The Western Guardian

—IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

—SCHOOL WORK.—The following is the standing of the pupils of the Principal's Department of Abram's Village High School, Senior Grade, in order of merit:—Hermine Poirier, Walter Darby, Alma Leclerc, William Darby, Leah Arsenault, Junior Grade: Maxime Gallant, Therese Gallant, Arthur Darby, Louis Lejeune, Eva Arsenault, Marie Anne Arsenault and Felix Gallant.—M.

—RECRUITING MEETINGS.—At a meeting of the Prince Co. Recruiting Committee held in the Armouries yesterday afternoon arrangements were made for a series of meetings to be held at the following places on Monday evening Feb. 7th: Wellington, Tyne Valley, Freeland, West Devon, Colman, Bloomfield, St. Louis, and Tignish. The meetings to be held at 7:30 A. M. special trains carrying the speakers and musicians will leave Summerside early in the afternoon. Arrangements were also made for meetings at Hamilton and Spring Valley on Friday February 11th and at Searletown on Saturday February 12th.—C.

—POLICE COURT.—Two young men named Louie Acker and Ben Millar, who last summer started up a business in Summerside, buying hides and junk, have been arrested on a charge of fraud. A hide buyer arrived here a few days ago and purchased their entire lot of hides. The hides were weighed and done up in packages and addressed ready for shipment next day to town in New Brunswick. The goods arrived at the destination in due time and while the number of packages tallied correctly, upon weighing the goods it was discovered that there was a shortage which would figure out to a sum amounting to nearly $400. The young men will have a hearing in the Police Court on Wednesday.—H.

—ABRAM'S VILLAGE.—Mr. Augustin Arsenault has secured his house for the winter. Though at first the damage resulting from the haul seemed to call for a large amount of repair, yet under the skillful management of Mr. Edilbert Poirier, both parts have been brought together so securely that it is only a matter of a few days of carpenter work to complete it. Messrs. Prosper Gallant, S. E. Gallant, Abram's Village, and X. O. Galostome, were in Summerside last week.—The attendance to the Abram's Village High School for this finishing term is somewhat below the average. This is due to the prevalence of sickness among the children during the fall.—M.

—ABRAMS VILLAGE.—The attendance at the Agricultural Short Course in Egmont Bay last week was perhaps the highest attained in any of the localities visited by these lecturers. The average was considerably over one hundred. The people of Egmont Bay are always ready to grasp at available opportunities extended in their behalf, and on this occasion will have no cause to regret the time spent at these sessions. The directors feel very grateful towards the capable leadership of their president, Mr. Edilbert Poirier, were instrumental in bringing about this agricultural course, and who jointly with the farmers wish to thank the Government for their able assistance.—Mr. Baptiste Barriault of Maximville, who is under military training at Summerside, spent Sunday at his home in company with a soldier friend.—On Friday night about ten o'clock as those who were in attendance at the last session of the Short Course were returning home, a strong wind had sprung up, setting the light snow in motion, and making it very nasty. One individual lost his cap and was compelled to return home under a buffalo rug. Another met with a more serious mishap, when he accidentally slipped on ice, striking the corner of a sleigh or some other object, and broke a couple of his teeth.—The many friends of Mr. John Arsenault regret to learn of his illness.—Mr. and Mrs. Emmanuel Gallant of St. Timothy were visiting in Egmont Bay last week.—The excellent weather so far has permitted the people to cut their firewood and lumber for to do their hauling.—Mr. Nairn Gallant returned home from an inspection tour in the western part of the Island.—Mr. Audre Arsenault of St. Chrysantome, student of Caruquet College, has lost all his books in the recent destruction of that college. He was compelled to return home, but has taken up his studies in another college.—M.

—HATCHING HIS PLOTS.—First Man (with magazine)—"What a tremendous number of stories Penley Norris turns out."
Second Man—"Doesn't he? They say he uses an incubator to hatch his plots."

—OATS STOLEN.—Mr. Michael Ready, a resident of Tignish, on going out to his farm in Nail Pond Monday discovered that his granary had been broken into and a large amount of oats stolen, 30 or 40 bushels. Mr. Ready feels quite sure he has a clue to the guilty party.—Z.

—HORSE RACING.—A number of people witnessed the first horse racing of the season Monday on Nail Pond. The owners of the different horses were Jim Christopher, Patrick Hogan, John P. Gallant, and Jack Christopher, the latter of whom has a promising young mare which he imported from Kentucky this fall.—Z.

—HOCKEY.—Saturday the Tignish hockey team was organized and held their first practice on the new rink. The members of the team are as follows:—Claude Murphy, Clarence Whalen, Harold Hackett, Camille Gaudet, Geo. Gallant, Henry Gallant, Cloire Bernard and the speed king, Abare Gaudet. The first game will take place Saturday February 5, between Tignish and Kildare at the Tignish rink.—Z.

—DIED.—Monday, Marie, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bernard, aged seven.—Death was caused by diphtheria.—Z.

—FUNERAL YESTERDAY.—The funeral of the late Mr. W. A. Brennan yesterday was one of the largest ever seen in Summerside. After a short family service at the home, the body was removed to St. Mary's Church, the cortege being preceded by C. Company 105th Battalion, under command of Captain Dawson, a sympathetic tribute to Captain A. R. Brennan, Musketry Instructor, son of the deceased. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Neil McKelvie, William Stewart, T. B. Grady, H. J. Massey, Dr. Alex. McNeill and Mr. W. A. Stewart. The funeral was under Masonic direction and Grand Masonic honours were observed at interment. The services at the home, church and cemetery were conducted by Rev. C. de Wolfe White, Rector of St. Mary's Church. Among the many floral tributes, which were many and beautiful, were gifts from the following:—Mr. L. B. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Doull, Miss Helena Andrew, Mrs. and Miss Russ, Red Cross Society, Journal Publishing Co., Mr. A. A. Leturgey, Mr. J. E. Wyatt, Crescent Lodge K. of P., King Hiram Lodge A. F. and A. M., Royal Arch, Phileas Temple, Scottish Rite and a number of others.—C.

—WESTERN PERSONALS.—Mr. Samuel Kennedy, Bradalbane, was an inward passenger to town on Monday.—H.
—Mr. Justin M. Hynes, Kensington, has been admitted a barrister-at-law to practice in this province.—H.
—Policeman Mathieson of Kensington and Mr. MacKay were gifts to town on Monday afternoon on official business.—H.
—Messrs. A. A. McCaull, Ellerslie; A. McCaull, Freetown; Albert Riley, Sierbrooke, and Willis Kelly, Traveller's Rest, were in town on Saturday.—H.
—Miss Pearl McLeod, Vancouver, who has been visiting in Summerside the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. McKay returned to French River where she will spend a few days before returning to Vancouver.—C.

—Mr. Daniel Noonan and son, Master Lorne, of Bedouque, were in town on Friday evening, both of whom gave Bandmaster Thomas Gallant a boost in furnishing the excellent music which was much appreciated by the audience at the Crystal Rink.—H.

—Private Lorne Howatt of B Coy, 105th Battalion, Charlottetown, who has been attending the funeral of a comrade, A. Ross McArthur of Alberton, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Howatt of O'Leary, and returned to duty on Monday morning.—Z.

MAIL TIME

Mother o' mine, you will never know
What mail time means to us
Out in the front line trenches
In all this awful fuss.

With Fritz's high explosives
Dropping round like hail,
And our pals, God help them, in
We watch for the overseas mail.

When we sit in a rotten dugout,
With the roof just caving in,
Feeling not what you'd call happy
With the sights that we have seen.

The mail comes in, believe me,
We're glad that we're alive,
And the seas between are like a dream
The day the mails arrive.

We forget the awful horrors
When we touch what you have knit,
And the mud and water up to our knees
Don't bother us a bit.

And the cats! Say, they were scrumptious!
We're sorry for the boys
Who petered out before they came.
We like to share our joys.

I'm back to the trenches to-morrow
After a three day's spell
At rest camp, I'm not dead anxious
To be back again in that hell.

But it helps a lot when at mail time
We find we are not forgotten
By the ones at home. Now, so long, dear
(That's a tear, please excuse the blot).

Your Son.
