THE CHRISTIAN HOPE

"Christianity is not merely a religion of present guidance and comfort; it is a life dominated by a confident hope in the future."
This hope is not vague belief in the attainment of something better than we now know or something happier than we can now enjoy.

On Friday evening, March 1st, the members of North River Y.P.U. met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Warren.

There is always a way to save if you really want to do so. Many waste money year after year, and wonder why at the end they have nothing left.

Without the British and Foreign Bible Society in Canada and Newfoundland, the Bible would be left strangely destitute of the book which is the hope of the race.

Without the British and Foreign Bible Society our missionary societies would be impossible and our churches would be left strangely destitute of the book which is the hope of the race.

WILLIAMSON - FRANCIS - The marriage of Elizabeth Kathleen, daughter of Mr. H. S. Williamson, of P.E.I., to Sgt. Bertram W. Williamson, son of the Rev. Dr. L. H. Fisher of Montreal, took place recently in Queen Mary Road United Church, with the Rev. Dr. L. H. Fisher officiating. Mr. W. J. Neale was at the organ. The bride was given in marriage by Mr. H. S. Williamson, a light blue sabbatine suit with a coronet of white pearls and she carried an arm bouquet of American and British roses. Mrs. Williamson is a floor length frock of turquoise and white with a white sash and a light blue sabbatine suit with a coronet of pink roses. Mr. Harold R. Hunter, of Montreal, was best man. Reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Williamson, on the evening of the wedding. The bride left for a honeymoon in the Laurier, a light blue sabbatine suit with black patent accessories and a muskrat coat. The couple have recently returned after four years service overseas. - Montreal Star.

Looking Ahead with Hal Bohaker

"Look," said an acquaintance of mine the other day, "I'm a firm believer in insurance. I think it's a wonderful idea for people who have their future plans cut off by a policy which will pay them out when they are going to be situated this time next year. But how can I choose the type of insurance that I should carry when my plans are all so indefinite? Why should I saddle myself with a policy that may be entirely unneeded to my needs in a year or so?"

"No reason in the world," I retorted, "But how would you expect a policy which will pay you out when you are going to be situated this time next year, but how can I choose the type of insurance that I should carry when my plans are all so indefinite? Why should I saddle myself with a policy that may be entirely unneeded to my needs in a year or so?"

The undersigned has a number of very desirable buildings, lots, some in the city, and some outside. The City, lots are located East of School Street, and the outside, near the beach with the undersigned. The lots mentioned are all near the beach of the most any of them.

HOWARD McINNIS
Fitted Footwear Great George Street

February 28th, in his 84th year. The deceased was a strong man of mind and body, and was only sick a few days before his passing. He is survived by five daughters and four sons, his wife having predeceased him a few years ago. The daughters are: Mrs. Hazel Grove, Mrs. John T. McLeod and Mrs. Harold Sharpe. Pleasant Valley, and Mrs. Wallace Dickson, New Glasgow. The sons are Benjamin Roy, William and Arnold, all of Fredericton, who have sincere sympathy in their sorrow. The funeral service was held on Friday, March 1st, from the Christian Church, and was very largely attended. Rev. J. W. Hayter conducted the service, and delivered a very impressive and fitting message based on the words taken from Job 5:26, "Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in, in his season. The hymns sung were: "Jesus Loves of My Soul," "Hail to Thee O Lord," "We Meet Beyond the River," and "The Lord's My Shepherd." Mr. Gordon Carey, feelingly rendered, "Dose Jesus Care?" The pallbearers were Messrs. Benjamin Craswell, George Nesbitt, Herbert Weeks, Roy Ferris, Stephen Bertram and William Semple.

A public meeting was held in New Glasgow hall on Tuesday and was very largely attended. The meeting was called to order and Mr. James Moffatt was appointed chairman, while Mrs. Larkins was chosen secretary. Mrs. Larkins read the report of the first meeting held for the purpose of securing further medical assistance and a cottage hospital, was at the home of Mr. Allan Wyand in October. She also read report on the meeting of two weeks ago. Very encouraging reports were received from various committees. And after a general discussion, it was decided for committee to arouse all possible interest in the various districts, and to gather information on the possibility of securing doctors, and also necessary fixtures for a cottage hospital, and expense of same. A public meeting will be called at a later date. Meeting closed with National Anthem.

Quite a number of the local race fans attended the meet in Charlottetown.

Mr. Henry Houston, Mayfield, in the City, where he is receiving medical treatment.

Mrs. Blair Andrew, accompanied by her son William, were visitors to the City on Thursday.

Mrs. Mervyn Bulman was a recent guest of Mrs. Miller Orr. Mr. Orr accompanied her on her return to the City, and while there attended the race.

Mrs. John Whitehead was in this community recently, and while here bought a number of milk cattle. N.
