S. S. PRETORIA ARRIVED IN PORT

The Latest Addition to The Charlottetown-Boston Route A Splendid Acquisition

The new steamer put on the Boston-Charlottetown route by the Plant S. S. Line made her first trip to this port last evening.

She presented quite an imposing appearance as she entered the harbor at half past seven and drew into her dock.

Every body and his wife appeared to be down to welcome the stately ship, and many were the expressions of admiration that fell from the lips of those who watched her arrival.

The addition of the Pretoria to this route, thus affording with the Halifax—a twice a week service between this City and Boston, is an event of more than ordinary importance.

It accentuates the well known desire of the Plant Line to do all that they can to develop tourist travel to this province, and the acquisition of the Pretoria shows that the Plant Company are anxious that the very best should be provided for travellers.

For even a cursory examination of the ship will convince anyone that in the matter of comfortable accommodation this boat marks an epoch in the annals of travel between Charlottetown and the realm of Uncle Sam.

The saloon, the smoking room, the music room, and the other luxurious conveniences provided are such as to make a voyage something to be desired.

Without exception the passengers, when asked about the trip down, united in expressing their satisfaction that the Pretoria is such a splendid boat at sea, being wonderfully steady in the roughest weather.

Leaving Boston the ship had a large passenger list. A great many were for Halifax, and a large number for Hawkesbury, and there were sixty passengers for this port.

Between 1000 and 1200 meals were served since leaving Boston, but the facilities of the steward's department are such that this large

TORONTO GRAFT IS NOW EXPOSED

In Judge Winchester's Report, Showing Crookedness, Dishonesty and Unfair Dealing by Which City Was Robbed—The Grafters to be Criminally Prosecuted.

TORONTO, July 10.—(Special)—In a sweeping document of one hundred and thirty-six typewritten pages Judge Winchester disposes of the findings of the Toronto Civic Boodling investigation which has continued in a somewhat desultory manner for over a year.

In the report given to the City Council for the first time yesterday afternoon a number of specific instances were mentioned where the city was taken advantage of by grasping contractors and all the way through the report is a review of crookedness, dishonesty and unfair dealing brought out as the investigation progressed.

Criminal actions will be taken against the grafters.

UTINY BROKEN OUT AT LAST

Russian Regiment Resents Attempts to Arrest Comrades.

TAMBOV, Central Russia, July 8.—(Special)—(delayed transmission)—A mutiny followed by serious fighting has broken out in the garrison here.

The Seventh Reserve Cavalry recently presented a series of political and service demands.

Today the authorities sent the regiment to guard a religious procession and in the absence of the bulk of the men attempted to arrest those left in the barracks.

They cut their way through other troops to the barracks where they fortified themselves and were still holding out.

Many were killed and wounded. The population is in a panic.

SENATE PERFORMS LOTS OF WORK

Commons is Waiting for Prorogation—Senate Very Busy with Last Details of the Sunday Act—An Attempt to Kill the Bill was Lost.

OTTAWA, July 10.—(Special)—The centre of parliamentary interest has been transferred from House to Senate.

The Commons has practically finished business and ready for prorogation, while the Senate is up to its elbows in details of Sunday Observance Act, and today it changed name from Lord's Day Act to Sunday Act made provision for Sunday handling express matter and for continuation of destination of loaded freight cars, as well as trains and vessels en route at beginning of Sunday.

A motion of Senator Landry calculated to kill the bill was defeated only Landry, Balfour and Montclair voting for it.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 10.—(Special)—The international cricket match ended today in a victory for the Americans by a large majority.

The Canadians only made 132 in two innings while the Americans made 274 in the first and closed the second innings after the third wicket was down for 131.

London, July 9.—The old-fashioned shapeless bathing dress, which was called "sensible," but was a perfect eyesore, will not be worn by the Summer girl at English resorts this year.

With a taste improved by American and French examples she demands artistic bathing wear, and the unbecoming, baggy blue serge, worn by John Leech's seaside girls in the fifties and sixties has become an abomination in her eyes.

As very many girls are now expert swimmers, light and well-fitted costumes have come into fashion. They are made of dainty becoming materials, such as drills and alpaca; while for those sea maidens who love to disport in the surf, without going out of the depth, they are of delicate silks, washing flannels and art linens. These costumes are well cut, artistically made.

London, July 9.—After being imprisoned for six days in the flooded Caradoc Vale (Wales) colliery, two miners of the six originally imprisoned were rescued alive today and three bodies were brought out by the rescue parties.

The search will be kept up, although all hopes of finding the missing men has been abandoned. The two men rescued were discovered in the old workings, having subsisted for a week on a few candles.

One of them was still able to walk and the other was delirious during the last part of his imprisonment.

KING EDWARD'S INTENTIONS

As to Visiting Canada Not Known, Lord Elgin and Churchill Coming.

LONDON, July 10.—(Special)—Winston Churchill is arranging for a visit to Canada during the autumn recess. He sails during the last week in July.

Lord Elgin, Colonial Secretary will come later.

If the King comes in autumn Lord Elgin will probably accompany him, also Lord Strathcona.

Court circles are severely reticent regarding the King's intentions.
