shocked to hear of the tragic death of their youngest daughter, Margaret Ruth, on December 30th, resulting from a fall from a horse. The tragedy occurred about 8 P. M. She was holding the lantern for her daddy while he was attending to some barn chores. The blow was received on the stomach and she succumbed immediately. They thought her unconscious and called medical aid but death had been instantaneous. Margaret was almost nine, a winsome lass and exceptionally bright and clever. The funeral service was held on New Years Day in the family plot at South Lake cemetery, beside the grave of her sister, Eleanor, who predeceased her seven years ago at the age of seven. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Ross in their great grief, as this is the second time they have been suddenly called on to part with one of their "treasures." She leaves to mourn their loss, beside her father and mother, one sister Annie and a brother Frank. Her relatives and friends, a host of friends both old and young.

"SUDEN DEATH.—The many friends in Georgetown of Mr. Alex Johnson, tailor of Newport, were shocked to learn of his very sudden death. The late Mr. Johnson served his apprenticeship under the guidance of the late Thomas Cameron, whose daughter, Miss Elizabeth Cameron still resides in Georgetown. After serving his apprenticeship he moved to Charlottetown where he entered the employ of one of the leading tailoring establishments of the day. Later he moved to Newport, setting up in business for himself. After the late Mrs. Johnson's death he was appointed as postmaster and it was while discharging the duties of this office that he was so suddenly stricken. His wife, a sister of Capt. William Sizeworth predeceased him several years ago. The Guardian joins a host of sorrowing friends in extending sympathy to the bereaved.—G.

"COUNCIL MEETING.—The first regular meeting of the new Mayor and Council was held in the Council Chamber, Georgetown on Tuesday, Jan. 3. Mayor Condon, who is beginning his third term of office expressed the hope that the harmony and goodwill which existed in the previous councils would continue. The releasing of common lots was set aside for future meeting. The request of the young men of the town for a night school during the winter months was further discussed and action may be expected in the near future. The following committees were named by the Mayor, the first in each case being the chairman: Finance, W. G. Doyle, Melville Ross, Peter Gotsell; Streets, W. G. Doyle, J. T. Parker; Police, W. G. Doyle, C. H. Llewellyn, J. T. Parker; Public Property, J. T. Parker, C. H. Llewellyn, F. J. Solomon; Fire and Light, F. J. Solomon, Melville Ross, Peter Gotsell. The following officials were appointed for the term: Town Clerk, C. M. McLeod, policeman

FARMERS ATTENTION

COBINATION RUST-RESISTANT SEED WHEAT We wish to announce that we have just received our second carload of this valuable Wheat. The first carload has already been sold, and we do not expect to be purchasing any further supply as this variety is exceedingly scarce in Canada. The quality is excellent, Number One Government Specified.

Combination Rust-resistant Wheat has been strongly recommended by the Department of Agriculture, Experimental Stations, and was grown in this Province by several prominent farmers last year, and turned out to be free from rust, while other varieties were only fit for hen feed.

We are selling this carload at a close price to get it introduced this year, and the price is $1.25 per bushel, done up in bags of 60 bushels each, best price for F. O. B. Charlottetown, cash with order. Prompt shipment can be made, or if preferred we will book your order by sending us a deposit of 50 cents a bushel, and we will hold your order for delivery later on, and the balance can be paid when shipping instructions are sent.

All orders will receive prompt attention. CARTER & COMPANY LIMITED REEDSMEN CHARLOTTETOWN
