Y. P. U. MEETING - The Young People's Union of the Montague United Church held their meeting this week in the classroom in the form of a social evening with the entertainment led by Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Patterson. A number of games and contests were enjoyed by the members. A delicious lunch was then served, and a social half-hour enjoyed.

LADIES AUXILIARY HOLD MEETING - The regular meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion, Montague Branch, was held in the Legion Hall on Monday evening. The president, Mrs. Emery MacNeill, was in the chair. The meeting was called to order, and a one-minute silence was observed. The minutes of the last session were read, and after one correction were approved. One new member, Mrs. N. D. Nicholson, was welcomed. Several bills were read, and it was moved and seconded that these bills be read. The sick committee reported having visited two sick members who are now recovering satisfactorily. Plans were discussed for holding another card party in April, after which the meeting adjourned.

and the game developed into a closely fought battle, with the All Stars finally emerging as the winners by an 8-7 score. An unfortunate accident occurred when the Reserve Army goalie, Bobby Stevens, received a nasty cut over the eye, which necessitated six stitches to close.

Lumber cutting by the members of the Community Welfare League, in their drive for the erection of a recreational center, was continued on Friday after having been held up for some time by the large amount of snow in the woods. It is planned to carry on these operations as long as weather and ice crossing of the harbour permits.

On Wednesday night the local rink was the scene of two hard fought games of broomball. The first encounter bringing together the boys of Grades V and VI who took a 2-1 decision from the boys of Grades VII and VIII. The second fixture saw the Up-Town girls lose a bang-up contest to the Down-Town girls by a 2-0 score. With two or three inches of water covering the ice surface, which was thus made extremely slippery the evening's entertainment might well be classed in the water sports category. Nevertheless the participants apparently enjoyed every minute of it and the fans were certainly provided with ample opportunities for applause and laughs, as high diver, the breast stroke and the dog paddle were at various times executed with proficiency and vigour. The occasion was one of which it can truthfully be said that, all of the players were "all wet," but at the same time their indomitable spirits were not even "dampened."

CELEBRATED BIRTHDAY - Mrs. Edna Vickerson celebrated her birthday on March 18th at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry MacGregor. The choir of the Montague United Church was in attendance. Mrs. Vickerson has been a faithful member of the choir for many years. The celebration was opened with a very enjoyable sing-song, after which Mr. Donald Samson, director of the choir, read a humorous address, and Mrs. L. H. Poole, president of the choir, presented Mrs. Vickerson with a lovely hymn book on behalf of the choir. The choir then sang "Bless Be The Tie That Binds." A very delicious lunch was then served by the hostess.

C. G. I. T. HOLD MEETING - The Aketa C. G. I. T. of the Montague United Church held their meeting this week at the home of their leader, Mrs. Malcolm Patterson, on Thursday evening. The meeting opened with the C.G.I.T. Purpose and prayer, followed by the devotional period led by Allene Beaton with scripture reading by Helen Hamilton from St. John 14, verses 1-5. The story read was "A gift for Mom." Hymns sung were "Jesus Keep Me Near The Cross" and "God Sees the Sparrows Fall." During the business period plans were made to mend the church hymn books at the next meeting, which will be held at Mrs. Murdoch Beaton's. The leader read a Bible lesson "Thou Art The Man." In two weeks time questions will be asked on this lesson. The business part of the meeting was then adjourned, and a social half-hour was enjoyed by all.
