From the Toronto News
Scotia and Eastern Car Company

Sir Henry Pellatt has in his mind a dry dock and shipbuilding yard at Sydney, but as he has his ships ready for commission, Mr. Thomas Cantley will be prepared to equip the vessels with the finest guns in the world. In that day possibly every province in the Dominion will be represented in the Imperial Navy by a vessel bearing its name. And what is more, every vessel can be built in Canada and armed in Canada.

Mr. Cantley entered the services of the Nova Scotia Steel & Coal Company twenty-seven years ago as a sales agent. At that time the capitalization of the concern was less than $160,000, there is now invested in it over $12,000,000. Mr. Cantley, who has been with the company in all the important stages of its growth, has been the chief administrative officer for the past eleven years.

...The home of Edward Deagle, Bear River, was the scene of a touching incident, when on Sunday eve, Nov. 17th inst., his three daughters and their husbands, distant though they be, assembled from their different homes to once again renew the ties of filial love and friendship, before the departure of their parents to the far west. Mr. and Mrs. Deagle although taken somewhat by surprise, entertained their guests only as loving parents could. But Mr. Deagle was yet to receive his greatest surprise. His youngest daughter, Sarah Jane, in behalf of her other sisters, presented her father with a calabash pipe and a liberal supply of choice smoking tobacco. The evening sped all too quickly and after a sumptuous repast served in Mrs. Deagle's best style, the happy meeting came to an end. An revoir good and kind parents. God be with you till we meet again.

The bout lasted three hours and seven minutes, Kilonis securing the first fall in 32 minutes. A person seeing the next in seven minutes and the third by a flying mare-hold, knocking out Kilonis for twenty minutes and by the same defending his title to the middleweight championship of the world.

George Mackery, of Boston, arrived in Charlottetown last night and will go on with "Kilonis" Saturday night at the People's Theatre after the regular performance, 10 o'clock. Mackery is certainly a comer in the game and has won many bouts in the U. S. A. as well as in Canada. It is understood that a hundred dollar side-bet is posted, that Kilonis the Greek wonder, cannot secure a fall in thirty minutes. There will be two good preliminaries before the main bouts. Watch for Kilonis as he arrives in Charlottetown Friday night. The management of this exhibition guarantees a clean show and all who attend will get their money's worth. Admission, 50 and 35 cents.
