THE Princess arrived last night at 11 o'clock and the express at 12.15.

C. E. L. JARVIS, fire insurance adjuster, St. John, came to the city last night.

HUGH McINNIS, Halifax, and H. D. McEwen, Motell, were passengers last night by the Princess.

HERBERT GREY returned last night from a trip to England. He was a passenger by the Tunisian to Halifax.

J. E. LEFURGEY, Summerside, and Rev. Dr. Campbell were passengers by the express last night.

At a largely attended meeting of the Teachers Federation last night in Queen Square School a very instructive address on the teaching of Nature Studies was delivered by Prof. Theodore Ross.

The Murray Harbor train did not reach the city till last night at 6.30 having been detained all day snow fighting along the line. The train was without a snow plough and this made the work much harder than it would otherwise have been. The regular train went out in the afternoon with a plough.

Being a member of the Executive Committee of the Tourist Association Captain Craig will advertise Charlottetown as a desirable summer resort for tourists on his trip West between Montreal, Que. and Kingston, Ont. He will introduce the principal ticket agents at the most important points and endeavor to get them to divert tourists to Prince Edward Island next season.

The following are the results of the second of the athletic contests in the Y. M. C. A. last night:

Horizontal Bar—1, W. Phillips, 2 1/2 pts.; 2, Os. Wright; 3, H. Miller. Running Broad Jump—1, W. Phillips 16 ft. 7 in.; 2, L. Crosby; 3, W. Bridges. 220 Yards Run—1, L. Crosby, 36 2/5 sec.; 2, Os. Wright; 3, Fred Taylor and W. Phillips.

Last week Simon Martin of Georgetown with the aid of Harry Thistle started to bore a well near the former's house. After reaching ten feet they struck a log, and had to start again in a new place. This time they again touched the log but managed to overcome the obstruction. The drill however next entered a bed of buck clay 20 feet deep. After this had been penetrated rock was struck. When they had bored through five feet of rock the water came gushing up right to the very surface and is now flowing out at the end of the pipe at the rate of a gallon a minute rendering the use of a pump, unnecessary.—Pat.

The remains of the late Mrs. Archibald Wight, Panmure Island, who died in the City Hospital Saturday were taken to Georgetown by the afternoon train yesterday and will be interred at Sturgeon this morning. The deceased who was thirty-nine years of age had been ill for some time and about two weeks ago was removed to the hospital where she underwent an operation but afterwards gradually sank. There are left to mourn a sorrowing husband and a little girl four years old. Mr. Wight had for six years been in the employ of W. A. Poole & Co., Lower Montague, but recently removed to Panmure Island.

VICTORIA Division of the Sons of Temperance had one of its largest and best meetings last evening. Among those admitted was one of the resident pastors Rev. W. Lodge. The Literary Contest was of course full of interest. During the three meetings that the contest lasted forty members took part on each side. The judge has reserved his decision until the next meeting when the victorious side will be duly announced. Instead of the usual Division next Monday evening a public meeting will be held in the Division room and will be addressed by Rev. Mr. Pegrum and others. The public are cordially invited. Weather permitting a fraternal visit will be paid to the Division at Little York on Tuesday next 19th inst. Sleighs will leave the city not later than 6.30 on that evening.

At the Mock Parliament last evening there was a battle royal in the debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne. The mover, Hon. Mr. McPhee, Minister of Public Works, and the seconder, Mr. Conroy, (Kings) made excellent speeches. These were followed by a slashing criticism, replete with humor and sarcasm from Hon. Harry Watts, Leader of the Opposition, and an able and well-considered defence of the Ministerial policy by the Premier, Hon. Gavin Duffy. The debate was then adjourned. A vote of thanks moved by the Premier and seconded by the Opposition Leader was passed to Mr. McLean, M. P. for bluebooks, rules, debates, &c. from Ottawa for the use of the Parliament. W. C. Turner was appointed President of the Mock Parliament Society, W. F. McPhee, Sec. Treas. and C. McCallum, Librarian. The Guardian representative formed a high opinion of the work being done and the interest taken by the young men in the public questions of the day.

Mr. William Lord who has been visiting Shediac, has left to visit friends in Moncton before returning to her old home in Sackville. Mrs. Lord intends shortly to join her husband in the west where they have been residing for the past year. Mr. Lord is a son of Curtis Lord, Esq., Bedeque.

EVERYBODY should see the Big Web Perfecting Press printing so many Guardians at 11.30 a. m. on Monday or Wednesday of each week. A monstrous roll of paper, several miles in length, is pulled through the press at a high rate of speed in a manner similar to that of the largest papers throughout the world. This is the only press of its kind in the province and well worth seeing. It

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. John Burpee was the hostess at a small but very pleasant 5 o'clock tea in honor of Mrs. A. A. Bartlett, Charlottetown. Another enjoyable function recently was an afternoon tea given by Mrs. James Harding for the entertainment of Miss Mary Bartlett, Charlottetown. The presence of a number of gentlemen added much to the enjoyment of the young people present.—St. John Telegraph.
