

It Stops Chapping

Jamieson's Carnation Cream is worth a great deal more than it costs this time of year. It costs too little to consider when you credit it with the comfort it gives. It cures chaps and stops chapping. It is agreeable to use and begins healing at once.

Price 25 cents

We have a large variety of other lotions and creams for those who prefer them.

CANNOT VIEW BENTON'S BODY

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Carranza, a rebel in Mexico, has sent word here that the request for a view of Benton's body should come from Great Britain, not from the United States. Benton being a British subject. This holds up the joint trip of British and American officials to view the body and further complicates the situation.

FOX BREEDERS' ASSOCIATION

The annual meeting of the Prince Edward Island Fox Breeders' Association is to be held in Summerside on Wednesday. This is the first annual meeting of the Association since it was organized and a resume of the first year's work will, no doubt, be looked forward to with interest.

In view of the importance attached to this organization at its inception and the admittedly great need that existed and still exists, for such an organization, it is feared that those actively engaged in the fox business did not give the Association the support they should.

Compared with the number of foxes in the province, the number registered is small, although registration was one of the reasons given for the need of the Association. The membership also, does not cover the whole field and altogether probably less benefit has accrued than was anticipated.

The Association was formed with a view to the protection of the industry, the safeguarding of investors and the general good of the business as a whole. That such protection was needed, is needed now, is even more evident today than when the Association was formed. Foxes being sold which, in the opinion of those versed in fox lore, could never result profitably to the purchaser.

One of the objects of the registration proposed was to safeguard the public against these. Stock in over capitalized companies was being sold. The Association was going to inquire into the bona fides of these. If it has failed in giving the necessary information on these matters it has failed in its chief objects.

It is known that companies in their prospectuses, and persons offering animals for sale, have advertised their foxes as Class A stock, although the Association has no record of such. It is true that many prospective investors have asked the Association for proof of these claims and were cordially informed that there was no such proof; it is also probably true that many sales have been made on the strength of these claims. Unless the Association check this sort of advertising it has failed in one of its chief objects.

Publicity was one of the purposes in view. This has been held in check by the failure of those who should have been most interested, in coming to the financial assistance of the Association.

These and many other matters will require to be threshed out at the annual meeting and on the conclusions that will be arrived at the future of the fox industry will depend very largely.

Many have already made money out of the business and are probably indifferent as to its future. There are, however, many millions invested, the safety of which depends upon the safeguards which the Association will throw, or neglect to throw, around the business.

The meeting should be a large one and it is hoped that such steps will be taken as will insure the future of the business and give it the life and the assurance that its greatness and its promise deserve.

PAARDEBERG DAY

The annual celebration of the anniversary of the Battle of Paardeberg, on Friday evening last, was, as usual, a brilliant affair and the speeches, as usual, eloquent, patriotic, proudly commemorative—and pathetically also—for we had shed our blood as well as gained a victory at Paardeberg.

The South African veterans who still remain with us were present. Indeed, had it not been for these and their efforts in preparing for the celebration, it is quite possible that Paardeberg Day would have passed unnoticed by our citizens—for we are prone to forget.

When we remember the agonizing days of 1900, when men and women thronged the news centres, eagerly devouring the bulletins, looking for—they feared to think what—it seems strange that it should all be forgotten so soon except by those who bore the burden and braved the

ADVERTISING P E ISLAND

Prince Edward Island is given an excellent write up in the current number of "Canada," the most popular colonial magazine published in London, England.

A feature of this magazine is the fact that a special commissioner representing the magazine visits every province in Canada every two years. This year, for the first time, thanks to the good offices of Mr. J. O. Hyndman Charlottetown, the commissioner included Prince Edward Island in his itinerary. He was greatly interested in the fox business and as a result, we have the writup referred to under the title "Fur Farming in Prince Edward Island." (The previous number of the magazine contained an article on Fur Farming in Canada.) In the article in the current number there is very valuable information in most interestingly given concerning the silver fox business and, incidentally, check this sort of advertising it has failed in one of its chief objects.

Publicity was one of the purposes in view. This has been held in check by the failure of those who should have been most interested, in coming to the financial assistance of the Association.

These and many other matters will require to be threshed out at the annual meeting and on the conclusions that will be arrived at the future of the fox industry will depend very largely.

NOTES

A correspondent in the Eastern part of the province intimates that he has noticed in the papers that Mr. J. J. Hughes has asked for a copy of all letters and other documents connected with the removal of the Post Office from Mr. Alexander Robertson's, Red Point, to Mr. J. E. Robertson's of the same place. Our correspondent suggests that Mr. Hughes should now ask for all letters and other documents in connection with the removal, some time previously, of the Post Office from Mr. J. E. Robertson's, Red Point to Mr. Alexander Robertson's of the same place. He hints that, possibly, Mr. Hughes might have some of this latter correspondence in his pockets, or, failing that, in his private coffers in Souris. The suggestion is a good one and might be worth following up.

PUBLIC MEETING AT TRYON.

The announced decision of the Post Office department that the Tryon Post Office is to be closed on March 14th, 1914, because of the extension of Rural Free Delivery, was the means of bringing together a very large and representative gathering of the residents of Tryon and vicinity on Thursday evening to protest against such a backward step.

It was pointed out by the various speakers that the Post Office here must have been in existence for more than a hundred years, that it is the only rural order office in a wide range of territory and a large population and as a public convenience was indispensable.

The following resolution moved and seconded by Messrs. Richard Metcalf and J. A. Lyman was carried by a unanimous vote, and was ordered to be sent to the press and the Department. Resolved—That this large and representative meeting of the electors and residents of Tryon, having learned of the intention to close our Post Office, hereby protest in the most earnest manner against the withdrawal of such a public convenience, especially when it is remembered that we have had such an institution for more than a century. The wide territory served by the Office in the issuing of money orders; the convenience of securing stamps and money orders from the mail couriers, especially in stormy weather; and the need of a place in which to deposit Postmaster General and our Parliamentary representatives praying that the order of the Department be rescinded, Com.

TEST CATTLE ENTERING U. S.

OTTAWA, March 2.—The Government has had no official notification from Washington of the reported intention of the United States Bureau of Animal Industry to subject all Canadian cattle entering the United States to the tuberculin test.

Dr. Torrance, Veterinary Director-General for the Dominion, expressed considerable surprise today at the report. It would mean, if true, he said, a great falling off in the export of live stock to the United States, as Canadian live stock had never been subjected to such a test before.

The general opinion here is to the effect that if the report is correct it will mean that the interests concerned in the United States have found a way to triumph over the Wilson tariff, which admits live stock into the United States free. Dr. Torrance pointed out, however, that the price of meats in the United States and Canada were so much on level at the present time that there is but very little advantage in Canadian farmers shipping their cattle across the border.

VAIN ATTEMPT TO DYNAMITE A VAULT

DES MOINES, Ia., March 2.—An unsuccessful attempt to dynamite the vault in the state treasurer's office here was made early today after two of the State house watchmen had been bound and gagged. The safe, however, obtained only $5, which they took from a cash drawer in the treasurer's office.

Two separate explosions were caused around the door of the vault, and the men were about to begin a third attempt when they were interrupted.

A third watchman was said by the police to be watching the affair to have been asleep in the supreme courtroom, while the attempted robbery was in progress.

MINNESOTA COUPLE MARRIED 60 YEARS

PRESTON, Minn., March 2.—A feature of the celebration of the 60th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Michael O'Connor here today was the presence of 90 of their grandchildren.

SHERIFF'S OFFICERS FIGURE IN CHASE

TORONTO, March 2.—An exciting chase in which an automobile, two sheriff's officers and an alleged absconding debtor figured occurred last night about 9 o'clock.

It is alleged that Mr. T. M. Boutts had a judgment rendered against him for $414 recently, in favor of the Canada Fine Arts Co., and that he has tried to evade payment of the same by going to his home in England, and would have gone but for the vigilance of the Fine Arts Co's counsel.

Hearing late last night that Boutts was about to go to the Old Country the solicitors immediately took proceedings to stop him. Hastily procuring a taxicab a visit was paid to Judge Winchester's residence and he accompanied them to the City Hall where the necessary papers were made out, and two sheriff's officers secured.

The officers then went to Mr. Boutts' residence at 2 Washington avenue, and compelled him to accompany them to the Municipal Hotel, where he will stay until brought before Justice Winchester this afternoon.

It is alleged that Boutts had his ticket and berth engaged to Montreal and further, that he had a ticket for the Old Country and was to sail Saturday morning.

One peculiar feature is that Boutts will have to pay the expenses of himself and the sheriff's officers while at the hotel.

LYNN GARAGE BURNS WITH $275,000 LOSS

LYNN, March 2.—Nearly 100 automobiles were lost in a fire, which destroyed the Essex garage, a three-story brick building on Broad street today, causing a loss of $275,000.

Stephen Athus, an employe, lost his life. Two firemen were seriously hurt when the second floor fell and 10 others were injured in a hot air explosion. The cause of the fire is not known.

The loss on the automobiles was estimated at $200,000.

TO CAPT. JOHN READ,
D. G. S. S. "MINTO"

Dear Captain—We the undersigned passengers of S. S. "Minto" on passage from Georgetown to Pictou, February 21st, 22nd and 23rd, 1914, wish to express to you our great appreciation of the extraordinary hard work done by you, your officers and crew during the time we have been with you under adverse ice and weather conditions.

Your untiring energy and efforts to relieve the ship whilst ice-bound is greatly admired and esteemed by us, one and all and trust that they will soon be crowned with success.

Whilst we regret that the S. S. "Earl Grey" did not come to your assistance today, we still have faith in and believe that you will surmount all difficulties and land us safely at our destination.

Whilst expressing our estimation and appreciation of all that you, your officers and crew have done to relieve the trying situation, we also at the same time wish to extend to your very worthy Steward and his assistants our thanks for their great kindnesses and attention as well as their efforts to supply our comforts, both internally and externally.

Finally we wish to thank Mr. Maloney, the Wireless Operator for many courtesies shown to us.

RECORD WEATHER FOR FEBRUARY

The month of February just closed had made a record for below-zero weather that has no parallel in the annals of the meteorological station at Charlottetown. From the 10th to the 26th the mercury was continuously below zero, with the exception of two days, the 15th, and the 17th to the degree ranging from five to twenty below. The below-zero readings were as follows, beginning with the tenth and excepting the two dates above mentioned—5, 13, 16, 8, 6, 4, 14, 8, 20, 2, 10, 14, 5. The lowest temperature recorded in any month since 1906 previous to this year was 14 below namely on January 18th, 1911 and February 7th, 1913. The mean temperature for the months of January and February since 1903 was as follows:

	January	February
1904	12.4	11.1
1905	12.	13.7
1906	23.4	23.2
1907	15.4	12.8
1908	20.9	19.8
1909	18.6	19.
1910	24.2	21.2
1911	19.1	13.9
1912	13.1	17.8
1913	23.5	13.6
1914	16.7	10.3
